

N CATHOLIC ASSOCIATION.

tion met on Saturday last at the usual hour having been taken by Mr. Fitzsimon, he meeting at some length, and expressed his having to preside over a meeting not of or political attorneys, met in one of their stews, but over an assembly of his Roman trymen, congregated in their own house, rchased with their own money, for the pur- tutionally looking for those rights which ng withheld from this distracted country. ns were then handed in, after which Mr. ight forward his motion for a Committee of procuring a suitable situation for a school urhood of Kildare-place; and also on that model schools for Roman Catholic children, nell mentioned that having been informed g, which had fallen from Mr. North on the the case of the Ballinasloe affair French a en touched upon, he would, although it was al intention to have spoken upon this motion to it. It was not his habit to speak out of ters which had taken place in it, but had he ho would have endeavoured with his bro- nillelagh argument to have striven to encoun- cutting and close shaving of his learned North, however, was rather a trivial perso- of those who reminded him of the Scot who ants me," he being willing to go into the person who came up to his Parliament. He had certainly voted for the Catholic constant fidelity, but in other respects he slighly of him as a public man. He rained into a sort of factitious importance, e of his having been returned for one of the nglesea's boroughs, and it might be the case rforming the Orangemen of Ireland what e future Government was to be; that the determined to wield the sword, which he tioned, and that Mr North was flourishing This might give him some importance as but in other respects he was a very frothy s speeches replete with a sort of foam essence great deal of noise, bad taste, and no spirit O'Connell then proceeded at great length a the subject of the resolution; adverted to ave leave to the Protestant Clergy to divide to districts, and empowered them to build n they pleased; remarked upon the circum- o title could be made out to land in this onsequence of the Crown rights, and the ding, or about to be held, by his Majesty's s of woods and forests, and concluded by resolution. anded in £32 from Ennis, part of which cted at the Chapel door on one Sunday, and was the amount of subscriptions of £1 e persons whose names he would read.— ere were two names which he wished par- ention, Mr. Maloney and Mr. Gallery.— had been a member of the Old, and now me a member of the New Association.— e had given £l. of which £l. were intended arrears for the last two years—(Loud or the week was announced to amount to rchbishops, namely of Armagh, Dublin, am, have asserted that they neither collec- dually offered any living or pecuniary aid Rev. Mr. Maguire to leave the Roman ch.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A very distressing accident, attended with fatal con- sequences to two of our fellow creatures, occurred at an early hour, on Saturday evening last, in the immediate vicinity of High street and the Corn-Market. The floor- ing of a small store belonging to a corn-broker, named James Corbett, borne down by excessive pressure, suddenly gave way, bringing with it the heavy joists, and a vast quantity of grain, which buried in the ruins Mary Corbett, his wife, and Johanna Golden, a servant girl. The alarm was instantly given, and the crash brought a crowd to the spot; when the rubbish was cleared, the mutilated bodies of the two victims were taken up, the heads crushed to a mummy under a large oak beam, and the vital spark totally extinct. John Lee, and John Corbett, two small boys, fortunately escaped the dreadful casualty, having been at the farther end of the store, adjoining a fire place. A very great sensation was felt in the neighbourhood, by this sudden and unforeseen acci- dent. Sunday, the Mayor held an inquest on the bodies, and both were interred on Monday, followed by an immense crowd of sorrowing friends.

Major O'Donoghue, for some time the active and effi- cient Chief Magistrate of Police in the County Meath, has taken up his head-quarters at Roscrea, having been appointed to that station in the County Tipperary.

The 37th Regiment, in this Garrison, has beat up for recruits. After the half yearly inspection, last week, up- wards of fifty invalids were discharged.

The detachments of the 32d, in this County, will, on the 4th January next, be replaced by the 37th, from our Garrison. Major Bruce will command at Newcastle.

