

terday from Kiltrush, to join head-quarters, per Kingstown.

Military Court of Enquiry has been held into the of the Lieutenant who eloped from this garrison evolving circumstances, as stated in our paper of y. The result of which is that several sworn des have been forwarded to the Judge Advocate-l, in order to institute ulterior proceedings.

the 5th October, Lieutenant Stuart Mackay, of y's 32d Regiment, put an end to his existence bec, by cutting with a razor his throat from ear to was in evidence at the Coroner's Inquest that nant Mackay had laboured for several years under fluence of lunacy and delirium tremens, when in et state of mind he was reported an excellent His remains were interred at Quebec on the hmilitary honors, the entire garrison being in nce.

Robinson, of the Royal Artillery, was drowned 6th October in Mud Lake Redeau Canal, Kings-Canada

Donald and Campbell, of Regent-street, London, e declared Bankrupts, were Agents to the followrteen Regiments—3d Light Dragoons, 16th, 26th, 35th, 49th, 58th, 72d, 75th, 79th, 83d, 91st, d 95th Infantry. They were also agents to the ner of Jersey and Staff.

Monday, a petition was presented to the House nmons, from Messrs. Philip William Russell and d Peppard, freemen, against the return of Mr.
Rice for this city.

Petition of Mr. James Daly complaining of an election for the County Galway, and the Petition Lucius O'Brien complaining of an undue election County Clare, have been presented to the House nmons, and will be taken into consideration on the January next.

Petition against the Election of Sir R. Ferguson, e City of Derry, will be considered the 4th of y.

William S. O'Brien, of Ennis, spoke and voted or of Mr. O'Connell's motion for a Repeal of the Act, which Act had never the approval of ouse of Dromoland.

e pamphlet of William Smith O'Brien, Esq. M. P. anis, on the subject of Poor Laws, is entitled to general consideration, and has already excited much at in England. The author prefers, if possible, tional to a compulsory assessment. More on the t in our next.

ice appears in our columns of an intention to apply liament for a Bill to amend the Act of 4th Geo. 4th, aking the Wellesley Bridge and Docks on the Shan-

The object is to open roads to the Bridge on both of the River and to make Quays and Quay-walls. e amount of assessment collected on the houses in ichael's Parish for the year ending 30th September s £3043, of which 436l has been expended for to 25 nightly Watchmen, 38l for watch-boxes, or sweeping streets, 466l for gas lighting the parish , 133l for broken stones to repair streets, 209l for g and repairing streets and roads, and 461l to the Gaol, House of Industry, and Fever Hospital.

e Resolutions of the Coopers and Bakers of this City d at a general meeting of the members of each trade, our of a Repeal of the Legislative Union, appear advertising columns.

e Masonic Lodge, 271, of this City, has received gracious reply from his Majesty, through Sir t Peel, to their Address of Congratulation on his y's accession to the throne.

George O'Callaghan, Esq. of Maryfort, is a Candior the Treasurership of the Cou-- Clare, when a y occurs.

Esq: Barrister at Law, of a son.

At Athy, the Lady of John Greene, Esq. of a son.
At Cloghan Castle, King's County, the Lady of Garrett O'Moore, Esq. of a daughter.

At Newry, the Lady of Lieut. Turner, R. N. of a daughter.

At Elen-Park, the Lady of Joseph Watkins, Esq. of a son.

At Harringay-House, Middlesbrough, the Lady of Sir Francis Mackenzie, of a son.

At Restalrig House, Lady Radcliffe, of a son.
In London, the Lady of J. H. Lloyd, Esq. Barrister, of a daughter.

At Chelsea, the Lady of the Rev. Henry John Owen, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

In Cork, Christopher Lloyd, Esq. to the daughter of the late Charles Hephurn, Esq. of London.

Michael Jones, Esq. of Mallow, to Catherine, daughter of the late James O'Shaughnessy, Esq. of Ballybricken, County Limerick.

