

abandoned its duty to the Irish people," and pointedly denies this charge, and states are against a Repeal of the Union."

O'Connell is to preside at the annual Metropolitan Orphan Charity, at Morrison's attempted to arrest Mr. O'G. Mahon yesterday in Waterstown Chapel, but he escaped their presence.

There were on the alert yesterday, in consequence of a rumour which was current through town, that a mob of ruffians and Publicans' boys was to take possession of the air at Harcourt-street fields. The intention did not take place.

On Monday evening, Mr. Elrington enacted Ostavian in the Theatre.

The Grand Theatre echoed on Saturday night from the audience for a Repeal of the Union, a very inflammatory exhibition which produced a great sensation. A new piece, called the "French Revolution 1830."

There are in course of signature in Dublin, Cork and Kilkenny, for a Repeal of the Union.

Henry Winston Barron, Esq. presided at a meeting in Waterford, for a Repeal of the Union. Mr. Wyse, M. P. candidly declared he was not in any opinion upon a Repeal of the Union, but he was guided by the voice of his constituents. He addressed the meeting at great length in a measured and temperate manner. A petition was agreed to, which is deputed to present.

On Monday, Sovereign of Belfast, presided at a general meeting of the O'Neills, M. P. on Tuesday. In the presence of the Marquis of Donegal, the Earl of Chichester, and Lord E. Chichester.

A public meeting at Carrick-on-Suir last evening, for a Repeal of the Union. A petition was presented to the High Sheriff of the County Clare, and for Repeal of the Union, is in course of signature.

There is about to erect a new See in Ireland.—The object is to give a name to a See, and the Prelate is to be the Archbishop of the Roman Catholic Church.

A great number of Roman Catholic Clergy are expected to arrive from all parts of Ireland.

It is generally believed that Mr. George R. Dawson's resignation has induced the Irish Society to exert themselves to the utmost to prevent the Beresford family in the borough of Carrickmacross, of Glenarm Castle, the unsuccessful candidate for Antrim County, is husband of the Countess of Londonderry's mother, and was a musician at Vauxhall.

At the late election for Downshire, the Roman Catholic candidate, Mr. Dromore, is said to have used all his influence to secure the votes of the Lords Castlereagh and Arthur Hill, and of Colonel Forde, the popular candidate.

It is reported that Mr. Lawless has got a government pension for his services as a barrack master.

The Archbishop of Cashel and family, have returned to London, from Ireland.

The funeral of Mr. Blake, at Castleblake, in the County Wick, was attended by an armed party of ruffians on Monday night, who wounded him so severely that his recovery is doubtful.

A man named Hunter, who kept a lodging-house in the town of Wexford, was barbarously murdered on Monday morning, it is thought by a pedlar.

A quarrel arose on Wednesday, between two brothers of the name of Gaffney, who resided in Kilkenny, one of them (an old woman) in endeavouring to get into a boat, received, unfortunately, a kick in the head which caused her death on the following day.

reception. A part of the 76th Regiment is to occupy the Barracks at the new depot, Beggar's Bush.

The 87th Regiment, now quartered in Newry and Armagh, amongst whom the mutiny arose a few days since, are to receive the route for Dublin, in a few days. Their quarters are to be Richmond Barracks.

The 69th Regiment which arrived in Cork last week from Dublin, and were to have embarked yesterday on board the Transports lying in Cove, for Barbadoes, were suddenly countermanded on Sunday night, and are to remain in Cork until further orders. The Cork papers say, it is conjectured that the 87th will be sent out in their stead.

On Friday last an order was received in Dublin by the Commanding Officer of Artillery to immediately dispatch an officer and 20 men of that corps to Chester Castle.—The men were instantly embarked on board a steamer for Liverpool, and reached their destination early in the forenoon of Saturday.

Lieut. Daniell and Ensign Dennis, 49th regiment, arrived at Calcutta last May in the Cassia from Portsmouth.

There are no Military Promotions in the London Gazette of Friday evening.

The Provost and Fellows of Trinity College, Dublin, met on Wednesday last, and received Mr. Kennedy's resignation of Fellow, on his accepting the late Mr. Griffin's Rectory, in the gift of Trinity.

The Bishop of Killaloe has appointed the Rev. George Smithwick, Reader at the Cathedral, to the Vicarage of Ogonelloe, void by the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Purdon.

His Majesty, in state, will open the first Session of the new Parliament on Tuesday next, the 26th instant, with a speech from the throne.

The Irish Members are on their way to London, to attend the Parliamentary Session.

Yesterday, Mr. Spring Rice, M. P. left for Waterford, on his way to London.

