cere regret we have to announce the death of this eminent and highly gifted Minister of the Gospel. By his demise (which took place at his house in Buttevant on Wednesday morning last,) the Church has lost a fearless and able Controversialist, a faithful and Evangelical preacher, and a consistent example of the Scriptural Doctrines which he preached. The friends of the religious societies of our City and County will long and gratefully remember his powerful and almost unequalled advocacy on the platform : and truly it may be said that his devotedness to the cause of his Heavenly Master brought him to an early grave, as even when labouring under severe indisposition he could not be restrained from actively engaging in the public duties of his sacred calling-and thus has died, at the age of 33 years, one of the brightest ornaments of the diocese of Cloyne, deeply lamented by the Clergy, his flock, his family and friends, who have, however, the solid consolation of knowing that, in the trying hours of death, and on the confines of the eternal world, he evinced the strong influence of grace, in the supporting power of faith, disarming "death of its sting, and the grave of its victory," and enabling him, under much bodily suffering, to bear testimony to an unshaken confidence in HIM "in whom he had believed." May a merciful Providence raise up some other instrument to supply the loss which we now in sincerity deplore. At the earnest request of his parishioners his mortal remains are to be interred in the burial ground of that Church which so often sounded with his faithful proclamation of the blessed and
