

er of the 50th Regiment was of Ball Cartridge, in the at Six-mile Bridge.
firing at Edmund Lenigan, Colonel, on Saturday. He the pawn office of Mr. John reet, was forcibly entered by red the concern of a number atches, besides some articles

Meeting of Kilkenny meet on Thurs- increase of the Constabulary an auxiliary meeting of the Society, was held in the new reet. The Rev. Mr. Gillman the Society's operations, and ain Cox, was addressed by the

ev. Mr. Hawtrey, Rev. Mr.
r. Waugh.

Galway, that the house of Mr.
has been demolished and his cattle g two men for a former attack on his r sentence of transportation.

that no persons of a respectable class ar Meelick, as stated in our last—it the neighbouring parish, Crutloe; ded being of the lowest descripsubject, it is but common justice to e is due to the Rev. Mr. Sheehy, the his strenuous endeavours to preserve of the country. His exhortations to he laws and to refrain from all acts have been most earnest and incessantly himself to mere remonstrance taken a most active part in resisting solately compelling numbers of the ctory, to turn back the ground which ed up. Such conduct, at a crisis so e present, we consider as entitled to as it must have been attended with no l risk, and will, we doubt not, attract riment which seems peculiarly anx-period, to mark its approbation of the g all ranks and conditions of the contradict a paragraph in a letter which has appeared in the Dublin tating that Mr. Ryan, a respectable as been taken up as being intimately es in that neighbourhood.

whatever in the statement of the Dublin ant of Police was murdered near uded Alderman Watson, Treasurer of and Hospital for Idiots, 12s. being a fine ant for improper conduct.

stitution of this City, now presents some sting features. Almost every inmate old and upwards is occupied on some aking stones for the Street Commise-stone for gravel walks, pulverising re, besides spinning, knitting, plaiting ee. This great amelioration in the in-he Asylum has been caused by the a few benevolent citizens, and it is now co-operate for the maintenance of s made to work on such useful and ads to the community. The funds are s for admission many.

County Jail, by Alfred and Thomas was Sheehan, malicious trespass, one and hard labour, or pay £5; by the eph Lane, burghery and attempt at rs; by Thomas P. Vokes, Esq. James ult on Thomas Dwyer.

his Gaol, by Thomas P. Vokes, Esq.—
ohn Huston, and Nicholas Brown, ap-ht, turning up ground, and administer-

County Jail, by Alfred and Thomas
was Sheehan, malicious trespass, one
and hard labour, or pay £5; by the
eph Lane, burghery and attempt at
rs; by Thomas P. Vokes, Esq. James ult on Thomas Dwyer.

his Gaol, by Thomas P. Vokes, Esq.—
ohn Huston, and Nicholas Brown, ap-ht, turning up ground, and administer-

County Jail, by Alfred and Thomas
was Sheehan, malicious trespass, one
and hard labour, or pay £5; by the
eph Lane, burghery and attempt at
rs; by Thomas P. Vokes, Esq. James
ult on Thomas Dwyer.

At Egham Park, the Lady of Leithenham, daughter of a daughter.

The Lady of the Hon. Captain Maude, C. B. R. N. of a daughter.

At Woodside, the Lady of Wm. Stuart, Esq. Engineer and Superintendent of the Break-water, Plymouth, of a daughter.

DEATHS.

At West Park, in Hampshire, the seat of Eyre Coote, Esq. M. P. Adeline, the beloved child of John Croker, Esq. of Ballyneguard, High Sheriff of this County.

Yesterday, at the Artillery Barracks in this City, Lieutenant Nicholson, Quartermaster 17th Regiment of Lancers, who, during a lengthened period of service in that corps, obtained by his friendly and social disposition and gentlemanlike manners, the universal esteem of his brother Officers. He served with the 17th Lancers in South America and in the East Indies. His remains will be interred with military honours.

At Newcastle, on Saturday last, John George, son of Francis Percy, Esq.

In Dublin, Letitia, wife of George Studdert, Esq. and daughter of the late Rev. Dean Blacker, of Carrick, in the County Antrim.

James Philip Courtayne, Esq. of Ballycasheen, Co. Kerry.

In Dingle, Catherine, relict of Michael Forhan, Esq.

At Broomfield, County Wicklow, William Keegan, Esq.

At Kilduff, King's County, Roger North, Esq.

In Dublin, Jane, wife of Mr. Thomas Leonard, printer.

In Youghal, the Rev. George Sackville Cotter, Rector of Ichtermorough, County Cork, and brother of the late Sir James Laurence Cotter, Bart.

Surgeon William Watkins, of Saintfield, near Belfast.

At Carrickfergus, Joshua Rice, Esq.

Julia, daughter of the late Hugh Carson, of Belfast, Esq.

At Milltown-Lodge, County Dublin, Arthur Stanley, Esq.

At Lismore, the Rev. Marcus Stokes.

At Donoughmore Glebe, Mrs. Mee, relict of the Rev. Mr.

Mee, much regretted.

At Coadbrook, County Tipperary, on Saturday, very much lamented, Henry Langley, Esq.

