

an action for breach own for trial at Water-ranged by the payment to parties are relations.
and acquitted of

d Assizes Judge Tor-Assistant Barrister in ht to register freeholds h right his Lordship enter the County Court clock, when his Lord-fiction on the Bench, death of his nephew

Sheriff. Pierce Hely, Assizes from severe in-there are eighty-six ere are only five.

trial in the County
g. fifteen for murder

at Galway Assizes.
ly at Galway Assizes.
xford and Waterford, rial at Cork Assizes, amount of Present-£43,668.

ned at Ennis Assizes, Hoyle aged thirteen ?
e law on Saturday, ab-sentenced to the mo-nually employed in.
eared truly penitent. ecution at Ennis, of nd Mathew Sullivan, wo Doylea.

smith was tried and husband, Nathaniel sed for Monday, but strous having found

eman of the Sligo

the Governorship of Law, has been cos in place of the late has given a free site towards building a lt, county Clare.

g. five armed coun-e prisoners by three ahill, near Thurles. xposed for sale in were seized by the dustry.

House of Industry,
Colonel and Mrs.
G. in aid of the Hospital for Lane-Monday last, and f the management rey.

erick Hospital as-the Magistrates at ne pound from the ions, fines inflicted gent Roomkeeper in a Parishioner towards the

Henry Jones, Esq. to Miss Maria Olivia Byron, both of New-Rom.

At Paris, Captain Clarence Dalrymple, to Margaret, second daughter of Colonel Worge, of the 17th Dragoons.

DEATHS.

On Saturday, in her 82d year, at the house of her daughters, in Catherine-street, Limerick, Susannah, relict of Thomas Fowle, Esq. late of this City. Her life, in the strictest sense of the word, was devoted to charity, and she departed trusting alone in the merits of her Lord and Saviour.

In Dublin, on Thursday, Philip Roche Ryan, Esq. of Inch, county Tipperary, and grandson of the late Philip Roche, Esq. of this City.

On Saturday, at Ballingarry, in this County, William Lynch, Esq. M. D. Physician to the Dispensary of that town. The respect shown to his memory by all the leading families of that neighbourhood, the first Gentlemen of the district bearing his remains to the grave, evinced the value in which they held his private worth and professional services, which must minister some consolation to a wide circle of respectable connexions and an amiable widow, who survives a loss she will long and deeply deplore.

At Shanagolden, Mr. Richard Hennessey, Printer, late of this City.

At his house in Cathedral Square, Waterford, Thomas Alcock, Esq. an Alderman and one of the Charter Justices of that City. He served the office of Sheriff in 1777, and again in 1780, and that of Mayor in 1789, and upon each of these occasions discharged his duty to the satisfaction of the citizens.

Mrs. Bates, relict of the late Captain Bates, 16th regiment of Foot, and daughter of the late Dr. Smythwick, of the Waterford Regiment.

At Garryroan, County Tipperary, Jeffrey Prendergast, Esq.

In Lower Fitzwilliam-street Dublin, Edward Marshall Day, eldest son of Robert Day, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

Mrs. Ogle, wife of Colonel John Ogle, of Forkhill, in the County Armagh.

In Dublin, aged 18 years, Michael, eldest son of the late Edward Blake, of Frenchfort, County Galway, Esq.

At Clontagh, County Down, James V. Dowell, Esq.

In Dublin, Mary, wife of Daniel Ashford, Esq.

At Bullock, Mary, daughter of Henry S. Close, Esq.

In Newry, Surgeon William Purdon.

In Cork, Miss Duhigg, sister of Counsellor Duhigg.

At Hallyhooly, Mrs Catherine Foley.

Elizabeth, relict of Mr John Ellis, of Cork.

Alicia, second daughter of the late John Hatton, of Cloard, in the County Wicklow, Esq.

In Dublin, Frances, relict of Mr Patrick Petit.

Francis O'Leary, of Clantlew, County Armagh, Esq.

In Stephen-street, Waterford, Mr David Flynn.

In Cork, David Sherrard, Esq.

At Malta, Surgeon Robert James Dallas, Royal Navy.

In Londonderry, Mr Henry Walker, seedman.

At Lisichfield, Colonel Madan, youngest son of the late Bishop of Peterborough and Lady Charlotte Madan.

In London, Colonel William Duncan, Bengal service.

Francis Dowling, Esq. Deputy Inspector of Hospitals.

At Lichfield, Mary, relict of the Rev George Parker.

In London, Mr Dudley Adams, many years mathematical instrument maker to his Majesty.

Lieut.-Colonel M. Clinch, of the Spanish service.

At Richmond-terrace, Whitehall, Sir Robert Townsend Ferguson, Bart. M. P. many years Governor of the Maurus and its dependencies.

Suddenly, at Tewkesbury, Mr Fitzharris, comedian.

At Paris, Richard Chenevix, Esq. M. R. I. A. uncle to Hugh M. Tuile, Esq. M. P. for Westmeath, and a member of most of the Literary Institutions in Europe.

In Bengal, the Rev. Andrew F. Belcher.

tical divinity, and the whole business of a and having myself, meanwhile, been thro into the most interesting and awful scenes Parishioners, I determined at length to ta and to commit to paper whatever having p personal observation, might be most likely others of the same profession.

I had no thought originally of doing m my younger brethren of the clerical order, appointed to the management of large par time or opportunities to prepare themselves manner, for so difficult and momentous a But, in proceeding with my work, I began self with the notion, that it may possibly b instruct every description of readers—M be tempted, upon the recommendation of t peruse the book; and may find unexpected pleased, their knowledge increased and thei ed and improved.—Preface.

The above Work has recently been i list of publications recommended by the S moving Christian Knowledge.

2/4 JOHN MERRAY, Alben 2/4 a 10/- W B an

Surgeon GOSS, from London, is n and may be consulted every day. (Sunday e sonally or by letter, at No. 6, Lower M DUBLIN, from Nine in the morning un on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, fro evening until Nine.

Surgeon GOSS will leave Dublin on the NATURE is a Mysterious Treasury.
Innumerable blessings for human kind, an antidote for every disorder incident frame. This treasury, with all its invaluable proper study of Medical Science; and it most laborious research to discover and d various mysteries.

For twenty years has our successful ex directed to the treatment of a certain class and we pledge ourselves to the removal of its incipient symptoms to the remotest sta rized by every doubt, and whatever malig intricate and much neglected diseases of the been carefully and studiously considered, those delicate and important sympathies the Female Sex. The infirmitates of viri especially noticed, whether as arising from ing tyranny of a tropical atmosphere—the n constitution—the imprudence of gaiety—alarming results of a propensity to practice the light;” the progress of which is marked dereliction of the animal powers. To all circumstanced, and more especially to such rants for consubial pleasures, we earnestly our Commentaries, 1st, the “Ægis of Life, tary on Sexual Debility; 2d, “The Syphilitic treatise on Lues Venerea, &c. and 3d, “Hy clusively addressed to Females; the perus must prove beneficial to their moral happi Books may be had of Sherwood, Pat London; Porter, 72, Grafton-street, Dub all Booksellers—(Price 5s) each.

Messrs. GOSS and Co. are to be consulte every day, at their house; and Patients in the remotest parts of Ireland, can be treated on describing minutely the case, and enclos tance for Advice and Medicine. No difficult as the Medicine will be securely packed, an protected from observation.

GOSS and Co. (M R C Sur 11, Bouverie-street, Fleet-stree

Surgeon GOSS is under the necessity Dublin on the 9th of April, and therefore earliest possible communication from those may be solicitous for his advice.

J. R. J. H. C.