The spirit of incendiarism is slowly aba-, and we have no doubt that Government will take prompt and effectual means, by reducing the expenire, &c. as to prevent the probability of its recurrence. On Tuesday last a mob of 200 persons armed with s, spades, and bludgeons, were dispersed by a detachnt of military near Wickham, and three of the ringders made prisoners. When remonstrated with, they uplained of the lowness of wages, and said it was imssible to subsist on the present rate. - On Monday a ge mob armed with clubs forcibly entered the workuse at Selborne, near Petersfield, turned out the supertendant and his family, and in the short space of fifteen inutes totally unroofed the building, broke the doors nd windows to pieces, and burned all the furniture. The rioters then visited the Vicar's house, and compelled iim to sign a paper reducing his tythes. The same mob forced the Vicar of Headley to sign a similar paper. After destroying a threshing-machine at Kingley, they dispersed .- Saturday night three shots were fired through the windows into the workhouse at Headley; the bedclothes were perforated by the slugs, but the family escaped. Twelve of the rioters are since committed to

On Friday, a riotous assemblage of at least 500 per-Gosport gaol. sons attacked the house of John Benett, Esq. MP. near Salisbury. On this gentleman going out to remonstrate with them he was pelted with flint stones and brickbats, and but for the fortunate approach of the Hindon troop of cavalry, under Captain Wyndham, they would certainly have murdered him. The cavalry fired blank-cartridge, but the mob laughed in derision, and taunted them to do their duty. The cavalry now charged, and the mob rushed into the plantations around the house, whence they kept up an incessant discharge of missiles. The cavalry at last fired ball-cartridge, and the rioters retreated, the horsemen following them for some distance.-Several prisoners were taken, one man was shot dead, and at least twenty wounded, some dangerously from
