

Charles Sugrue presided at an Anti-Dinner on Monday. The company was composed of the able and working classes of the people, who attended in great numbers. The number of tickets issued was 200. There was some discontent evinced at the dishes and the quantity of punch furnished on the table. With some difficulty the Chairman silenced the riotous.

meeting last week to Petition for a Repeal of the Union. The Right Worshipful J. Crips, Esq. Mayor, presided at the House of Industry, and the Market Jury.

DEATHS.
Yesterday, at Quin, county Clare, to the deep regret of her family and friends, Mrs. Studdert, wife of the Rev. Richard Studdert, and daughter of the late Lieut.-General O'Meara, of this City.
On Monday, after a tedious illness, at his house, Fairhill, near Scariff, County Clare, William O'Meara, Esq. aged 48 years.
At her father's house, on Monday last, after long continued illness, which brought a valuable life to its close, and the mortal spirit to its wished-for rest, Henrietta, daughter of R. C. Langford, Esq. If unaffected piety, and a desire to follow her Divine Father, could endear any earthly object, and leave a sad blank on its removal, friends have indeed much to lament; but if the Gospel be Heaven's appointment to bring sinners to God, and to clothe them in the glorious robe of a Saviour's righteousness, and make them meet for a never-fading inheritance by the grace of the Holy Spirit, then have sorrowing friends the strongest reason to hear and obey the injunction, "Weep not for me."

At Islington, on the 9th of September last, Major Mealy, of the Bombay service, son of Thomas Mealy, Esq. formerly of this City.
In Upper Cecil-street, Mr. John Kennelly.
At the seat of his son-in-law, Henry Longfield, Esq. Waterloo, County Cork, John Powell, Esq.
In Dublin, Mrs. Townsend, wife of John Sealy Townsend, Esq. Master in Chancery.
At Killinure, County Cavan, George F. Bell, Esq.
In Dublin, Samuel Fitzpatrick, Esq. solicitor.
Mr Jeremiah O'Leary, of Cook-street, Cork, father of General O'Leary, of the Colombian service, and nephew to the late Rev Arthur O'Leary.
At Portaferry, Captain Paul M'Cartan.
In Waterford, William Bell, Esq. and Mrs O'Brien.
In Hardwick-street, Cork, Mrs. Anne White.
In Bagwell-street, Clonmel, Mr. William M'Clelland.
Thomas Mills, Esq. M. D. for nearly thirty years an eminent Physician of the City Dublin.
At Hebron, in the Liberties of Kilkenny, Ross, third daughter of George Cronyn, Esq.
Nicholas Boylan, of Hilltown, County Meath, Esq.
At Greenwich, Lieutenant W. Taylor, Royal Marines.
At the Vicarage, Henbury, the Rev W. Trevelyan.
At Farnham, Surrey, Lady Charles Kerr.
At Aldgate, Jane, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Rice Jones, Royal Engineers.
At Canterbury, in 81st year, Mary Julian, widow of the late Major-General F. G. Mulcaster, of the Royal Engineers.
Clementina, wife of Vice Admiral Sir Pulteney Malcolm.
At his Rectory of Kegworth, aged 86, the Rev. Thos. Parkinson, Archdeacon of Leicester, and Chancellor of the Diocese of Chester.
At Sandwich, the Rev W. Wedsworth, Chaplain to Lord Palmerston.

LONDON CORN-EXCHANGE, NOV. 19.
The arrivals this week are small of all kinds of Grain, and of Flour there is also a trifling quantity. There is very little good Wheat at market, and the millers appear disposed to purchase, the trade may therefore be reported the same as on Monday. Barley is again rather dear. Beans and Pease maintain their last quotations. In the Flour market a slow sale at Monday's terms. In the Flour market a slow sale at Monday's terms. In the Flour market a slow sale at Monday's terms.

IMPORT AND SALE OF TEA AND COFFEE.
NO. 33, PATRICK-STREET.
FRANCIS C. SIKES AND COMPANY
INTEND TO COMMENCE BUSINESS, BY WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, IN THE ABOVE HOUSE, ON MONDAY THE 29th INSTANT. 29
WHEN they will offer a very considerable Stock of TEA and COFFEE, laid in at low Rates, comprehending a great diversity of qualities and prices, and will be enabled to supply the consumer of these articles on terms that, they trust, will be found highly to the advantage of the buyer—it is thus only that they hope to acquire and retain the favour of their Customers. They decline resorting to the arts of attracting public notice, sometimes practised on behalf of a new concern, and shall avoid making promises never intended to be fulfilled. They merely solicit the favour of a fair trial, and rely with confidence on the result.
In order to enable them to Sell at the REDUCED PRICES they must decline doing business on Credit, and conduct their transactions both by Wholesale and Retail for Cash. The advantage of this system, to those who pay for what they buy, is obvious.
Purchasers of a Chest of Tea, or upwards, will be supplied at a small advance on the East India Company's Sale Price. Raw and Roasted COFFEES, by Wholesale, at proportionably low rates.
CHOCOLATE and COCOA, by the Manufacturer's Price.
Limerick, 24th of 11th Month, November 1830.
