" They regret to mention that one of the Associations in connexion with your Auxiliary (the Ballybrood Bible Association) has returned the Bibles and Testaments originally granted, there being no demand for the Scriptures in that neighbourhoud-the books having experienced some injury, so as to reader them unsaleable, were subsequently given away to poor persons, and institutions needing them. On the other hand, your Committe are gratified by perceiving, that if one of their members has become paralized and inoperative from want of exercise in the wholesome labour of distributing the Bread of Life, another has become vigourous and useful, and has remitted to your Auxiliary £5 3s. for books old. The above was received from the Ladies Branch at Castle Connell, which has been subsequently designated the Castle Connell Branch of the Bible Society in connexion with the Limerick Auxiliary Society.

" It will appear from the Treasurer's Account that the Ladies Limerick Association are pursuing their inportant and interesting work of Christian love, in assisting the destitute and needy to obtain the Word of Life; they have remitted £10 4s. to the Parent Institution. In addition to this, your Committee have also sent £20 as a free grant.