At Cove Church, Joseph Woodley, Esq. of Tallagh, to Miss O'Hea, eldest daughter of the late Stephen O'Hea, of Maymount, County Cork, Esq.

In Dublin, Mr John Watt, of Belfast, to Sarah Anne, second daughter of the late John Small, of Mourne, in the County Down, Esq.

At Tor Church, Captain Warrington, 2d Dragoon Guards, son of the Consul-General at Tripoli, to Emma, daughter of the late Major Van Cortlandt.

At St Mary's, Bryanstone-square London, Lieut-Colonel J. D'Arcy, R. S. I. late of the Royal Artillery, and of Milford-house, Hants, to Katherine Lucy Eliza, only daughter of J. Hyde, Esq. of Montague-square, and late of Lexham-hall, Norfolk.

DEATHS.

The Rev Dean Ryan, Parish Priest of Cashel, and formerly President of the Irish Academy at Paris.

At Castleisland, Mr Charles Nowlan, classical teacher.

At Friary-house, Leighlin-bridge, County Carlow, Hannah, wife of Frank William Bernard, Esq.

At the seat of Thomas Izod, Esq. Kells, County Kilkenny, Margaret, relict of George Lucy, of Gloucester, Esq. and daughter of the late William Belcher, of Waterford, Esq.

Hannah, second daughter of the late Francis Cooper, of Cooperville, County Cork, Esq.

At Kilmainham, Mr N. Sharkey, aged 70 years.

In Drogheda, Mrs Walter Lindsay.

At Torquay, Devonshire, Alexander Chambers, aged 26, second son of James Chambers, Esq. of Gardiner'srow, Dublin.

John Beeby, Esq. late of the Ordnance Survey Department.

William Askins, of Enniscorthy, Esq.

At the house of her brother-in-law, Mr Alex. Peacock, jun. Newry, Sarah, fifth daughter of Mr John Wright, of Lanehead, Lancashire.

Sarah, wife of Mr Jackson Griffin, of Newry.
In Suffolk, Captain Edward Rotheram, C. B. Royal Navy. He commanded the Royal Sovereign, bearing the flag of Lord Collingwood, at the battle of Trafalgar.

At Abergavenny, William Lewis, Esq. formerly Lieut. and Surgeon of the Sussex Light Dragoons.

At the residence of Major Pollock, Northrode Cottage, Cheshire, Mrs L. Williams, of Alsager.

Aged 84 years, Mr William Mathews, first regular publisher of the Bristol Directory.

At Westminster, Charles Sinclair Cullen, Esq. Barrister at Law.

In York-place, London, James Buller, Esq. Chief Clerk to the Privy Council.

On board his Majesty's ship Blossom, in the West Indies, Lieutenant William Wilson, Royal Navy.

COLONEL BAR ROUCHE an private sale. The carries five persons behind, and shuts of the best English rising five years old, riding Horses, beauti

If not disposed of rouche and Horses together or separate, Wednesday next, the

KEYMOUR'S ROO
The Barouche and
the Quarter-Mas
aracks, or at Mr

Fashionable

FOR Cutting, Dre
tlemen's and C reet, Limerick, an reet, Dublin—D

Manufactory, Hair C &c.—Impressed

for the distinguished of his New to return his m try, his numerous

his best endeavo fluence of their sup

he has the day rec ing Goods, direct from and Paris, and de induce him to v of PRERUN

tract of Roses, Soap; Vegeta

in use; Cloths of a superior q

ers warranted, Distilled

ances of all sor ng Fluid, Esp

oving and beau d's Macassar C

sorts, Court
ome, Best Su

er, Ivory Torto
tion, Genuine

Bouquet, Ber
orth of Har

Patent Windso
s Patent Cu

ing, Badger
yth & Nep

Combs
Paper,

celebrated the first Dressin

ions, v
Paris
S Jadi
xmansh
r, canno LAS he for the India
which