that the differences between them should be amicably adjusted. The prisoner expressed his willingness to make every concession in his power, but Mr. Cooke having declined, and the prisoner having given bail, the parties left the Court.

Alderman Watson, Treasurer to the House of Industry and Infirmary for confirmed Lunatics and Idiots, thankfully acknowledges the receipt of £6 sterling, from the Misses Ghents, daughters of the late General Ghent, and grand daughter of the late Temple French, Esq. formerly of this City, thro' the hands of David Roche, of Carass, Esq.

The Right Worshipful John Crips, Esq. Mayor, sent to the House of Industry twenty prints of Butter, seized by the Market Jury.

By advice of the Directors and Committee to the Magdalen Asylum, the annual Charity Sermon for its support will be preached on the Sunday within the next Assizes week.
