

Quarter Sessions 2,300 civil bills were
The Crown business was not weighty.
ny, administrator of the Rev. Westropp aylor—On Wednesday, this case was tried ecorder. It was an action of assumpsit, issory notes for 27l. 13s. 10d. each. Verintiff for the full sum. Agent for plain-William Monseil. Agent for defendant, all.

to an extent of some miles on the Limerick
lare side, was frozen by the intense cold-osphere on Wednesday night. There was of snow on Wednesday, followed on ning by a rapid thaw.
ere weather has had some calamitous effects
, as more deaths have occurred than for previous.

h, Esq. late a member of the Irish Custated Port Collector of Cork
arrison is elected Physician to the Newry al.

m Jeffcott, Esq. Tralee, Barrister at Law
ointed Chief Justice of Sierra Leone, of 1,500l. a year, and emoluments amount-
a more.

fallen to 33s per cwt. in the London

Coach speculation is believed to have failed.
as regards the south of Ireland, and its
th Dublin, no Mail-coach or other vehicle
the principle of steam will be started

t of deposits in the Limerick Savings' 0th of November, 1829, was 47,097l 0s 5d.
Judge of the Insolvent Court, commences Drogheda, on the 16th of February—John
, Esq. is appointed his Lordship's register.
remarks "that there is more poaching and led by unlicensed persons in the vicinity
than in any other part of Ireland."

W. Tredennick, son in law of the Arch-blin is appointed to the living of Ballynty Dongal.

Alexander Stuart is appointed second Dean of Ardagh.

ge Livings of Wicklow and Dunganstown,
of the Archbishop of Dublin, are now

Bishop of Ossory is indisposed.
ish Spiritual Peers next Session of Parlia-Archbishop of Dublin and the Bishops Limerick, and Dromore.

se, Esq. of Cork, has given one acre of ree, for the building of a Chapel at Knoe-county, and towards the erection of which,
Grady, Esq. of Kilballyowen, has contri-

of the Gentry and Clergy of Burreisokane,
y, to Dr. Hoise, with that respected Gener, appear in our Advertising columns.

possible that our worthy Lord Bishop ted with the following circumstance—the ef the most respectable in the diocese; and ne sake of common justice, there may be ption in the case our correspondent refers ditor of the Limerick Chronicle.

Limerick, Jan. 23, 1830.

erring some days since with a friend on of old Curates which appeared in the a recent date, I was astonished to hear
there is a Curate in the Diocese of Lime-even years standing,—an old Gentleman,
r and principles were never impeached, ved under six successive Bishops without though several of them promised to pro-on an opportunity offering. This surely at reproach to the Church Establishment.
is, your obedient servant,
AN ADVOCATE FOR JUSTICE.

the late Henry Ryves, of Dublin, Esq.
In Cork, Leonard Potter, Esq. of that County, to Sarah Adderley, daughter of the late Sir Vesian Pick.
At Lude, Major Fraser, late 91st Regiment, to Eliza, daughter of the late James McInroy, of Lude, Esq.
At Greenwich, Lieut. William Dow, Royal Navy, to Caroline, daughter of the late Samuel Enderby, Esq.
At Paris, Viscount Charles De Mentque, Captain in the 64th Regiment of the French line, to Caroline Suzanna Spencer, daughter of the Hon. Mr. Spencer, and niece to the Duke of Marlborough.

DEATHS.

In Clare-street much lamented, Mrs. Keane, widow of the late Wm. Keane, Esq.
Of apoplexy, on Tuesday, in Sloan-street, London,
Neptune Blood, Esq. formerly of the Clare Regiment,
and subsequently Lieutenant in the 11th Light Dragoons, son of Neptune Blood, Esq. late of the Excise Department in this City.

In Buckingham-street, Dublin, Louisa, only daughter of W. Edgeworth, Esq.

In Blessington-street, Dublin, David Bleakley, Esq.

At Collon, by a fall from his horse, Patrick Fox, of French-street, Dublin, Esq.

At Tower-Hill, in the County Mayo, Mary, eldest daughter of Denis O'Connor, Esq.

Mr John Bell, of Belfast, brewer.

At Youghal, the wife of Henry Rodrick, Esq.

At Richmond-avenue, Dublin, Miss Lee, of Cork.

In Cork, Mrs Peebles.

At Kinsale, the widow of Lieut. Shields, Royal Navy.

In Galway, Mr Laurence Geoghegan.

Mr Patrick Hughes, Postmaster of Danganon.

