

line force is now augmented from men, four new companies being formed atatham, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and divisions. Each company is intended to 79 privates.

Field-officers in the Royal Artillery are but 22 Field-officers in the a much stronger force than the ship Stag is commissioned for the command of Commodore Sir Thomas in the Irish station.

Military promotions in the London Army evening.

Business have been voted in the House of Commons Supply:—Royal Military Asylum, £135,000; Unattached Officers, £27,174; Half-Pay and Pensions to Officers in Officers' Widows, £91,300; Retired Pensions to Officers' Widows, £27,174; Pensions to Officers' Widows, £27,174; Royal Bounty, and Pensions to Officers, £180,619; Chelsea and Kilmainham, £1,335,986.

Commons adjourns this day to Tuesday, and the Commons are now splendidly illuminated.

the completion had by the Crown of our the publisher of vile and seditious ballads are this week infested with puerile and vulgar and infamous productions, which effects they may have, so that a profitable one of these ballads is entitled O'Connell's, on the Clare Election, invoking the curse on all opposed to Mr. O'Connell, denouncing the cruel Reformation, and exhorting the the cursed cruel tyrants of landlords.— which adorn this inflammatory ballad, "the foe, and cursed Brunswick crew." Is it possible the Magistracy and Police can be so unamiable and seditious crusade against all ty sound in their ears, without thinking and reasonable corrective. We can assure the minds of the lower orders of society, by the mischief and moral poison is nightly spread, than it is possible to communicate whatever.

and to contradict the statement of a Dublin assiduous, of Monastereven, a Roman Catholic rescued his cattle, which were distrained— that he was fined at Ballybrittas sessions. Mr. Cassidy is a most respectable private and has no property whatever in that neighbourhood.

is desired to state, that only one family who rent the state of Adare, are about to emigrate to the north, however, upwards of 100 farmers in Limerick who have already engaged their Agnes, Thetis, Sarah, and Breeze, at the Quebec.

Examinations held in Trinity College, at the end of Hilary Term, the following students are out of the fund granted for the encouragement Learning, by his Grace the Lord Primate Bachelor Class, Sir Atkinson and Sir Junior Bachelor Class, Emerson, Sir Allen Turnley and Sir Archer, sen. (Charles.) the Limerick Auxiliary Bible Society at the shall appear in our next.

patronage this house of mercy will be made available to the relief of a great portion of our suffering population.

The Treasurer of the Mendicity Association thankfully acknowledges the receipt of Three Pounds from the St. Patrick's Friendly Society, per W. J. Geary, Esq. M.D. in aid of said Charity.

PRICE OF IRISH STOCKS, MARCH 28.

Bank Stock, -----	208
Government Debentures, 3½ per Cent. ---	84
Government Stock, 3½ per Cent. ---	86½
Government Consols, 3 per Cent. ---	77
Government Stock New 3½ per Cent. ---	86½
Royal Canal Stock, -----	39½

BIRTHS.

- At Florida Place, North Circular-road, Dublin, the Lady of Mathew Todd Byrne, Esq. of a son.
- At the Manor, Waterford, the Lady of Eaton Edwards, jun. Esq. of Rosanna Cottage, county Wexford, of a daughter.
- At Weymouth, the Lady of Captain Boldero, of a son.
- At Taplow, Viscountess Kirkwall, of a son.
- At Plymouth, the Lady of Edward Fennie, Esq. Surgeon 98th Regiment, of a daughter.
- At Cliff-Hall, Warwickshire, the Lady of T. Pole Shaw, Esq. of a daughter.

DEATHS.

