CLARE ELECTORS

MEN OF CLARE,—O'Gorman arrived amongst you, to see which you patriotically gave him the Election; and from which he was the foulest perjury, by the decision of Englishmen, anxious for his overthrow he advocated the cause of Ireland, British Minister he should not transact and give you Bullets and Bayonet Food! He was an object of horror because he advocated for you a FRENCH UNION, and REFORM IN PARLIAMENT. Freeholders! Will you allow yourselves to be down by your Enemies? Be true to the Cause, and O'Gorman Mahon

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF CLARE.

FELLOW COUNTRYMEN,

YOUR good and patriotic Monarch dissolved Parliament with the intentions, you are called upon to exercise the privilege of selecting your Representatives and the more rejoiced at this event than the wished for opportunity of a second election. Your flattering decision at the Election convinces me there is no offering myself again to your consideration.

I will not here advert to the reasons I resorted to for the purpose of retaining that honored situation in which you had placed me, but shall merely thank you for the triumph of your enemies and my short duration. I confidently trust your decision now will repel the insult of that occasion.

I was made the victim of my country in a cause, in which I shall be always ready to sacrifice myself.

Believe me to be,

Your grateful and devoted

O'GORMAN
