

the resolution which was next measure they ought to adopt Committee which had acted on and which gave such general satis-John Mark, and carried. would be well now to select a e, and he begged to propose Mr. uation—Carried.
 he meeting had long admired the Rice; he thought it improper that bear the expenditure of a second after the last, and therefore in the ed that a subscription list be open-of Mr. Rice, should an opposition eely concurred in the sentiments of ought it a great hardship if after the Rice on his late election, he should encounter from his private resources a new contest. It was the duty of to return him again as their represen-Mr. Howley said he was, himself, e and sacrifice of his property for that en's purpose put down his name on £100 or £200 if necessary, to carry (hear.) Mr. Rice was sent back to ion of Reform, which he had voted just in the City to expose him to any d a list of names himself £100—Messrs. Roche £50, Gen. Burke sell £50, Mr. D. Roche £50, and hat on any other occasion but the at from the motion for bearing the candidate; but at the present moment man to come forward with his money to support Mr. Rice, but to support because the King supported his peopl in return to support their Sovereign. rmed Parliament, this country can-sent degraded situation (Hear)— best of Reformers and the best of dominions ever saw—(cheers)—and th Houses of Parliament were distraction, he came forward manfully, took e, and proclaimed himself the friend ple—(cheers)—Upon the subject of a say, let the rich man give his money, a give his vote—(Hear, hear.)—All from the poor man is that he will important crisis, on which hangs the of the constituency, for if he does, he deceiver to his country, and a traitor at Reform.—(hear.) that the resolution in favour of Mr.
 at the Commercial Buildings for more ought that every man was bound to her with a large or small subscription.
 and he was confident the professional contribute their services gratis at the opinion that all unnecessary expence this was not a time to look to the poor ck for their aid,—they are unable to do thy citizens contribute double (cheers).
 merick, who have long proved them-dy of men, should he told that under iend, and the friend of Ireland, Mr.
),—he had advised them to return Mr. e.—(Voices called out "Repeal of the s Act") Mr. Cuthbert resumed—I sentiments openly, fearlessly, and indepen-conviction of my bosom I have ever ex-meeting public favour or not. I feel my hand on my breast and declare that
 ly. (Hear.) Connell said he differed from Mr. Cutho restrict the poor man, if inclined to give ng election. Let the subscription list be his part, he must say that Ireland never representation, until her elections shall be xpense as on the late occasion in Clare.
 e any agitation of the Repeal of the Gibbons, of Tyrrelspass, County Westmeath.

 Mr. John Taylor, Methodist Preacher, of Derry, to Margaret, daughter of the late Thomas Ellis, of Bundoran, Esq.
 At Coventry, John Netterville Barron, Esq. of the 59th Regiment, eldest son of William Barron, Esq. of Ballymacow, County Waterford, to Emma, second daughter of the late Charles Watkins, Esq. banker.
 In France, Edward Turner, Esq. eldest son of the Hon.
 and Rev. Edward John Turner, of Arundel, and late Fellow of St. John's College, Oxford, to Miss Elizabeth Maunsell Crease, daughter of the late W. Crease, Esq. of Dublin.
 At the residence of the British Ambassador at Berne, W. W. Cerjat, Esq. to Maria, third daughter of Peter Holmes, Esq. of Peterfield, county Tipperary.

