

Army within the last ten days:—
 from Brighton to London.
 from Dorchester to London.
 from Exeter to Dorchester.
 from Windsor to Canterbury.
 from Foot, from Chatham to Canterbury.
 from Buttevant to Galway.
 from Naas to Dublin.
 from Drogheda to Derry.
 from Galway to Dublin.
 from Newry to Plymouth.

to observe, by the Gazette elsewhere, that many, 56th Regt. in this garrison, whose services we noticed a few posts since, promoted to a company in the 91st Regt.
 Macqueen, 74th Regiment, succeeds to that corps vacant by the sudden and la-Major Hutchison. The vacant com-given out of the Regiment, passing by senior officer of that rank.
 states that an Officer of this Garrison quarters this week, under very revolting

(who is to be married to the King's in the 7th Fusileers. has just retired had not removed the saddles from the march from Dorchester to Windsor, arrived to set off instanter for London
 Cavalry Regiment arrived on Monday that a depot of a regiment is in future at the Pigeon House, Dublin The from Naas, is about to be removed to the barracks in James's-street are to be for the reception of the 70th Regiment.

 register, of yesterday, states the 37th red to Dublin. This is a mistake, for on passage to Bermuda.
 lying at Cork for the purpose of con-Regiment to Barbadoes, left that harfor Plymouth, supposed to embark in fileers for the West Indies.
 appointed the Earl of Winchelsea to the Yeomanry Corps in Kent.
 Wellington has not the slightest idea of the Deccan prize money will be made to soldiers of the British army concerned early in the ensuing month.

 in contemplation to lay a tax upon all sions of twenty-five per cent, not even granted to the army and navy for wounds
 ce. It is so far to be favored as to form at ten per cent; but we would submit to the British nation, and to the honor of ether it be right, just, or proper, that led and already suffered so much in de-ing and country, should be saddled with all comparison, of greater magnitude, dy of his Majesty's subjects.

been ordered in Parliament of the num-Officers from Dec. 1828 to June, 1830,
 half-pay of the regular troops and militia:
 seamen are employed on the Irish coast
 His Majesty having accepted the park Yacht Club, it is now the Royal a, and the only one perhaps that does gland to build their vessels.
 ial was lately held on an Officer of the India, and he has been obliged to retire of the Royal Artillery from Paisley, is December at Berbice, for shooting Mr.

MARRIAGES.

On Wednesday, at Killoscully Church, by the Rev.
 Mathew Moore, the Rev John Godfrey Phillips, to Mary, eldest daughter of the late Benjamin Hawkshaw, of Falleen, in the County of Tipperary, Esq.

In Dublin, William H. Cuthbert, Esq. M.D. of George's-place, to Mary Anne, third daughter of the late William Conway, of South Anne-street, Esq.

At Coolock Church, the Rev John Gregg, Rector of Killasallaghan, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Robert Law, Esq. of Dublin, banker.

In Dublin, Mr Nathaniel Monk, of the Excise, to Eliza, daughter of Mr Robert Mayston, of Christ Church.

Walter Kelly, Esq. of Scragg, County Roscommon, to Eliza, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Byrne, of Carraboy, in said County, Esq.

Surgeon Quinlan, of Clonmel, to Margaret, daughter of Michael Mara, of Bouladuff, County Tipperary, Esq.

In London, Thomas Lyster, Esq. to Miss Villiers.

At Stoke Damerel, Plymouth, T. H. Holberton, Esq.
 surgeon, Hampton, Middlesex, to Elizabeth Vaughan, youngest daughter of Lieut.-General Nelson.

DEATHS.

At Torquay, Devon, to the deep regret of an affectionate husband and all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, Mrs. Green, wife of Francis Green, of Greenmount, in this County, Esq. late Captain in the 3d Dragoon Guards, and daughter of the late Colonel Baker of Cork. She was a beautiful and accomplished Lady, whose premature death has plunged a most respectable circle of relatives and friends in deep affliction.

