at Club having passed a vote of censure against M'Swiny, one of their members, from the Club for an alleged breach of the bye-laws at the Cove Regatta, and insulting Mr M'Carthy, another of the members, the former has indicated himself from the resentment pronounced their conduct to be of that character as to place them beneath the notice of an officer and a gentleman. M. M'Swiny is now in the 8th Infantry, and saw much service in the Peninsula and in America.

last week, a poor woman at Freigh, in the County of Wick, had her ears cut off by some accident yet unknown; which, she being in the last stage of pregnancy, and living alone, occasioned, when, shocking to mention, while in a deplorable condition, a pig came into her house and devoured her just-born offspring to which she could afford no protection.

and most successful operation has been performed by Surgeon Thwaites, a gentleman whose name is held in deservedly high reputation. In the month of June, had by some mishap swallowed a quantity of water, and in about 16 or 18 minutes after her death was to all appearance extinct. Dr. Thwaites made an incision in the neck and inserted a tube through which the little innocent breathed, and she is now perfectly recovered. We publish this at the request of the child's parents.
