

is Club had its first meeting and dinner. The County Members were absent. A meeting of the Club is to open the representation of the County of Kerry will at its formation be attended by about a hundred voters, who will be guided in all transactions by a Council or Committee of the active and intelligent members of the Club.

On the 11th of September, will be the last day of the Clerk of the Peace notices of Registry Sessions for the division of Killarney, — on the 24th of September, for the division of the County of Kerry.

A meeting is expected at Newcastle Race Course, on the 11th instant. The plates on the Stewards' side are being repaired, and five horses have already been entered for the race.

A Cricket Match at Newcastle Course, on the 11th instant, between an equal party of the Artillery and the Cavalry.

There will be a grand Stag Hunt given this day on the 11th of September, in compliment to the County of Kerry.

The General of Inland Navigation have sold the Killarney, to this City, to the Limerick Navigation, to whom it will be transferred in a short time.

The fare from this City to Dublin is reduced to 20s outside, and 35s inside by the Limerick Navigation.

Besides this advantage to the public, the fare for passengers' luggage is double the ordinary rate.

The Culin mine has been discovered upon the estate of Edward O'Grady, Esq., adjoining the Mail Coach road within the parish of Abbeyfeale,—it is now in full work, the ore is of the very best quality, and much sought after by the public, &c. of the adjoining districts.

The altar of Thomond-gate Chapel was recently spoiled, by some sacrilegious spoiler.

A question on the Fishery laws has been brought before the Magistrates of Cork, for whom Mr. Sheppard, Inspector of Fisheries, is plaintiff, and a person named Minahan, is defendant.

It was an information against Minahan for fishing with a salmon net, Minahan not being a proprietor or farmer of the river. The Assessor of Fisheries, as it did not negative the charge, did not consider the charge to come within the Act of 3d Geo. 3d.

A meeting of the Hibernian Bible Society was held at the Wesleyan Chapel, Tralee, and was most respectfully attended. The Rev. Edward O'Grady, Rector of Tralee, presided. The Rev. J. Rector of Santry, (who attended by invitation from the Parent Society). The Rev. A. B. Rowan, John Lindsay Chute, and others, were present.

The Rev. J. Rector of Santry, in proposing several resolutions, addressed the meeting in a most interesting and impressive manner, and were heard with attention.

At the Anniversary Meeting was held at the Wesleyan Chapel, Tralee, to promote the objects of the Church Missionary Societies, W. H. W. Esq. in the Chair. After the Secretary (Mr. W. H. W.) had stated the proceedings for the past year, the meeting was addressed by Lord Mountsandel Oliver, M. Roberts, Esq. and Rev. J. Rector of Santry, (who attended by invitation from the Parent Society). The Rev. A. B. Rowan, John Lindsay Chute, and others, were present.

The Rev. J. Rector of Santry, in proposing several resolutions, addressed the meeting in a most interesting and impressive manner, and were heard with attention.

At the Anniversary Meeting was held at the Wesleyan Chapel, Tralee, to promote the objects of the Church Missionary Societies, W. H. W. Esq. in the Chair. After the Secretary (Mr. W. H. W.) had stated the proceedings for the past year, the meeting was addressed by Lord Mountsandel Oliver, M. Roberts, Esq. and Rev. J. Rector of Santry, (who attended by invitation from the Parent Society). The Rev. A. B. Rowan, John Lindsay Chute, and others, were present.

The Rev. J. Rector of Santry, in proposing several resolutions, addressed the meeting in a most interesting and impressive manner, and were heard with attention.

At the Anniversary Meeting was held at the Wesleyan Chapel, Tralee, to promote the objects of the Church Missionary Societies, W. H. W. Esq. in the Chair. After the Secretary (Mr. W. H. W.) had stated the proceedings for the past year, the meeting was addressed by Lord Mountsandel Oliver, M. Roberts, Esq. and Rev. J. Rector of Santry, (who attended by invitation from the Parent Society). The Rev. A. B. Rowan, John Lindsay Chute, and others, were present.

The Rev. J. Rector of Santry, in proposing several resolutions, addressed the meeting in a most interesting and impressive manner, and were heard with attention.

At the Anniversary Meeting was held at the Wesleyan Chapel, Tralee, to promote the objects of the Church Missionary Societies, W. H. W. Esq. in the Chair. After the Secretary (Mr. W. H. W.) had stated the proceedings for the past year, the meeting was addressed by Lord Mountsandel Oliver, M. Roberts, Esq. and Rev. J. Rector of Santry, (who attended by invitation from the Parent Society). The Rev. A. B. Rowan, John Lindsay Chute, and others, were present.

The Rev. J. Rector of Santry, in proposing several resolutions, addressed the meeting in a most interesting and impressive manner, and were heard with attention.

DEATHS.

At Lahinch, on Friday last, of bilious fever, after an illness of five days, John Ievers Hastings, Esq. M. D. His remains were interred on Sunday evening in the family vault, Killaloe, attended by a large assemblage of his friends, by whom he is deeply regretted. He died trusting alone in the merits of a Saviour for redemption.

In Catherine-street, on Saturday last, Anne, second daughter of Redmond Harte, Esq. Surveyor-General of Excise, a young lady whose premature death is much lamented by her relatives and friends.