Major M'Namara, M. P. County Clare, left Dublin for London, on Sunday.

Eminent Counsel have been retained by Mr. O'Brien, to aid his petition against the late election return for the County Clare.

The Hon. William Browne, M. P. has left Killarney to attend Parliament.

Yesterday Mr. O'Connell's family arrived in town from Derrinane, County Kerry, and drove on for Dublin.

A communication received this day by the Chamber of Commerce from Sir Edward S. Lees, of the General Post-Office, Dublin, intimates that orders have been given to forward Scotch letters from Limerick to their destination, on arriving in Dublin on Sunday.

It is not the intention of Government to follow exactly the plans recommended by the Parliamentary Commissioners of Inquiry, with respect to the future management of the Post-office Department: for with a view to further retrenchment, instead of three Commissioners, there is to be but one Postmaster-General for the United Kingdom. The Earl of Clancarty is the Nobleman who will ultimately be appointed to that responsible situation.

The Edward transport, Gilbert, sailed from Cork, on Monday, with convicts for New South Wales.

An houseless wanderer named Trassy, was found dead on Monday morning at the kiln, near the Distillery, Thomond-gate, where for want of a bed, the unfortunate man laid himself down to rest.—No doubt he was suffocated by the noxious vapour from the kiln.

The Right Worshipful John Crips, Esq. Mayor, held an inquest on Saturday last, on the body of Wm. Price, a Ferryman. It appeared in evidence that the deceased was an aged man, and accidentally fell into the water and was drowned.—Verdict accordingly.

Wednesday night, a party of lawless ruffians tore down a farm house of Mr. Thomas Leader, near Millstreet, County Cork, and carried off the timber.

ratory in which a stern nature has been gaged into gacy converted to virtue, avarice turned into liberality, and all the angry passions moderated? Is the hypochondriac so completely rid and saved from the disease which devours him, as in the Tet and Apollo? A single leer of the Comedy will induce a merrier and more healthy action to the muscles to the man of melancholy than a course of all the physical professors in the university, not, too, enjoyed its salutary influence? We are not willing to acknowledge it. We are not good if it effected for the poor last winter, to indulge the hope,—indeed we are considered to be benefited will be conferred upon our Charities. The Mendicity and Sick and Indigent Societies, the Lying-in Hospital, the Poor Widows of George's Church Alley, all cheered by the donations of the Lincolns Theatre Society. This season will be more than the former; the Corps Dramatique, by the accession of talent and novelty; the Theatre painted, and otherwise much improved; the arrangements will secure comfort and convenience to the audience. At this moment the Charities need of assistance than they were last year, the talents and accomplishments of the Amateurs so laudably to their maintenance: their exertions in the cause of Charity; and sure the dispositions of our fellow-citizens to abet their exertions are not in the least degree diminished.

The Marquess of Clanricarde and the Duke of Devonshire attended Loughrea races, which were on Wednesday. Mr Denis's Lalla Rookh, a grey gelding, won a plate of 50 sovereigns, and Mr. H. won a plate of 40 sovereigns, leaping 10 feet each. Mr Huran also won the new value.

On Wednesday, the race ball took place at Loughrea, and was most fashionable. About three o'clock in the morning the ball was down to a very sumptuous supper, provided with the delicacies of the season.

At the Curragh meeting on Thursday, Bags won a sweepstakes of 25 sovereigns. Sligo's Coeur de Lion, a match of 100 sovereigns each, and the Peel cup, beat the other competitors. The same horse won the Royal guineas. Mr Montgomery's Cinnamon won stakes of 25 sovereigns. Lord Portarlington's Rembrandt and Rasper won two private matches.

On Saturday Mr. Forbes' Pioneer won the Berland Handicap of 20 sovs, with 100 sovs added. Hunter's Cupbearer won the Corinthian with 30 added. The winners in private matches were Lord Milltown, and Colonel Armstrong.

Mallow Races next Monday promise to be a most and fashionable meeting.

Slaughtering of black cattle is to be commenced in the City, next week.

The fair of Clonroed, on Thursday, was of very good stock, and though some of the prices were most ruinous; in scarce instances did the cattle sold bring more than the value of the feed. There was a bad shew of horses and some buying for pigs, and at a fair from 30s to 33s per cwt. and the small quantity of the best demand.

Kilrush Quarter Sessions commenced before Assistant Barrister Major. On the 16th and sixteen notices, 36 freeholders were present. Thomas Young, and Edward H. were committed to Clonmel Gaol, charged with the murder of Patrick Kelly and Denis Walsh.