“Askeaton, July 10, 1830.
I received your letter enclosing a draft for £100, the liberal and unsolicited subscription of the Rev. Mr. Carrick for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish of Askeaton, and beg of you to convey to his Lordship my acknowledgments on their behalf. This is the first instance in which his Lordship has shown proof of his kind sympathy for their sufferings. I know of no non-resident Proprietors in the neighbourhood to whom the poor are indebted for their readiness to contribute liberally on all occasions, than the Earl of Carrick and Mr. Barrington, the coparceners of his estate in this County. I shall not fail to comply with your suggestions as to the disposal of the most seasonable Donation, and have the pleasure to receive, with great respect, your very obedient servant,
MICHAEL FITZGERALD, P.P.
Esq. &c. &c.”
