

ment of the office of Attorney-General to yesterday, and Mr. Serjeant Wick- the appointment of Mr. O'Loughlin as- antcy vacant by the promotion of Mr. e.

Mr. McCausland, jun. have received the Secretary's to the Lord Chancellor. Bennett is appointed Secretary to Barrington.

Esq. is appointed Assistant Barrister-at-Law, in room of Edward O'Farrell Esq.

character as a lawyer, a gentleman, is aptly depicted in fourth page of a orary, which it is fair to conjecture as of appreciating Mr. Doherty's qua- lity of Recorder of that City, an office years. Mr. Doherty is yet exposed unwarranted, and vulgar slander.

ecting a Temporal Peer for Ireland Earl of Bandon, will be issued from er Office on Thursday next, the 4th Survey of the King's and Queen's Ce- nced. This Ordinance survey of In- f the valuation and local taxation of our Provinces.

of Clondegad, County Clare, there is a Protestant Glebe house, Protest- les Protestant inhabitants. It is ever the adjournment of Parliament, a, presented a petition from this place there was no Church, Clergymen, g there, altho' the petitioners had up- rates!

night, the house of a widow, name- was forcibly entered by an armed ar- ms, who beat the woman most cruelly, a principal in the violent attack on e Dunbeg, county Clare, last September, e Clare Police, on Christmas night outrages were committed near Kiltrush: a cow houghed, rick of turf burned, ad es destroyed, house attacked for fire-arms, ough the door, two Rockite notices posted, acked and guns taken.

assembly of the Magistrates of the County ourt-House on Monday, when residents preserving the public peace. There is an organised opposition by the peasantry tythes.

ght a band of Rockites examined no less uses near Boyle, County Roscommon, in -Some of the inmates were sworn by those y developed its most rigorous features.— or hard frost on Wednesday night, and the ursday—on that evening and night sleep at profusion, and the atmosphere was re- l inclement. A sharp frost set in again or, and the condition of the streets and road- st perilous. The Newbridge is nearly- public and parts of George's-street— abundance of game this season, hare and drug, wild fowl are more rare.

al Coach did not arrive in town yesterday in the afternoon, to which time the Co- s mails were delayed.

etween this City and Ennis, have ceased frost and snow have set in.

e on the Canal line of navigation between Ennis has been much impeded by the frost, and the regular passage-boats proceed with snow have been general throughout Ireland, k.

a named Bindon, died from the influenza in Cork on Tuesday.

ay last, Captain Reed, commanding the Quebec to Galway, which put into Batinore, a sinking state, on Monday, put a trial to by shooting himself through the head. His are in London.

er named Downes, has been taken at Oxford lopping 44 of the fleecy tribe, for an English

John Meam, of a daughter.

In Rutland-square, the Lady of George Pilkington, Esq. of a son.

At Kinsale, the Lady of the Rev. Travers Joffes, of a son.

At Annahilt Parsonage, near Newry, the Lady of the Rev. W. B. Forde, of a son.

The Lady of Captain Majendie, of the 92d Highlanders, of a daughter.

At Southsea, the Lady of Lient. and Adjutant Davis, Royal Marines, of a son.

In London, the Lady of Edmund O'Kelly, Esq. of a son.

Lady Georgiana Mitford, of twins, still-born.

At West Drayton, the seat of Hubert de Burgh, Esq. the Lady of Captain Locke, of a daughter.

In Torrington-square, London, Mrs. Alatic Watts, of a daughter.

At Southwell, Notts, the Lady of the Rev. T. S. Bassett, of a daughter.

DEATHS.

In Glentworth-street, on Thursday, much lamented by his family and friends, William Dodd, Esq.

At Churchtown Cottage, on the 27th ult. Mrs. D'Arcy, aged seventy-six years.

In Dominick-street, Galway, John Bourke, of Annagh, in that County, Esq.

In Cork, Margaret, relict of the Rev. Paul Limerick.

Henry John Cotter, Esq. late Lieutenant in the 23d Fusiliers, and fifth son of the late Sir Laurence Cotter.

In Bridge-street Chapel-house, Dublin, the Rev. James Dempsey.

In Galway, Catherine, relict of Francis Molony, Esq. of Ballinacinch, County Clare, and late of Dublin.

