T A MEETING held at ENNIS, on the 29rn day A of January, 1831.

Augustine Butler, Esq. Fligh Sheriff, in the chair. Resolved-That the late atrocious murder of WILLIAM BLOOD, Esq. of Applevale, perpetrated under circumstances of during and barbarity unparrallelled in our recollection, calls for the strongest expression of abhorrence from every one interested in the preservation of the Peace of the

That outriges of a most serious nature having been renewed with increased violence, since the removal of the troops from the cantonments through the county. We entreat that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, may be pleased to station a military force in those districts thereof, where the disturbances have taken place and that such further measures may be adopted by his Majesty's Government, as may be most conducive to the restoration of tranquillity therein

That for the purpose of bringing the parties to justice, who have committed the marder of Mr. Blood, we agree to pay the sums annexed to our respective names, to whoever shall within Twelve Calendar Months, give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders; and we shall endeavour to obtain the Royal Pardon for any accomplice who shall give such evidence as may lead to the detection and punishment of his associates.
