DEATHS.
Last night, at his seat, Ballineagard, in this County, at an advanced age, Edward Croker, Esq. a gentleman of true independence, great fortune, and very intelligent mind. Mr. Croker was an upright Magistrate, a constant resident on his estates, and one of the oldest Grand Jurors in this County. The death of this much esteemed character, after a few days' illness, is a source of great affliction to his numerous and highly respectable relatives and friends. Mr. Croker was a genuine sportsman, of most agreeable social qualities, and the dispenser of a noble hospitality, in his splendid mansion at Ballineagard.
At his seat, Carass, in this County, after a protracted illness, David Roche, the elder, Esq. a gentleman of great private and public worth, whose laudable exertions to promote the comfort and happiness of his tenantry, by the improvement of agriculture and the extension of employment have effected considerable good in that district.
At his mother's house, Pembroke-street, Dublin, Percy Young, Esq. Custom Store-Keeper at this port, son of the late Bishop of Clonfert—a young gentleman very much regretted.
On Monday last in Harstonge-street, Henry Anderson, Esq. youngest son of the late John Anderson, of Ahercross, County of Cork, Esq. This amiable and pious youth met his premature dissolution with christian fortitude and resignation, in full assurance of a joyful resurrection through the ransom paid with the precious blood of his divine Saviour, whose name was precious to his soul.
In Upper Henry-street, Maurice, second son of Mr. Ringrose Woods
In Cornwallis-street, Mr. W. Peacock, pawnbroker.
Wednesday, at Ballygallane, County Waterford, Mary wife of Nicholas Purcell O'Gorman, Esq. Barrister at Law.
On Monday, after child-birth, the Lady of the Right Worshipful Michael Evelyn, Esq. Mayor of Waterford.
In North Earl-street, Dublin, Luke Duff, Esq.
On Tonbridge Wells, on the 25th Inst. Donatus O'Callaghan, Esq. aged 81 years.
In Jail-street, Ennis, John Crowe, Esq.
In Upper Charlemont-street, Dublin, in the 91st year of her age, Sophia Christiana, relict of the late Captain Thornhill, of the 57th Regiment.
In Ballinastoe, James Anthony McDermott, Esq. of Limerick, County of Galway.
At Brownstown, County Mayo, Maurice Brown, Esq. Ellen, eldest daughter of William Bell, of Bowling-green-lane, Waterford, Esq.
In London, aged nineteen years, Harriet, only daughter of Thos. Ellis, Esq. one of the Masters in Chancery.
In Tallow-street, Carlow, Mr William Moore, printer.
On the Quay, Waterford, Miss Mary Anne Browne.
In Clonmel, Miss Alice Guilloffe.
At New Orleans, Mr David Parr, late of Dublin.
At Gloucester, George Lucy, Esq.
W. Saunders, of Tottenham Court-road, Esq.
James William, eldest son of Major Richardson, of Mount Radford Park, near Exeter.
Gera-Philip Fehrman, Esq. a native of the city of Cork—for more than forty years a resident of the city of Bremen, Germany.
At Ferry Lodge, Devon, Lieut.-General C. N. Cookson, of the Artillery.

TO BE LET,
FROM THE 25th OF MARCH,
THE FOLLOWING
LANDS AND PREMISES,
Part of the Estate of
CHARLES GEORGE O'CALLAGHAN,
A MINOR,
For such term, during his Minority, as may be agreed on,
Viz.—

THE House, Offices and Demesne of BALLYNAHINCH, situate in the Barony of Tulla and County of Clare, within 10 miles of Ennis, 14 of Limerick, and two of the daily post town of Tulla. It is in the best neighbourhood in that County, and the mountain, wood and water scenery is beautiful and diversified. The Demesne is in a high state of cultivation, and upwards of 30 acres judiciously planted; the Timber is from 40 to 10 years growth, well fenced—the Ground on which it stands will be excepted. The entire Demesne is well enclosed and divided, and consists of choice Fattening, Meadow and Arable Land. The Tenant can be accommodated with any number of acres from 50 to 400. The House and Offices are quite new and commodious, fit for the immediate reception of a large family, and have been put in the best repair during the last summer. The Shrubberies, Pleasure Ground and Garden are most flourishing, and in the highest state of cultivation. The Tenant can have the Household Furniture at a valuation; if not, it will be disposed of by Auction—the most of it is quite new.
The Farm and Lands of KILROE and LURGA, adjoining the above Demesne, containing 170 acres, or thereabouts, of good Pasture, Meadow and Tillage Land.
The Farm and Lands of CARHUGARE, situate in the Barony of Bunratty, in said County, containing 150 acres, or thereabouts, of Fattening and Meadow Land, well divided and watered, within 7 miles of Ennis, 14 of Limerick, and in the neighbourhood of the principal fairs of the County.

ALSO TO BE LET, being part of the Estate of Henry Donatus O'Callaghan, a Minor, for such term, during his minority, as may be agreed upon, 66 acres, or thereabouts, of the Lands of BELKELLY EYRE, situate in the Barony of Tulla, midway between the Market Towns of Tomgreany and Killaloe, being good Meadow and Tillage Land, and convenient to marble manufacture from the Shannon.
Signed proposals, in writing alone (and if by letter post-paid) will be received by PIERSE CREAUGH, Esq. one of the Guardians of said Minors, Dangan, Tulla, and by Messrs. O'BRIEN and COLLINS, Solicitors for the Guardians of said Minors, No. 32, N. Cumberland Street, Dublin.
March 3.

PRINTERS, PUBLISHERS and others, are hereby warned, that all Persons detected in printing or selling any Editions of the above Works, but such as are published by Mr. MURRAY, sole Proprietor of the Copywright of those Works, will be proceeded against by Action at Law.
Any information respecting the sale or printing of illegal Editions will be thankfully received by Mr. MURRAY, Albemarle-street.
March 24.

FOURTH EDITION.
This day is published, in Three Pocket Volumes, to correspond with the FAMILY LIBRARY, price only 12s.
DEATH-BED SCENES and PASTORAL CONVERSATIONS.
IT has often occurred to me as something wonderful, that, amongst the vast variety of books which are to be met with, on the important subject of Religion, there should still be wanted a manual for the information and direction of the Minister in his daily intercourse with sick persons and other members of his flock.
Having been in the habit then, for several years, of remarking this defect of instruction, with regard to practical divinity, and the whole business of a Parish Priest, and having myself, meanwhile, been thrown perpetually into the most interesting and awful scenes with my own Parishioners, I determined at length to take up my pen, and to commit to paper whatever having passed under my personal observation, might be most likely to be useful to others of the same profession.
I had no thought originally of doing more than assist my younger brethren of the clerical order, who might be appointed to the management of large parishes, without time or opportunities to prepare themselves in an adequate manner, for so difficult and momentous an undertaking. But, in proceeding with my work, I began to flatter myself with the notion, that it may possibly both amuse and instruct every description of readers—Many persons may be tempted, upon the recommendation of the Clergy, to peruse the book; and may find unexpectedly their fancy pleased, their knowledge increased and their hearts touched and improved.—Preface.
The above Work has recently been included in the list of publications recommended by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge.
JOHN MURRAY, Albemarle-street.
