

60th Rifles received a route to march where they will embark for Gibraltar, head quarters under Colonel Bunbury, today, with the Hon Captain Vaughan's companies; also Captain Browne's company of Lieut. Spence. Tuesday the marches under command of Major Leslie, or Glennie's company, in charge of Lieut. Pigott's company in charge of Lieut. in Goldtrap's company. Major Glennie's absence to America for twelve months, believe, does not present a better or more sound than is to be found in the 60th Regiment is indebted for so excellent a name to their very superior Bugle Major Regiment embarks the 1st September at West Indies. The Service and Reserve now being told off. Officers have returned to their quarters at the county Armagh. Companies of the 32d Regiment, have its at Boyle, county Roscommon. Present Major served in Cork in the Peninsular War, of which he was then Lieutenant, and by the different Regiments in garrisons, 58th, and 70th; and it is singular that Wellington was at that time a Lieutenant, and carried the colour in the guard of the Prince was honoured. Major and Colonel Bernard will be re-elected in King's County without opposition. That Lord George Beresford and Mr. Burne has withdrawn from the approach to the County Kildare. Lord William Fitzmaurice O'Ferrall and Mr. Cramer Roberts are candidates. Petty Sessions, four fellows were sentenced to months imprisonment, for riot and intoxication last week. The number of the County and City Police Establishment ending the 30th January last is 5,580. The Lord Bishop of Waterford held an installation at the Cathedral of that City, and admitted Deacon, Messrs John William Bourke, of Ossory, Charles Henry Archdall, for Waterford, and Mr. Hudson, for the diocese. An appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Henry Fleury. The gift of the Bishop of Limerick, of Dean Bond. A quantity of whiskey fell off a car in Roche's-street, and was nearly staved asunder. Great part poured along the ground in rapid torrents, and issued its route with the utmost avidity—hunters vainly strove to catch a sample of the but one fellow, an ardent votary of the sport, flung himself on hands and knees, into the very channel where the whiskey had formed a filthy pool. This animal continued to drink the poisonous mixture until his stomach rejected it, and he soon writhed under all the violent effects. To finish the disgusting spectacle, a man seen eagerly damming up the foul stream, indicating draught from so polluted a source. Improvement has been effected at the Northern Limerick Bridge by enlarging the confined space along the Strand, and rendering the river open and commodious. The operations of the bridge, and the sums contributed by the more numerous residents in the neighbourhood, have accomplished a considerable work. At the river side it is flanked by solid masonry. The last arch of Athlone Bridge is now
