

Glin has been sworn in High Sheriff imerick; and John Sargent, Esq. of this Under-Sheriff.

Pierce Hely, Esq. was sworn High ounty Waterford. He has adopted the rner for holding the election on 23d inst. of Jenkinstown, was sworn in High rvey Devereux, Esq. Sub-Sheriff, of the y for the ensuing year, on Tuesday

S. Hayes, of Drumbo Castle, in the l, Bart was on Thursday sworn High n. McClintock Spence, Esq of Lifford, of the County Donegal. rufton, Bart. has been sworn in High County of Longford. H. Morrow, Esq ted Sub.

sworn in High Sheriff of Cavan; Mr Meath; Mr Archbold, of Kildare; yth, of Westmeath.

Huffington, jun. has been appointed of the City and County of Londonderry.
Esq. High Sheriff of the County Ros-appointed John Parker, Esq. his deputy. son, Esq. has arrived in Clonmel.

Esq. has addressed the Electors of ing himself as representative for that t by the retirement of J. H. Massy William Magee, third son of the Archbishop d Rector of Finglass, County Dublin, able living of Danganstown.

stropp, Esq. of this City, was on Thurs-ng of the Governors of the London Hulected Secretary to that invaluable esta-Beresford has published another Address ers of the County Waterford, and says, ient. Barron's canvas has been an unre-to revive and perpetuate "party feuds and osities." His Lordship adds, "the re of Mr. O'Connell's unprincipled atte Catholic from Protestant, and tenant has completely destroyed Mr. Barron's y." ell, M. P. is expected in Waterford, on to take part in behalf of Mr. Barron's t County.

ate Chief Constable of Police at Castle out to obtain the office of Stipendiary Ma-gh the interest of Lord George Beresford. the Peace of the City of Cork is sum-London, to attend with the pull-books mittee, to try the validity of the petition llaghan's return.

ry Papers agree in reprobating the speech r Members, who stated that no distress nd.

y in this part of the country for the last n been excessive, owing to the great sevean. One day in the last week, fourteen ned in a church-yard, in this County, o state that a very serious accident oc-as Crashie, Esq. youngest son of Colonel allyheige Castle, while hunting in the of Ardferit, on Saturday. By some un-stance, the horse he rode fell, and was pot; and Mr. Crashie, who fell under severely injured, but happily without any quences.

Infantry, second son of the late Thomas Ball, Esq. of Highpark, County Dublin, to Isabella, sixth daughter of Colonel Haslewood, of the Madras army.

At Dinapore, the Rev J. Tucker, to Miss Debnam, second daughter of Capt. Debnam, 13th Light Infantry.

At Hyderabad, Captain D. Stokes, 4th Madras Native Infantry, and Secretary to the Resident, to Jane, youngest daughter of Colonel Littlejohn, Bengal army.

DEATHS.

This morning, in John-street, at an advanced age, Mr. John Dandon, late of Castle-Connell.

At Brighton, Mrs. Trant, relict of the late D. Trant, Esq., mother of Mr. Trant, M. P. for Dover, and sister to the late Earl of Clare.

This morning, at Ballinacurra Pike, Mrs. O'Shea, much regretted

On Friday, at her house in Foyle-street, Londonderry, Mrs. Bateson, relict of the late Thomas Bateson, Esq. of that city, and mother of Sir Robert Bateson, Bart.— The deceased was a truly excellent Lady, and will be deeply deplored by her family and an extensive circle of sincerely attached friends.

After a rapid illness in London, Peter Latouche, of Wexford, County Wicklow, Esq. and Banker in Castle-street, Dublin. Mr. Latouche served for the County Leitrim in the first Parliament elected after the Union.

At Baldoyle, Mary, third daughter of Robert Swift, Esq. Barrister at Law.

At Plymouth, Mary, wife of George Heath, Esq. and third daughter of John Hitchcock, late of Dublin, Esq.

The widow of Lieut. Felix Richardson, Royal Navy.
At Dromora Lodge, County Cork, James Purcell, Esq.

In Gaol-street, Ennis, aged 80 years, the Rev. Mr.
McDonogh, Roman Catholic V. P. of that town.

The wife of Mr W Collins, of Grafton-street, Dublin.
At Kinsale, Doctor Henry Herrick, aged 72.

