DEATHS.
At his seat, Glenville, in this County, in an advanced age, William Massy, Esq.—one of the most worthy and respectable of our County Gentry, a Gentleman universally esteemed and very deservedly lamented in all circles.
Yesterday morning, at his house in Mungret-street,
Michael Ryan, Esq. senior partner in the respectable firm of Messrs. Edmond Ryan and Sons, the worthy Prior having died only a few months since. Upon an amiable partner and her now deeply afflicted young family, he bestowed the steady and unceasing attentions of a fond and affectionate husband, looking to his children with all a father's feelings. Mr. Ryan was French Consul for the Port of Limerick. All the vessels in harbour hung out their colours half-mast high, in compliment to the deceased, both as a commercial man and as Consul.

At his lodgings, in Nile-street, Cork, the 3d inst. aged 30 years, Captain James Hill Phillips, formerly of 45th regiment of foot, and late of 10th Royal Vet. Battalion, and son of the late James Phillips, Esq. of this City.
He has left a wife and eight children to deplore the loss of a fond and affectionate husband and father.
At Mansfieldstown, County Cork, the seat of her son-in-law, Thomas Cuthbert, Esq. in the 85th year of her age, Mrs. Franks, relict of the late Thomas Franks, Esq.
of Dublin, and sister to Judge Day.
At Snugborough, Co. Cork, John Rubie Upton, Esq.
In Cork, Anna, wife of Dr. Walter Harris.
Mr Thomas Whinnery, Postmaster of Belfast
At Bath, Grace, wife of Henry Wallace, of Drishane Castle, County Cork, Esq.
At Rathmines, Daniel Cuddy, Esq. apothecary, of the firm of Cuddy and Glynn, Anagier-street, Dublin.
In Clonmel, William Whitten, Esq. of the Society of Friends.
At East Cholderton, Hants, Gen. Calcraft, late of the Coldstream Guards.
Susanna Maria, wife of R. C. Middleton, Esq. Commissioner of the Navy.
Lady Louisa Grey.
At Park View, County Dublin, William Barwick, only son of William Barwick, Esq. H. P. 45th Regiment.
At Coldblow-hill, near Luan, after a short illness,
George Mansergh, Esq. late of his Majesty's 83d Regt.
