

The Limerick mail, due at not arrive until two o'clock to Cork did not arrive in the after the usual time on Wed-grossed, and is now in course se of Commons, praying the ration the state of the Naviga-ites and twelve Police had a sday night last, within two Rockites attacked the house repaired with the loss of one wounded, and four made and eight coats were left on ke out in the ground-floor of Shannon Quay, which spread be loft overhead, and but for crews of the merchant vessels might have been attended with concern. The damage sus-

A candle falling on a quan-n of the fire, and it was diss, by John Farrell, a Watch-fish, who instantly gave the nett, Esq. Coroner, held an County, on the body of James a few days before. Slattery e discovery, but the Magised and the body disintered.— amined the deceased, and a s returned against persons as has since been arrested on Death Regiment, in a state of dently in this garrison.

gene Riordan died in Tralea ny, from swallowing a small of about two months old was of Rock Grove, near New was nearly beaten to pieces, from Ballyherge, perished Kerry, on Friday night.

man went to the Bank of and tendered some Irish not knowing the amount, she the Mayor, who retains restored to the owners.
derable sum.

arrested in Cork, having in ble-cased gold stop watch key, and seal. It is sup-ring the turmoil of our late at Ennis was on Friday to a fortnight's hard labour ing without the consent of last week a man named a month's imprisonment for to discharge of his duty.

Clayton, is sentenced by the week's imprisonment, for 4,135	18,325	1,780

Total.....		24,148
William J. Geary, M.D.	} Visiting Physicians.
Michael Roddie, M.D.
George Ryan, Apothecary.

DEATHS.

Monday morning, quite suddenly, to the inexpressible grief of his family and friends, the Rev. Henry Hewson, Curate of Keshkeshale, a most amiable and worthy Pastor.

On Monday, at his seat, Ieversdown, County Clare, William Ievers, Esq. deeply lamented by his family and friends, and regretted by all who knew him. Mr. Ievers held a military commission in early life, and served with credit in various climes, in the 60th Foot and 9th Dragoons. He was a Deputy Governor of Clare, and a Freeman of Limerick, Glasgow, Ayr, and Paisley.

Mr. James Lane, Cabinet-maker, much regretted.

At her house in Margaret-Place, Mountjoy-Square, Dublin, Georgiana Eliza, wife of Myles O'Reilly, Esq.

In Dungannon, Mrs. Shuter, relict of the Rev. David Shuter, late Rector of Ballinderry.

In Lower Merrion-street, Dublin, William Barrett, aged upwards of forty years First Clerk in the King's Beach Office.

Alderman Hamilton, of Dublin.

At Rhoeban, County Kildare, William F. Hannigan, Esq. of the 47th Foot, eldest son of William Hannigan, Esq. Assistant Commissary-General.

At Kenilworth, County Tipperary, Jane, youngest daughter of Richard B. H. Lowe, Esq.

In Cork, Mr Joseph Bennett, notary and attorney.

At Cooleville, near Chogheen, aged 17 years, Margaret, second daughter of Richard Grubb, Esq.

In the vicinity of Armagh, aged 60 years, the Rev.
Robert Hagg, A. M. Presbyterian Minister of Lough-gall, and Assistant Astronomer in the Armagh Observatory, founded by the late Primate Robinson.

At Booterstown, aged 16, James, son of the late Mr.
Mark Long, of Westmoreland-street, Dublin.

The Rev. Charles Kelly, Parish Priest of Moira, County Mayo.

In Cork, Jane, wife of John Cooper, of Killarney, Esq.
Suddenly, in Listowel, Mr John Foster, attorney

At Straw, near Dungiven, Edward A. Edwards, Esq.

Eleanor, relict of Edward Tallon, of Dundalk, Esq.

At Ballyeaston, County Derry, William Lane, Esq.

At Methleypark, the Earl of Mexborough.

Lieutenant-General Sir John Heron Maxwell, Bart. of Springkell, North Britain.

In Brook-street, London, the wife of Doctor Holland.

At Paddington, W. Watson, Esq

Aged 24, Miss Fitzgerald, daughter of J. Fitzgerald, of Lawrence Pountney-hill, Esq.

The Rev. Thomas Hay, Canon of Christ Church, and Rector of Helton, Suffolk.

At Bath-house, Leicestershire, the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Tamworth, only son of the Earl of Ferrars

Elizabeth, wife of the Rev J. Longmore, of Devon, and sister of the late Sir W Young, G C B.

At Norris Castle, near Cowes, Isle of Wight, aged 64 years, the Right Hon. Lord Henry Seymour, second brother to the late and uncle to the present Marquis of Hartington.

At Secunderabad, in the East Indies, Captain James Lacy, 46th Regiment.

Best 1700
WILLIAM
WILL commence discharging Coals this day, from on b Messrs. Harvey's-Quay, which mends, and which he will sell at 18s. per ton. He has for sale On ington and Cannel Coals, Rocksalt Amber Rosin, and Cannel Wick And still continues selling his and Earthenware at First Post; the Interest of his House, which is blissful in this City for any kind 26, George

AUCTION
AT MOUNT-SHANNON
The seat of the Right Honourable
ON MONDAY, February 15th Timber, good Elm and Beech growth; Larch, 20 years' growth, well adapted for building Farm-House. Larch and Ribbery suited for young forest trees, &c.); Branches Sale to commence at Eleven o'clock Any Timber, &c. left on the Deu sale, will be considered forfeited.
For further particulars apply to J Mount-Shannon; or at his Seed War Street, Limerick, where any informa given.

New Invent
Let those now shave who never
And those who always shaved
OLDEN'S EUKEIROGE
SHAVING OIL
For facilitating and rendering delight Shaving.
THIS highly concentrated Deter-combines all the virtues of the most purified estimable quality to impart a glow of is more durable and been yet obtained; while application avoids equal and the preliminary It being a vegetable compound with those who consider how delicate is membrane to which it is to be applied guished from all other detergent compo-of washing with Sea Water or Hand stage to Officers in the Army or lers in general Mode of Using—Pour four or five d soft brush; dip tightly in water, and ap-it will instantly produce a rich strong l Prepared and manufactured by the Proprietor, ROBERT OLDEN, 33 Cork. Sold Wholesale and Retail, i each, with directions for use, and by GUERIN'S Fancy Warehouse, 28, P

V 2/4