In Nenagh, Mrs. Larkin, wife of J. W. Larkin, Esq.
In Duncan street, Cork, James Hagarty, Esq

In Fitton-street, Cork Mr. George Bennett.
On Sullivan's-quay, Cork, Miss Marryanne Woulfe.

On Tuesday, Margaret, relict of the late Alexander Barclay, Esq. 12th Royal Veteran Battalion.

In Newry, Mr Joseph McCullogh, of Belfast, printer Eleanor, relict of Mr Edward Tallon, of Dundalk

In Dublin, John King, Esq. of Waterford, many years an officer in his Majesty's service.

At Tivoli Terrace, Cork, Frances, only daughter of Captain Massy H Herbert, Royal Navy.

Mr Patrick Leahy, of the South Main-street, Cork.
At Ballincollig, aged 80 years, Mrs Ellen Egan.

In Drogheda, Mrs Smyth, relict of Ralph Smyth, Esq At Ballymacaret, near Belfast, the Rev B. Dowling.

James, eldest son of Mr Thomas Gelston, Portaferry.
In Harley-street, London, Thomas Welch, Esq.

C. Thomas, Esq. of the Bank of England.
In Stanhope-street, Maysair, Alexander, only child of W Bingham Baring, Esq. M P.

In New Bond-street, William Lloyd, Esq. M D.

At Knowle Cottage, near Exeter, Lady Collier, relict of the late Sir George Collier, Bart

In the East Indies, Lieut.-Colonel H W Wilkinson, commanding the 22d Native Infantry.

At Ellichpoore, Helen Erskine, second daughter of the late Lord Kinnider, one of the Senators of the College of Justice in Scotland.

Suddenly, the Rev. Lascelles Iremonger, Prebendary of Winchester.
Colonel Burrowes, aged 81.

to withhold, a case as remarkable, per-record. Born in a polished circle of soci-sent to a respectable public seminary, w years, all went on with prosperity an Unfortunately, however, a habit was sent us, the pleasing allurements of which I others, unable to resist—possessed of an of temperament, I was for some time why should I trouble you with particulars away, and left me an altered man! infir-around me, and at the age of twenty ye ally dying of decay—a gradual but ce-wondered at the cause of all this premat-did the truth ever flash across my mind, tal perusal of a British newspaper, whe-dress of yours, which made me fully miserable situation. "Do you imagine, no advice; I had the best; but I confeshints, and my medical adviser never saw of my malady. Shame held my tongue rience clouded my faculties. The horror increased every renewed day, with the self entailed, gnawing at my heart, in ments—in seeking rest, I only sought ments, the long hours of darkness seem-of sleep filled me with raking horrors, itonged for day—with day I was wearied-the approach of night with abhorrence circumstances of unqualified affliction, I wards of seventy miles to have a consult-as soon as you made your wished-for vi-I need not say how soon you were aware situation, or the anxiety you manifested my relief, (a circumstance which will ev-ful claim on my memory,) or of the which you spoke of my recovery. You that invaluable Restorative, the "COL-OF LIFE," and by perseverance in directions, and with the blessing of Proviful cure has been completely effected, ar-every sense of the word, become a new m-this account for your honour, and for the who may unfortunately be placed in a sitwretchedness; you may omit my residen-or, you are at liberty to give it. Remevery sentiment of regard, yours truly.

FREDERICK STEVENSON B

To Dr. Lamert, 10, Church-street, Spitalfields, London.

In Bottles, 4s. 6d. and 10s. 6d. each at 10s. 6d. contains Three of those at 10s. 6d. Bottles in one for 20s. Also containing Four at 10. 6d. for 33s. by 9s. are saved duty included.

Dr. LAMERT, in consequence correspondence, respectfully acquaints th rous of consulting him, that the usual addressed "Money Letter, post-paid," to Establishment, 10, Church-Street, Spit is expected, which will at all times me and Medicine carefully forwarded to part of the Kingdom of Great Britain, Reply to all communications forwarded wise they will not be received.

Dr. LAMERT, from the Old Medic Church-Street, Spitalfields, London, n daily, at 115, Patrick-Street, Cork, unti or by letter (post-paid) enclosing a ren and Medicines, will be duly attended to