PS, Mayor of Limerick.
JON, High Sheriff
AHON, City Limerick.
the address with the utmost following reply:

MEMEN,
for the Address which you have presented to the Corporation of Limerick, in relation to the renewal of those excellent regulations which you have introduced in the Vice-Regal Office. We are glad to learn, that experience has confirmed those flattering opinions of your wisdom and good-will which you originally proposed. Your almost premature indulgence in loyalty and attachment to the Government are such as become a source of pride in common with our Fellow-Citizens of the Empire, must be considered as a desirable qualification which is called upon to investigate the results of the changes in the Government of neighbouring States. It is our permanent duty to maintain the Constitution—and blessed be the name of the Legislature essentially the source of public opinion—(speaking) reasonable and just, and free from all cause of alarm or fear.

It is our duty to form may rage around us—confidence, the United Kingdom secure, in Prosperity and