At Ardsken, County Galway, Miss Mary Browne.

Geoffrey, eldest son of Mr James Sullivan, of Knuck-illa, near Kanturk, aged twenty years.

At Peckham, Capt Charles Clinch, 2d Tower Hamlets

At Gosport, the sister of Vice-Admiral Halsted.

The widow of Major Tomano.

At Brighton, Captain Charles R. Fead, formerly of the 90th Regiment, and son of the late Lieutenant-General Fead, Royal Artillery.

In Cheltenham, John Gillman, Esq. M. D.

In London, Margaret, wife of the Rev. C. Dymoke Willaume, and niece of the late Hon. W. Wyndham.

Judith, sister of Horsley Curteis, Esq. one of his Majesty's Exons of the Royal Yeomen Body Guard

At Sharplefield House, Hants, Augustus Atkins, Esq.
Yeoman of the Guards.

The Rev. James Atkinson, of Ipswich.

John Petherich, Esq. of Exmouth, Cheltenham.

At his Lordship's seat Ratsford Park, Gloucestershire,
the 17th Inst. the Right Hon. John Freeman Mitford, Lord Redesdale, FRS and FSA, in the 82d year of his age. His Lordship was a Privy Councillor in England and Ireland, was elected Speaker of the House of Commons in 1801, and shortly after was appointed Lord Chancellor of Ireland. In 1803 Lord Redesdale married Lady Frances Percival, daughter of the Earl of Egmont. In Appeal cases and on Committees his Lordship was regarded as very high authority in the House of Peers, and to him it was owing that Insolvent debtors were allowed a provision by their creditors. By the death of Lord Redesdale, a pension of 4,000l. a year
reverts to the Crown.

To be Let during the Election,
AT 37, WILLIAM STREET,
A DRAWING ROOM AND TWO BED ROOMS
January 23

Wants a Situation,
A SERVANT to a single Gentleman, or Burgher
in a regular family, or with a small family of Livery—A single Man, twenty six years of age, has lately lived in London, and has no objection to Travel;
Letters post paid to J. M. at Melony's Hall, Limerick.
Jan. 23

Ware.
Tin Plates, Bellows, Anvils, V
assorted,
For sale at WILLIAM NEWSOM
Street, who has let, from April House at the Corner of Newenham occupied by R Galwey, Esq. the N
now finishing, at Courtbrack, within
of the Crescent or Harrack, contain Panties, Store-Room, 3 Parlours, Closets, with a small Ground for
of which would be Lot Furnish Lime

Newcastle Disp
(UPPER CONNEL

THE SUBSCRIBERS to this C fully requested to pay their year 1830, at my Office in Newcastle, Bark, Limerick, to my credit; and I benevolent aid of those gentlemen,
before contributed to uphold this me
on behalf of their poor and suffering
It appears from Dr. Peirce's report ary books, that upwards of 170 relieved during the past year; which gives a total of 7,000; many of who Fever, and other diseases were attendant at their Residences.

2/14 ALFRED
January 23

REDUCTION OF PR
GLOBE INSU
COMPANY

FIRE, LIVES, AND AN

FALL-MALL AND CORNHILL
And No. 3, Tinsing Buildings, Geor

DIRECTORS

- | | |
|------------------------------|---------|
| JOSEPH DORIN, Esq. | Isaac L |
| THOMAS COLES, Esq. De | Matthe |
| William Abbott, Esq. | John I |
| Ca. Raymond Barker, Esq. | John N |
| Thomas Barrow, Esq. | William |
| Jonathan Birch, Esq. | Frederi |
| Jonathan Chapman, Esq. | John P |
| Sir Charles Cockerell, Bart. | Philip |
| M. P. | Henry |
| Boyce Combe, Esq. | Sir W |
| John Fairlie, Esq. | James |
| George Fraser, Esq. | Edward |
| George Carr Glyn, Esq. | |
| Edward Goldsmid, Esq. | |

CAPITAL ONE MILLION

The whole paid up and invested,
the Proprietors Security against furt Assured as much as is available
the most extensive London.

This Company have determined of Premium on the late of ance, and all Policies of these Class
2s. are reduced to 1s. 6d. per c
2s. 2s. 6d. ...
2s. 4s. 6d. ...
(By order of the Board,)
JOHN CHAR

Books of Rates, and every inf
LIFE AND FIRE INS
will be given, by applic
D. F. G. MAI
AND SON,
Globe Company Agents