- On Monday, at his father's house, Tontine Buildings, William, son of Darby O'Grady, Esq. a most interesting child.
- At Castle Willington, Margaret, daughter of James Willington, Esq.
- In Dublin, James Gublius Fennell, of Landscape, in the County Cork, Esq.
- At Pau, in the South of France, in his 20th year, William Downes, youngest son of the late Archdeacon Hill, of this city.
- Frederick, son of the late Edward Kent, of Stephen's-Green, Dublin, Esq.
- The Rev. R. Forde, Incumbent of Crumlin, and Chaplain of Richmond Barracks, Dublin.
- At Bushy-Park, Rathfarnham, Lady Shaw, wife of Sir Robert Shaw, Bart.
- At Gillstown, County Rosecommon, James Hogg, Esq.
- In Dungarvan, Anne, daughter of the late Francis Kennedy, of Ballinamultina House, County Waterford, Esq.
- At Killarney, on Wednesday, Jeffrey Eagar, Esq.
- At Grange-lodge, in the county Dublin, Jane, relict of the late James Allen, of Trim, Esq.
- At Castle-Jane, near Cork, Robert Martin, Esq.
- At Booterstown, Mrs. Pigott, relict of William Pigott, of Farnley, in the Queen's County, Esq.
- At Banagher, King's County, Arthur Daly, Esq.
- Diana Teresa, eldest daughter of Mr. David Byrne, of Blackhall-street, Dublin.
- Miss Hood, eldest daughter of the late Rev. John Hood, many years Presbyterian Clergyman of Londonderry.
- The Rev. Patrick Farrell, Roman Catholic Curate of the parish of Owning, county Waterford.
- In Princess-street, Cork, Mr. Maurice Horan, jun.
- At Treantaugh, Mary, relict of Mathew Hamilton, Esq.
- Suddenly, in Ballinasloe, Mr. Mathew O'Loughlin, brother of Mr. M'Loughlin, of the Hotel, Galway.
- At Chelsea, Mary, wife of Poole Hickman, Esq.
- At Pisa, the Hon. Captain John Kennedy Erskine, half-pay 16th Lancers, youngest son of the Earl and Countess of Cassilis, and son-in-law and Equerry to his Majesty.
- John Maitland, of Loughton-hall, Essex, Esq.
- Benjamin Blake, of Hampton, Esq.
- At Bath, Lieut. Colonel Drummond, Bombay Engineers.
- In London, Sarah, wife of S. R. Gunnell, Esq. of the House of Commons.
- T. James, of Hoveyford-place, Kennington, Esq.
- At Ratterdau, Captain Angus Macpherson, late of the 91st Regiment.

may be consulted every day, personally or by letter, at 4, Lower Merion-street in the Morning until Two; and on Monday, Friday, from Six in the Evening until Nine. Surgeon GOSS will leave Dublin on the (New and Improved Edition) GOSS'S WORKS—(TWENTIETH EDITION) 1.—THE AEGIS OF LIFE. "Hominem pagina nostra sapienter docet." "Our page relates to man."—M.A. A Non-Medical Commentary on the Influence of Human Frailty, in which the natural and artificial causes of Self-abuse, Intemperance, &c. are fully developed; with Practical Remedies for the Preservation of a Healthy and Vegetable Life; in Part II. is a Series of Lectures on the subjects, explaining the manner.

By GOSS and Co. Consulting Surgeons. "Natura beatissimum esse dedit, si quis cognoverit utitur." "Since Heaven to all the fund of bliss supplies." "Its frugal application marks the wise." 2. THE SYPHILIST, a Familiar Treatise on the Venereal Disease, with a variety of remarks occurring in a most extensive practice, each Section explained by cases. 3. HYGEIANA, a Non-Medical Analytical Treatise on the Venereal Disease, and its effects on the peculiar debilities attending their cure, and the formation of the subject of Syphilis dwelt upon. Interesting and important cases.

"Quo fugit Venus? Heu! quove colora? Hor. "Whither flies Love? Ah! where the colora? The above may be had of Sherwood, London; Porter, Grafton-street, Dublin; Bolster, Cork; Grier, Newry; Aicken, C. O'Brien, Limerick; Hampton, Derry; Linasloe; Farrel, Waterford; and of all Booksellers, 5s. each.

"These books can be safely recommended as containing moral truths they contain as for the extensive result of the authors' experience."—London Weekly Journal.

"The delicacy with which the various subjects are treated, will justify a perusal even by the unlearned."—London Evening Journal.

"We agree with the Editor of the London Weekly Journal, and recommend Mr. Goss's publications for perusal."—Edinburgh Weekly Paper.

"The precepts contained in this work are most useful."—Edinburgh Paper.

"This publication, while it neither spurns the youthful prodigal, offers to the important advantages."—Glasgow Paper.

Messrs. GOSS and Co. are to be consulted at their house; and Patients in Dublin and parts of Ireland can be treated successfully, and enclosing a remittance for the Medicine, which can be forwarded to any part of the Kingdom. No difficulty can occur, as the medicine is packed and carefully protected from observation. Surgeon GOSS will leave Dublin on the 1st of April; and respectfully intimates that he will not be able to pay another visit to Ireland for some time, and he therefore requests the earliest possible opportunity of an interview.

3 W J H J