In Thomas-street, aged 74 years. George Clancie, Esq formerly of Oakfield, near this City.

At Barnakyle, this morning, Mr. Terence Carmody, farmer, much regretted.

At his residence near Cloyne, of typhus fever, the Rev. Hugh Lindsey, Reader of the Cathedral of Cloyne, and Curate of Inch.

At Clonakilty, Lieut Henry O'Brien, Royal Marines.

In Dublin, Edward, eldest son of the late W. Fitz-Gerald, of Corbally-House, Queen's County, Esq.

At Knockranny-wood, County Roscommon, Miss Frances Tennison, sister to Colonel Tennison.

In Main-Guard-street, Galway, Miss Anne Mannior

At Lisburn, aged 75 years, the Rev Philip Fletcher

At Hannington-House, Highworth, Wiltshire, Roger Montgomery, Esq. late Captain in the 30th Regiment

At Greenwich, of apoplexy, Mr Horatio Lestrangle, late professor of drawing in Dublin.

In London, Hannah, widow of Lieut-Colonel Waight, East India Company's service.

At Boxly-house, Kent, George J. Cholmondeley, Esq

At Kennington, Colonel Charles Tudor.

At Berhampore, in the East Indies, Lieut.-Colonel Morrell, commanding the Moorshedabad Battalion.

At Akyab, Captain Frith, 47th Native Infantry.

At Blackheath, in the 57th year of his age, Major-General Sir Charles Philip Belson, K. C. B.

At Halifax, aged 80 years, Crofton Uniacke, Esq.

In Canada, Ensign George, Adjutant 24th Regiment.

In Jamaica, Lieutenant Brampton, 84th—In India,
 Captain Atkinside, 14th Foot—and Lieut. Mac Kenzie, 13th Foot.

Missions in Ireland.

ON SUNDAY evening, November 14th, Instant, a SERMON will be preached by Mr. MAHON, of Mallow, in the Preaching-House, Bedford-Row, and the Annual Collection made in aid of the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Missions.

The Primitive Wesleyan Methodists have at present seventeen faithful devoted Missionaries holding forth the Word of Life in some of the most unselected parts of this

GREAT NOVEL AND

THIRD
 Woollen Drapery,

THE C
 19, GEORGE'S-ST

THE Proprietor having concluded the (which for extent is confessedly unpare and Fashionable varieties; the quality of unlimited confidence, as having been per England.

Throughout, this Stock will be found to PRIME

It chiefly comprises Extra Superfine
 Extra Stout Drab, Brown, Green, Oxford
 Drab Northumberland Cloths; Royal Pa
 a variety of Fancy Waterproof Stuffs for PETERSHAMS and STANHOPE

A choice selection of Ladies' Habit, Pel
 Coatings; a large and general assortment Flushings, Frises, and Welch Flannels.

LIVERY CLOTHS, Plushes, Waist
 WINTER

This Stock comprises (in a beautiful styl
 Figured and Striped Toilinetts, Valencias,

The supply of Medley Cloths will be fo
 Blues have been got up on a superior prin
 the dying, the colours are engaged fast.

On comparing quality of Goods with pr ance of that confidence and support which the study of the Proprietor to merit. He that has raised itself in public estimation,
 -For-On mark
 Stands to NI

The CLOTH-HALL is now supplied
 some of the first London makers) as wa
 Prices are, as usual—proverbially low!!!
 When buying your supply of W

November 13

Wanted £100

FOR Six Months—Sufficient Security v
 the Interest allowed, and the Prin punctually repaid.

Apply to GEORGE BURDON DR
 Limited, N

NEWCASTLE AND WHIT
 COALS.

FRANCIS SPAGHT is now D
 Honan's-Quay, per Catharine, One Fifty Tons of very superior Newcastle Co be sold, ex ship, at 24s. per Ton

He is also discharging, per Experiment, Quay, Two Hundred Tons of Best Whit which will be sold at 18s. per Ton.

An early application is recommended, as tion of these Cargoes are already engaged Limerick,