of the Order could make a similar disavowal. The Rev. Gentleman's name was indeed brought in question at a late Meeting convened for the purpose of electing a person to fill the office for nine months, then expired of the late Mr. Dunn's administration; but his appointment was opposed on grounds, which, unjust to him and to ourselves, we are bound to state, did not affect his character, but his eligibility.

We remain, Sir,
Your obliged and obedient Servants
J. F. O'REGAN,