DEATHS

At Adare, on Saturday, at an advanced age, Mrs. Rose, relict of the late Rev. Wm. Rose.
 Yesterday evening, at the house of his son-in-law, Mr.
 Henry Blackwell, on Sir Harry's Mall, Richard Hare, of Ruska, in this County, Esq. at the advanced age of 84 years—who thro' life enjoyed the friendship of his numerous acquaintance.
 In Parsonstown, sincerely regretted by his numerous friends and relations, John Kilson Legge, Esq. aged twenty years, only son of the late John Legge, Esq.
 Yesterday, in Rutland-street, of rapid decline, aged six years, George, second son of George Jackson, Esq.
 In Newry, Robert Molloy Minnett, Esq. of the County Tipperary, senior Captain of the Monaghan Militia.
 In Wexford, Captain Kelly, late of the 54th Regiment.
 James Lecky, sen. of Coalisland, Esq.
 Jonathan Williamson, Esq. of Dublin, merchant.
 At his house in James's-street, Dublin, Richard Wilson, Esq. in the 76th year of his age.
 In Ballina, Patrick Johnston, Esq. Surgeon Royal Navy.
 At Belturbet, aged 73 years, John Finlay, Esq.
 On Wednesday last, in Tipperary, Mr. Joseph Prosser, of that town, an ingenious and well-informed man, and a highly respectable member of society—very much regretted.
 In Patrick-street, Cork, Mr. Theophilus B. Davis, eldest son of the late Mr. Jonathan Davis.
 At Dunmauway, Miss Mary O'Herlihy, daughter to the late Thomas O'Herlihy, Esq. of Muskerry.
 James, eldest son of James Mackey, of Gallagh, County Londonderry, Esq.
 Anne, relict of Joseph Andrews, of Dublin, Esq.
 At Mohill, Sarah, daughter of Mr. Duke, formerly Quartermaster in the Leitrim Militia, and wife to Mr. Joseph Dickson, of Longford.
 In London, Edward Dance, Esq. late head of the Community Department at Gibraltar.
 William Thompson, Esq. of the Stock Exchange, London.
 On Wednesday last, at his seat, Enfield, Dr. Abernethy, the celebrated surgeon.
 In Hanover-square, London, Anne Charlotte, the wife of Lieut.-General Michel, of Dulish, Dorsetshire.
 In London, Gen. Sir W. P. Gallwey, 3d Dragoon Guards.
 In Park-place, St. James's, in his 56th year Sir Thomas Mostyn, Bart. of Mostyn, in Flintshire, and M. P. for that county.
 In Whitehall-place, London, Lady Wetherell, wife of Sir C. Wetherell, M. P.

enemy to give Rice trouble, or put him I implore of you to assist me in prevensuch consequence. Let me know whether not do any thing to obviate his getting any I would now go to Limerick in person to for him, if that could be in any respect able; and let me implore of you to see at over whom I may have any influence, and there be, solicit him, in my name, to Rice such support as will put an end to of any opposition. The Reform Bill is a measure of public liberty. The King Ministry are with the People. It would in the People not to stand by the the Ministry.

Excuse me, my respected Friend, for you this trouble; but I know your Iris in the right place, and you will estimate the anxiety I feel to prevent any thing have said or done from injuring the sa-of Constitutional Liberty in the hands a man as Mr. Rice.

Believe me always to be, with very respect, my dear Friend, your ever faith-DANIEL O'CONNOR
 To the Very Rev. P. HOGAN, Limerick

HOUSE AND OFFICE
TO BE LET, (and immediate possession) DWELLING-HOUSE AND OFFICES in Buildings, George's-Street adjoining the William White, Esq.
 A Lease for any term of Years or for Lives Ever at a Pepper-Corn.
 Proposals in writing will be received for the mittee, by ALFRED D. F. G. MAHONY, L

REDUCTION OF PREMIUMS

GLOBE INSURANCE COMPANY

FIRE, LIVES, AND ANNUAL

FALL-MALL AND CORNHILL, LONDON
 And No. 3, Trincom Buildings, George's-Street

DIRECTORS:
JOSEPH DORIN, Esq. Chair.
THOMAS COLES, Esq. Deputy.
 William Abbott, Esq. Isaac L. Go Cs. Raymond Barker, Esq. Matthew Isa
 Thomas Barrow, Esq. John Lathar
 Jonathan Birch, Esq. John Neave
 Jonathan Chapman, Esq. William Ph
 Sir Charles Cockerell, Bart. Frederick J
 M. P. John Peynd
 Boyce Combe, Esq. Philip Rip
 John Fairlie, Esq. Henry
 George Fraser, Esq. Sir Walter
 George Carr Glyn, Esq. James Stue
 Edward Goldsmid, Esq. Edward V

CAPITAL ONE MILLION
 The whole paid up and invested, then the Proprietors Security against further Assured an immediate available Fund for the most extensive Losses.
 This Company have determined to or PREMIUM on the first Company's Clisrance, and all Policies of these Classes
 2s. are reduced to 1s. 6d. per cent
 3s. 2s. 6d. ...
 5s. 4s. 6d. ...
 (By order of the Board.)
JOHN CHARLES
 Secreta

GOVERNMENT STOCK AND DEBENTURES.

D. F. G. MAHONY,

3, TONTINE BUILDINGS, GEORGE'S-STREET,
 Will receive orders for the Purchase and Sale of GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

Every information will be afforded by application at his Office, where the daily Stock Lists are Limerick, April 27, 1831

To the Ladies of Limerick and its Vicinity.
PARR AND STARR

BRG to announce their having taken the elegant and commodious Ware-Rooms, 131, George's-Street, lately occupied by Mr. BLOOD, and their intention to open them in a few days, with an extensive and splendid stock (now purchasing by one of the parties in London and the Manufacturing Towns) of