DEATHS.

At Drishane, Castle-Townsend, Mary, second daughter of the late John Newenham, Esq. of Maryborough, Co.
 Cork, and grand-daughter of the late Thomas Vereker, of Roxborough, County Limerick, Esq.
 On Saturday last, at Nantenan Glebe, Miss Charity Croker, daughter of the late Rev. Richard Croker, of Croom Castle, in this County. She was sustained in a long and trying illness, by the sure promises of the Gospel, and at length resigned her spirit to Him who sanctified to her, her trials in life, and made her death triumphant in his Cross.
 After a few hours illness, at four o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs Gill, wife of Captain Gill, Barrack-Master at Rathkale. She was an affectionate wife, a fond mother, and felt for the poor. Her loss will be severely felt by her sorrowing husband and five young children; as also by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.
 Yesterday at Meelick, near this City, after a long and painful illness, Norcott D'Estre, Esq. formerly of the 18th Dragoons—a gentleman sincerely lamented.
 On Monday last, in William-street, generally and deservedly regretted, Timothy Ryan, Esq.
 In Henry-street, Mrs. Gorman, mother of Captain Gorman, of the brig Thetis.
 In Clare-street, Mrs Thomas Tinsley.
 In Tipperary, at the advanced age of 89 years, Samuel Evans, Esq. M.D. Highly regretted as a Physician, he was dignified with all the virtues that constitute real worth.
 In Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. John Willis, aged 79, for nearly half a century Representative of the Corporation of Glovers and Skinners.
 In Ennis, Mrs Richardson, relict of the late John Richardson, Esq.
 In Cork, aged 85 years, Mr George Howe, for more than half a century a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Society.
 In Dublin, aged 69 years, Andrew Fitzhenry, late of Claremorris, in the County Mayo, Esq.
 At Kingstown, Barbara, wife of Wm Newenham, Esq.
 At Doneraile, Mr Thomas Holmes.
 At Dungarvan, at an advanced age, Doctor Lanergan.
 At Milltown, County North, Nicholas Segraver, Esq.
 At Kilbrack, near Doneraile, William Stawell, Esq.
 aged 85 years. He was the senior Magistrate of the County Cork, and the list of the Lawyers Corps of Volunteers of 1782, in which he held at one period the rank of Captain-Commandant. His estates are bequeathed to his nephew, James Ludlow Stawell, Esq.
 At Kihore, Miss Wilhelmina Popham.
 At Mallow, Mary, second daughter of Major Russell.
 In Waterford, Ambrose Laue, Esq. merchant.

 and a Magistrate of the County of Herts.
 At Naples, General Acton.
 At Gloucester, Anne Eliza, daughter of Sir Edwyn Scudamore Stanhope, Bart.
 At East Cowes, Isle of Wight, Lieutenant-General
 John Burton, late Royal Artillery, aged 73 years.
 [In announcing, on Saturday, the death of our lamented fellow-citizen, Thomas M. O'Brien, Esq. want of time alone prevented us from paying to his memory that tribute which his virtues, talents, and acquirements, so justly claim. Though in discharging the sad duties of the obituarist, we deem it unfit to use the fulsome language of panegyric, yet it may be truly said that the grave has seldom closed over the mortal remains of one who possessed more genius, more learning, or more worth.]

Or to the following Gentlemen:
 Mr. J. C. Miller, Limerick; Mr. J. B. Knox, Ennis;
 Mr. Eagar, Dalee; Mr. Shean, Roscrea; Mr Molloy, Tipperary—who are in constant communication with the Dublin Department.

Dr. Lamert
TO DR. LAMERT
 Dame-street, Dublin, 10th Jan. 1830.
SIR—In justice to your celebrity, I am impelled to lay the following statement before the public: I was for the space of two months labouring under a Nervous Complaint, attended with a violent palpitation of the heart, and extreme soreness, with excruciating pains across my chest and side, so as to prevent me for that length of time from attending to my business, and hearing of your extraordinary abilities in relieving the afflicted I made application to you, when you ordered me to take your invaluable Medicine, THE CORDIAL BALM OF LIFE, together with other directions;
 and now, in all the month after taking the same, thank God, am perfectly restored to my health, the greatest of all blessings, and am, Sir, your obliged and grateful
 servant,
 H. N. M.

P. S.—Any Person referring to you for the authenticity of my statement, you are at liberty, if you think proper, to mention my name in full and residence to them.
 In Bottles, 4s. 6d. and 10s. 6d. each. The Bottles at 10s. 6d. contains Three of those at 4s. 6d. or Two 10s. 6d. Bottles in one for 20s. Also a Family Bottle, containing Four at 10. 6d. for 33s. by purchasing which 9s are saved duty included.