At Florida place, Dublin, the infant son of M. T. Byrne, Esq.

In Upper Pembroke-street, Dublin, Jane Isabell, youngest daughter of Benjamin Thomas, Esq.

In Clones, the Rev. James Stewart, Wesleyan Minister.

In Great Ship-street, Dublin, Richard Wrightson, Esq.

First Clerk in the Accountant-Department of the Irish branch of the Ordnance.

In Cook-street, Cork, Miss Catherine Tracy.

Susannah, widow of the late Joshua Walker, Esq. of Clifton-house, near Rotherham, and of Blyth-hall, North.

In Curzon-street, London, Maria Anne, wife of J. H.

Penruddocke, Esq. M. P. for Wilton.

At Edinburgh, Miss Margaret Keith Abercromby, daughter of the late General Abercromby, of Glassaugh, Bank.

Mrs. Strahan, relict of the late Rev. Dr. Strahan, Preben-dary of Rochester and Vicar of Islington.

At Kingstown, near Dublin, Elizabeth Frances, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Hustler, of the Royal Engineers, and only daughter of Orbell Ray Oakes, Esq. of Nowton, and Bury

St. Edmund's, Suffolk.

At Cople-house, Bedfordshire, the Right Hon. Lady

Charlotte Ludlow, fourth daughter of the late Peter Earl Ludlow, and sister to the present Earl.

At West Grinstead Park, Walter Burrell, Esq. M. P.

In Deubigh, Thomas Salisbury, Esq.

In China, Lieut. Alexander Pemberton, of the Bombay Horse Artillery, fifth son of the late Doctor Pemberton.

At Greenwich Hospital, Donald M'Leod, Esq. C. B. Capt.

in the Royal Navy.

Thursday, at Kilkenny, Mrs. Devereux, the Lady of Harvey Devereux, Esq.

At Ennismagg Glebe, County Kilkenny, the Rev. George

Watters. The death of this estimable gentleman occurred suddenly.

At Elagh, Mr. Samuel Thompson.

Tongrahy Dispensary.

A MEETING of the Subscribers to the above institution will take place at Tongrahy, on the 20th instant, to elect a Physician for the current year. No Gentleman will be elected who has not obtained a Degree in Medicine, together with a Diploma for Midwifery.

respectable persons are invited to step in and try to above Agents—of whom, also, Prospectuses may The Pens and Prospectuses may also be obtained overs throughout the Empire.

"We are inclined to think, from the decided which the Perryian Pen affords the man of hu-literature, in common with the finest writer, that be little doubt that it will be shortly used to the all other pens."—Morning Chronicle.

"We can with confidence recommend our re-Perry's Patent Pens, having tried them ourseltime; and we can assure our friends that a single acquaint them with what may be termed the good pen."—Courier.

"The Perryian Pens are every day gaining favour, as the sentiments of the London and Pro-sufficiently evince."—Bristol Journal.

"The comparative merits of the Perryian Pen been most fully and satisfactorily ascertained become the subject of remark in every quarter have been introduced. The Globe paper, some-had an article highly commendatory of them copied into our columns of the 7th ult."—P Devonport Journal

EQUITY—EXCHEQUER.

Henry O'Sullivan,
Plaintiff,
James O'Sullivan and others, Defendants

PURSUANT made in this ing date the February instan Monday, the day of March next, at the hour of One o' afternoon, at my Chambers, on the Inns-Qu set up and let to the highest and fairest bidde Years pending this Cause, from the Twenty-March next, All That and Those the Fi Houses, Nos. 11, 13, 14, and 15, and the Dw late in the possession of Mr. Hickman—all sit Clare-street, in the City of Limerick; a St Yards in the rear of said street; the Dwelling den and Ground near the lime-kiln, in said st dock and Large Field in said street, and adjoin and the Potatoe Garden at the head of said st the Chapel—all in the possession of the Defe O'Sullivan, in said order mentioned.

Dated this 22d day of February, 1831.

A. R. BLA

The above letting is adjourned to Monday, April next, at the hour and place above men

Dated this 21st day of March, 1831.

A. R. BLA

The above letting is further adjourned to 30th day of April instant, at the hour and mentioned.—Dated this 4th day of April, 1831.

A. R. BLA

Particulars may be known by application Carroll, Esq. Attorney for the Plaintiff, 3 street, Dublin; Richard Scott, Esq. Attorn feudant; Jeremiah O'Sullivan, Esq. 19, S Dublin; or James Lysaght, the Receiver, No street, Quercus

Established Medical

Sole Wholesale and Retail Depot for BUTLERS' MEDICAL-H.
54, LOWER SACKVILLE-STREET, Dixon's Antibilious Pills

AS a mild and effectual remedy in all which have their origin in a morbid ac-and Biliary organs, namely, Indigestion, La-Head Ache, Flatulence, Heartburn, Constipaffections erroneously called nervous, these not contain any Mercurial preparation what-with more general approval than any oth-They are acknowledged to be a most invaluable tropical climates. In Boxes, 2s. 9d. and 4s.

Ching's Worm Lozeng

Have so long retained their celebrity as a that it is needless to say more of them, than