lamity has fallen as one of the greatest of fortunes. He had not left the presence of his child, half an hour, when Death arrested his he vigour of health, and expelled the vital ver. The scene of agony and distress which on the return of their beloved protector, cold nate, to the fond arms of his disconsulate ly be guessed by that bosom which has a heart sympathise with the hitterness of her sorrows, ld be a task equally painful and arduous to deharrowing spectacle, were we even inclined to r notions of delicacy and respect at such a is. Major Hutchison served many years in army, "even from his boytch days." He was e in India, and under the celebrated General e in South America. From the 47th he cx. to the 65th, of which he was senior Major for irs, and about three years past exchanged into Major Stewart of that regiment going to the ajor Hutchison was endowed with many most qualities of head and heart, his brother officers nim, and his soldiers beheld him with regard on. He was a gallant other, and in private , Liverpool-for Roscrea read " Burren." ect gentleman, of me: taffable and unobtrusive tuous banquet had been prepared at the Officers ir George Bingham, after the inspection of the when the sudden fatality had been aunounced, d and the Officers very properly countermanded ainment, and the Regiment returned to the rracks in silence.

ts were received in town yesterday of the death A Atkinson, late of the 74th Regiment, in ion, at his father's house at Waringstown, own. This Officer served in the 74th from s never absent a day from the Regiment e whole Peninsular war, until wounded at the leg, which obliged him to return to Irecovery of health-he was universally esteemed ole Corps, both men and officers, as a good rave officer. Lieut. Atkinson was found dead . having retired to rest the preceding night in ver to the communication of a Military corresrom Waterford, on the subject of the distincmottos worn by the Regiments of the British account of which appeared in last Saturday's , we beg to explain that no Regiments were a that return but those now actually embedied ecciving pay, with one exception, the late 18th agoons, which was inadvertently introduced. espondent refers to the distinguished services of agist Dragoons at Assaye, Coromandel, Serin. and Niagara. We cheerfully concur in his , and should be indeed unwilling to detract nerits of any Regiment in the British Army, we entertain a very high regard.

YMASTER-GENERAL'S OFFICE. tent having sanctioned an arrangement by which ry, year is henceforth to terminate with the ear, the next issue of half-pay, military alwidows' pensions, &c. to be made from this be for 93 days, from the 25th of September t of December, 1830, instead of, as heretofore es, to the 21th of December: and in future s for making the regular quarterly payments said services will be from the 1st of January st of March; from the 1st of April to the lune; from the 1st of July to the 30th of r; and from the 1st of October to the 31st of ] r, in every year (instead of the former quarterly rminating on the 21th of March, the 24th of 21th of September, and the 24th of December;) tersons emitted to claim any of the said allowmit pro. presions, &c. are to be careful that ivits are made out and sworn in strict conformity ve regulations.

Heruge, ann torpnan occurr. General Sir Edward and Lady Blakeney have given 5/ to the Sick and Indigent Roomkeepers Society of Dublin.

This morning 50 superior Bullocks, the property of Mr. Canny, passed beneu from Clare, to be slaughtered at Cork. The Collector to the Sick and Indigent Roomkeepers Society has received 14 from Mr Canter, as Foreman of a Jury, also 15s, for the Mendicity Association. At the fair of Bruff on Monday, upwards of 250 fat .

cows were purchased for slaughter and market in Corkprime heisters averaged in one lot IOL a head; sheep sold for 20s. and 30s. heavy pigs broughs 26s. to 28s. a cwt. The Amateur Performances at our Theatre on Wednesday evening, gave much satisfaction to a crowded

Mr. James Geary was admitted a member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, on Monday last, after the usual examinations-

ERRATUM-In our last, 5th column of fourth page. article about Steam communication from the Shannon to [COMMUNICATED] -- It is cheering to behold the mantmous efforts now making in England, to induce the Parliament to abolish Slavery in his Majesty's dominions. Petitions to the same effect are now in progress from the several Parishes of this City. We have no doubt they will be very cordially and generally signed.

BIRTHS

At Ross Glebe, the Lady of the Rev. George Nattle Smith, of a daughter.

At his house in Frederick Treet, the Lady of Mr. Charles Henwood, of a daughter.

At Sedgemoor, Co. Tipperary, Mrs. Mereman of a daughter.

At Stephen's-green, Dublin, the Lady of R. W. Greene, Esq. of a son.

In Lower Mount-street, the Lady of James Mc is Townsend, Esq. of Shapperton, of a son.

The Lady of the Rev John Digby Wingfield, of Geashill, of a son.

At Portsmouth, the Lady of Captain F. Whinyates, Royal Engineers, of a daughter. MARKIAGES

In St Peter's Church, Duhlin, John Morley Dennis, Esq son of the Rev. Mande Dennis, of Union Hill, in the County Westmeath, to Elizabeth Anne, daughter of the late Howe Green Manders, Esq.

Michael Curran, Esq. of Lacken-Mills, Kilkenny, to Mary, daughter of Mr Richard Shanshan, of Waterford.

Mr David Jones, of Brombro, Cheshire, to Mrs Mary Connelly, relict of the late Capt. Connelly, of Youghel. At Walworth, T. Phillips, Esq. of Bayswater-terrace. to Miss Elizabeth F. Firth, of Buxted, Sussex.

DEATHS.

On Thursday morning, at his son's (the Rev. Doctor Forster's) house in Mallow-street, at the advanced age of 82, Charles Forster, Esq. late of Gardiner-street. Dublin.

In Wexford, the wife of Henry T. Redmond, Esq. In Cork, Rowland Davies, late of Trinidad, Esq. In Killarney, aged 16 years, Catherine, daughter of the late Henry Maybery, Esq. In Thurles, Mr Thomas Maher.

John T. Adrien, Esq. Member and Professor of Medical Jurisprudence of the Royal College of Surgeone in Irwiand.

At Jonesbro' Glebe, the Rev. T. W. Dixon, Rector of that Parish, and formerly Curate of St Peter's, Droghelia.

In Great Rusself-street, Bloomsbury, in the 91st year of her age, the Downger Lady Young, reliet of the Admiral Sir George Young, of Formosa-place, Buch At North Cheam, Surrey, William Acton, Eug.

At Henry, near Tunbridge Wells, Major Go Beatson, East India Company's service.

cumstanced situate Limerick, on the M may be converted business. The Garden, Or 70 acres of land wil would be let in divi Application to !

N. J. William Premises

VACANCY A Establishment late Miss. HANNAL her Executors and December next, fo to fill said vacanc Will directed-" related to her own Widow not relate quired that such related, shall by a of relationship, wi their place of resid families they now dressed to either of or the Rev. J. Limerick, and left November next.

PIE following Mayor, wh mined to enforce: All Milk Pails and the Measures, adjusted and daily The Weights in properly regulated Sweepers to have 8 o'clock in the A be thrown out, ex Sireets must be pe the Forenoon.

The nuisance o Suburb Avenues. much inconvenien for the Constables of Five Shillidge for the penalty w

All Carriers or against the dange ber and Bars of Cars, Carts, and lead their Horses, statute will be st The Owners o have their Names Above all thir Public Houses sh later than II o'cl wites which the breach of the Sab vegetitales, and Day be saspende To have such mination of the habitants of this his Duty, and w thuse measures, Cial results.