At Kilkee, William, infant son of P. W. Creagh, of Lock quay, Esq.

At Harold's-cross, Dublin, Edward O'Reilly, Esq. a gentleman well known in the literary world as the author of the Irish Dictionary, &c.

At Cottage, near Gorey, Margaret, widow of the Rev. Theobald Brownrigg, Rector of the Union of Grange, Silvia, and Kilmichan, in the Diocese of Ferns.

In French street Dublin, Mrs Kent, widow of the late Dr Kent, of Nenagh.

In Monk-place, Phibsboro', Mr William Piele, of the Ordnance Survey Department, Phoenix Park.

In Church-street, Ennis, Mrs Jane Stackpoole, sister of the late William Stackpoole, of Edenvale, Esq.

In Mary-street Dublin, Mrs Mary Blackhall.

Suddenly at Dundalk, Robert Page, Esq. late Collector of Excise, in the 56th year of his age.

In Merrion-square, Dublin, Austin Cooper, Esq. formerly of his Majesty's Treasury.

In Clontarf, Ellen, wife of Wm Moore Mee, Esq.

On Thursday last, in North King-street, Dublin, Mr Robert Kells, and at the same moment, his sister, Mrs. Catherine Stewart, of Kevin-street.

In Mountjoy-square, Anne, wife of Thos. Tilly, Esq.

At Holywood, Sarah, wife of Mr William Maine, of Belfast, and only daughter of the Rev. Richard Russell, of Clough.

In Monaghan, William Robinson, Esq.

The Rev. James Houston, jun. son of the Rev James Houston, Minister of the Presbyterian Congregation of Ballindreat, County Derry.

Mrs Huston, relict of Henry Huston, of Ardnaree, in the County Mayo, Esq.

In London, Doctor Nuttall, Physician to the Westminster General Dispensary.

William Edwin Burnaby, Esq. Barrister at Law, and Common Pleader of the City of London.

In her 69th year, Henrietta Charlotte, the wife of J. Crickitt, Esq. of Doctors'-commons, and Leonard's-place, Kensington.

At Gravesend, Richard Ruck, Esq.

At Winchester House, Southwark Bridge Road, John Rawlinson Harris, Esq. M. P. for Southwark.

At Brompton, Catherine, wife of George Ogle, Esq.

At Worthing, Anna, second daughter of Sir Charles Goring, of Highden, Sussex, Bart.

TO HENRY ROSE, ESQ. Mayor of Limerick.

WE, the undersigned, request you will call a Meeting of the INHABITANTS on as early a day as possible for the purpose of addressing Major-General Sir EDWARD BLAKENEY, on his departure from this City.

- John Crips, Mayor Elect,
- John Vereker, Alderman,
- Andrew Watson, Alderman,
- Thomas Jervis, Alderman,
- Michael Gavin, J. P.
- William Roche, J. P.
- D. F. G. Mahony, Alderman,
- Henry Watson, Alderman,
- William Piercy, } Sheriffs,
- George Lloyd, }
- John Massy, J. P.

TUTOR.

A YOUNG GENTLEMAN, of talents and strict morality, wishes to be employed as Tutor in a respectable family. Salary object as genteel society.

Apply to A. B. T. Chronicle Office (paid.)

J. Tyrrell
John Tyrrell B

BOARDING AND DAY
9, WILLIAM-STREET
LIMERICK.

Abstract Grammar,	Optics,
The English Language,	Astronomy,
The French Language,	Geography,
Arithmetic,	History,
Algebra,	Commerce,
Euclid,	Locke,
Mechanics,	Logic.

FEMALE PUPILS

under the superintendance of J. T. Daughters, have the same departments of instruction, with the addition of Needle-work, &c. and they have apartments even for themselves.

24
Petit Palais Royal
JACQUES E

From 151, Fenchurch-Street, London
Parliament-Street, Dublin

IMPORTER OF
FRENCH, GERMAN, GENEVA
JEWELLERY AND FANCY
Of every description.

RESPECTFULLY informs the Merchants and Inhabitants of this City and County, that he has opened for sale at Mr. JAMES 34, GEORGE'S-STREET, a Splendid Assortment of the above Goods, viz. Gold and Silver Watches, Gold and Silver Rings, Rings, Seals and Keys, Gold Bracelets, Bracelet Clasps of every description, Gloves, Purses, Opera Glasses, Dressing, and in different coloured stones; Perfumery, Snuff Boxes, &c. &c. articles too numerous to mention.

He has a large assortment in Blaquenette, in Jet and Berlin Iron; also, in French China and Chimney Ornaments.

He deems it proper to state, that he manufactures himself, and purchasing direct from the Manufacturers, enables him to sell the best and most durable at the lowest prices.

An early inspection of the above Goods, is fully solicited, as the Proprietor's stock is only to be to the 7th of September, including that day.

C. J. M.
LIMERICK

NEWCASTLE CO
Friday, the 17th
September, 1

FIRST DAY—COUNT
Ten Pound Stakes, to which the County Year will add Thirty Sovereigns for Bred Horses, the bona fide property of the County. Weight for age—3 years old, 10st 0lb; 5 years old, 11st 0lb; aged, 12st 0lb. Three pound and Geldings. The Winner of the 5lb extra. Two Mile Heats. This