At Tramore, the widow of Doctor Scully.

The wife of Lieutenant Downman, commanding Royal Marines, at Haulbowline Island, county Cork.

At Kinsale, Mr. Hopps, late 82d Regiment.

At Sallowbrook, near Clara, John Telford, Esq.

At Drumcarbin, County Cavan, Robert Bell Booth, Esq.

In Londonderry, Mrs. Dwyer, relict of the late Patrick Dwyer, Esq. notary public.

At Ranelagh, Mrs Manly, late of Ballinrobe, daughter of Thomas Greer, of Rhonehill, County Tyrone, Esq.

In Church-street, Ennis, Mrs. O'Neill, widow of the late Mr. J. O'Neill, and mother of Colonel Thomas O'Neill.

In Kiltrush, the wife of Mr. D. Hapley.

At Clonahard, County Longford, Harriet, daughter of the late William Newcomen, Esq.

At Bath, Major Fielding, 23d Fusiliers.

At Drumard, near Enniskillen, James Dane, Esq.

At Donagh-house, Lisnaskea, William Noble, Esq.

Doctor Coventry, Professor of Agriculture in the College of Edinburgh.

At Over Whitacre, Warwick, the Rev. Robert Sadler. ; Sarah, wife of Mr. James Burnside, of Capel-street, Dublin.

At Yealinton, Devon, the widow of Vice-Admiral Watson.

In consequence of a fall from his chaise, at Richmond, Surgeon Andrews, formerly of the 19th Regiment.

In Devonshire-Place, London, the Rev. O. Carr.

In Trinidad, Mr. Austin Murphy, of Dublin.

In Surrey-street, London, George Clarke, Esq.

Suddenly, on passage from Bombay, Lieutenant Cecil Hammond, of His Majesty's 6th Regiment.

At Assam, Captain John Bryan Newville, 42d Bengal Native Infantry.

In the island of St. Vincent, Robert Browne, Esq. a native of Springtown, County Tyrone.

In London, William Harman, Esq. many years Commissioner of Taxes.

At Paris, Mr. Joseph Bonaldson, from disease brought on by over-exertions and fatigue in the late revolution. He was a native of Glasgow, and well-known as the author of the "Eventful Life of a Soldier," and "Scenes and Sketches of a Soldier's Life in Ireland."

At Islington, Elizabeth, relict of the late W. Elanlie, Esq. aged 89.

NOTICE.

To the Nobility and Gentry.

TOTALLY UNRESERVED SALE of Rich French Silks, Magnificent Shawls, real Chantilly Veils, Printed Muslins, Dresses, French Morinos, fine Irish Linens, Sheetings, Blankets, &c. &c. Prime West of England Cloths and Cassimers, in Black, Blue, Green, and Medley Colours, positively the best application of H. by RICHARD DEANE KA

 Dublin

TO E
 W. THOROWGOOD
 W. by special appointing the Trade the stee Foundry, the w Foundry, for many ye In, among which are of Greeks, Hebrews, extensive Specimen of Foundry now held by 4/4

PRO
 FIRE INSU
 35, OLD
 9, CAV
 RUTLAND-Capital-TWO-THIRDS of
 be SEPTENNIAL of not less than
 The Rates of Insura
 NOTICE
 The Insurances fallin unks renewed within

LIMERICK
 ENNIS—JO
 GORT—JAM
 GALWAY—

Classical an TA
 Mr. WO

T an Examination above School, the shed themselves in t Scaulan, Imus; W
 ulian Imus. (Hor. O (Virg. Aeneids);
 Purcell Imus. R. S
 (lect. Valp.), W. El bid Inctan), T. Ser Jelas), R. Scaulan a brill 2d (2nd class).
 Kelly and R. Unth chmatic), Kelly

Mr. W.'s attention h pe on the minds of especially necessary to no knowledge of the la without which it is teach, can be either pur of this object, volunt not to retard gress towards improvem in the particulars, th tion, and witnessed the men examiners, can be presenting his grateful only for attendance, ray with which he con
 (W. W. is recalled elapsed see Mr. W. l ous duty "teaching that his exertions have probation of a Gentle cannot be considered to treat patrons which i and well deserving, an care and stud

Studiosume