The head-quarters of the 65th Regiment, stationed at Naas, with Captains Wilson, Farquharson, Thornhill, Snow and Warren, have detached to the following out- quarters:—Grenadiers, Captain Senior, to Carlow; Capt. Maclean, to Wicklow; Captain P. McLaine, to Athy; Captain Hunt to Maryborough; and Captain Smyth's company, under Lieutenant Cassan, to Philipstown.

The Depot of the 64th Regt. arrived on Sunday at Cove in the Arab, from Jersey, and in the afternoon pro- ceeded to Cork in the City of Cork Steam-boat. Yesterday morning they marched for Buttevant—shortly after the Depot had landed at the Quay, Eliza Cahill, wife to a private, whilst in a shop near Patrick's-bridge, purchasing some tea and sugar, was suddenly seized with alarming symptoms and almost instantly expired.

Lieutenant Campbell, of the Royal African Corps, has brought over despatches announcing the death of Sir Neil Campbell, the Governor of Sierra Leone.

The Colonely of the Royal African Colonial Corps and the Governorship of Sierra Leone are vacant, by the death of Major-General Sir Neil Campbell, C. B.

Lieutenant-Colonel Hugh Lumley, Royal African Colonial Corps has assumed the government of Sierra Leone and its dependencies, pro tem.

On Wednesday morning a detachment of the 25th regiment, (the King's own borderers) consisting of three sergeants and thirty-seven rank and file, under the com- mand of Captain V. B. Lynch, arrived at Greenock, from Aberdeen, and sailed on Thursday, in the Robert, for the West Indies, to join the service companies, at present stationed at St. Ann's Barbadoes.

The Depot of the 63d Regiment has moved from Chatham to Dover.

Colonel Dallas is appointed Governor of the Island of St. Helena, Robert Craeroff, Esq. is appointed Lieut.-Colonel of the Royal North Lincolnshire Militia, vice Ellison, de- ceased; Leadbetter Uppleby, Esq. Major, and John George Stapylton Smyth, Esq. Captain.

Charles Yorke Calcraft, Esq. is appointed Major of

COURT OF EXC

Tutill v. Gal

In this case, the Co has confirmed the verdict obtained thereby established the private right himself and family to pass on fo to the Shore opposite St. Thom right has been established, and rriages, have been restricted altog

The Steward of the House of from the Right Worshipful Thom two quarters and four pieces of m two pieces of beef and a bottle of Worship for being exposed for sal The Mayor also gave Alderman W shillings, for the same charity. N House at present, 378—the great destitute of clothing.

The Treasurer of the Fever Ho receipt of Two Pounds British Sessions, the amount of a fine for lands of Thomas M. Wilson, Esq

The Treasurer of the Mendicit lodes to have received from the I per William Lapp, Esq. £3; al Esq. 3l. in aid of that Charity.

Rev. J. Duddell acknowledged following sums from Daniel Gabbot Towards re-building St. Munchi Towards supplying the want of Collection for the poor of chin's Parish, while the Ch been re-building.....

Poor Widows in St. George's A Ditto, in the Alms House of S Day School—St. George's.....

Balance to ditto, for premiums conduct and proficiency.....

British Late

PRICE OF IRISH ST

Bank Stock, _____
Government Debentures, 3
Government Stock, 3½ per
Government Consols, 3 p
Government Stock, New
Grand Canal Loan, red 4
Ditto, ditto, 6 per Cent. —
Royal Canal Stock, _____
Royal Irish Mining, _____
Hibernian Banking Comp
Provincial Bank, _____
Irish Mining Company Sh

BIRTH

In Stephen's-Green, Dublin Caulfield, of a daughter.
In Dublin, the Lady of J Tir
At Portobello, the Lady of
In Waterford, the Lady of J
In Cheltenham, the Lady of Regiment, of a daughter.
In Cork, the Lady of Lieut.

9th Regiment, of a son.
At the seat of Sir John Stanl
tain W. E. Parry, Royal Navy in the Polar regions, of a son a
At Grenada, the Lady of Master of that island, of a