

all influence and power over your Cor-ermined reply to this hint was, that could not tempt me THUS TO BARTER mens of Limerick, for that my ambition voted and designed to wrest rights from them in Lord Limerick, but to wrest and vest them in the Citizens. Thank are are two living witnesses in Limerick it was this my determined reply—a re- and ever will be proud of—though I in purse—that caused my removal, and Rice, without your consents, by three right to feed, but could not fatten, their od; and though you the Citizens are many instances since, laboured to es- which I have no doubt of doing, if my the Earl of Limerick, was it his love for £850 yearly, that lead him to vote the Citizens of Limerick, who placed he now enjoys on his shoulders, on of the Chamber of Commerce the ORM.

ask Thomas Rice, and I call on him, aim, what he did to subdue the un- exercised within our City—and why secure the inhabitants Citizenship, at the shameless Ordeal, they are forced they can attain this their undoubted must also ask Thomas Rice, was it not one, and secure the other, as to have y situation the Title of Right Honour- ourdour tell the Inhabitants, are they to ee, in serene contingency, till, he is Viscount—an Earl.

as I love candour, and as I wish to e—if Thomas Rice intends FAITH- uivoceation or mental reservation, to O'Connell's wishes, let him at once l-known Placehunters and Taxeaters, th a most delicate appetite, swallowed e public purse, and let him enlist true illers. Then, let him pledge himself to support

Union, or that Ireland, Scotland, and unison equal political weight with all support their own, and only their

Sub-letting Act, so as to preserve the rents, and the Peasantry from starva- family five acres at fifty shillings per his own Act the 4th Geo. the 4th, so monopoly, and to secure the Inhabitants

Embankments Bill, which has already jobbing ire; nay, I will, for the advantage of and, instanter propose or second him. e are the sentiments of a Fellow-Citi- ambition, unaffected by the expecta- ad of calumny, or the desire of power, on the bottom of his heart recommends le adjustment with the reigning power, ve defeat and destroy the views of all ers, whose only market is our disunion, s, we seal the peace, the welfare, and of our city for ever.

Faithfully,
JOHN TUTHILL.

to Mary, daughter of Tobias Rossiter, of Newbawn, County Wexford, Esq.

In Londonderry, George Hill Boggs, Esq. to Catherine, daughter of the late Alderman Roger Murray, of that city.

At Glendernot Church, George Hill, Esq. nephew of the Right Hon. Sir George F. Hill, Bart. to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of John Rea, of St. Columb's, Co. Derry, Esq.

In London, Hugh Hill, Esq. of the Middle Temple, son of James Hill, Esq. of Graig, County Cork, to Anna, daughter of Richard Holden Webb, of Carendish-square, Esq.

In Plymouth, Lieut. Tracey, Royal Navy, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of W. Dowand, of Cork, Esq.

In Oughterard Church, by the Rev. John Wilson, the Rev. Brabazon Ellis, second son to the Rev. A. Ellis, of Ardee, to Mary, eldest daughter of John Nimmo, Esq. of Roundtown, Cunnemara.

Lieutenant Vansittart, 2d Life Guards, to the daughter of General Crosbie.

At Betley, in Staffordshire, by the Rev. Henry Torton, George Augusta M'Dermott, Esq. half-pay of the Rifle Brigade, (second son of Colonel M'Dermott, late Major of the Military College,) to Elizabeth, second daughter of Charles Short, Esq. and grand daughter of the late Major Wright, of Dartmouth, Devon.

Same day Lieutenant James M'Dermott, of the 14th Regiment of Foot, (eldest son of Colonel M'Dermott,) to Ann Thacker, third daughter of Charles Short, Esq. and grand daughter to the late Major Wright, of Dartmouth, Devon.

DEATHS.

At Rosbereon, County Kilkenny, Miss Mary Molloy.

Mr. James Canny, late Excise Officer, at Monaghan.

Aged 70 years, the Rev. John Shallow, for nearly fifty years Parish Priest of Adamstown, County Wexford.

The Rev. Mr. Hewetson, Roman Catholic Curate of Done- maggin, County Waterford.

In Wexford, Mr. W. Foley, architect.

At Planilaga House, County Clare, John N. Green, Esq.

At Tullow, Miss Mary Ahern.

At Kinsale, Thomas, son of James Comerford, Esq.

In Peter-street, Cork, Mr. Patrick Hyues, Architect.

At Brucee, Miss Mary Featherstone.

At his residence, Inchigaggin, Mr. William Haynes.

At Monkstown, the son of Capt. Westropp, R. N.

In Mecklenburgh-street, Dublin, John Atkinson, Esq.

On Tuesday last, after a lingering illness, aged 58 years, Montague Talbot, Esq. for 23 years manager and proprietor of the Belfast Theatre; and also for many years manager of the Limerick, Newry, and Derry Theatres.

At Bristol, William Shearman, Esq. of Greevade, County Kilkenny, and of the Manor Road, Waterford.

At Naas, James Donnell, Esq. Engineer to the Commis- sioners of Irish Fisheries.

In Waterford, Miss S. Clifford, second daughter of the late Miller Clifford, of Wexford, Esq.

John Hickey, Esq. many years Postmaster of Wexford.

The Rev. John Shalloe, of Ballyshannon, Co. Wexford.

At Marks Hall, Essex, William Philip Honeywood, Esq. Provincial Grand Master of the Freemasons of Essex.

In his 64th year, Major-General Sir G. A. Wood, of the Royal Artillery, C. B. K. C. H. and Governor of Carlisle.

At Pendennis Castle, Catherine, wife of Captain Hall, of the Ordnance Department.

At Shillinglee Park, Sussex, aged 77, Harriet Countess Winterton, wife of Edward Earl Winterton, whom her Ladyship survived only two days.

In London, James Watson Hall, formerly of Belvidere, in the County Down, Esq.

In Upper Montagu-street, London, G. Affleck, Esq. 20 years Colonel of the West Suffolk Militia.

At Edinburgh, Assistant-Surgeon Fraser, 17th Regiment, son of the late Quarter-Master, 74th Regiment.

In London, Rear-Admiral George Sayer.

FINE FLOWERS

A MATEURS can now see some fine

Wilson's Flower Gro

North Strand.

Has just unpacked a splendid collection and finest Geraniums, Calla and other C. Picotees, and soon expects a lot of fine D. sorts of Perennial Herbaceous Plants—most s

WILSON will sell Clovers at a reduced Mercantile House in either Cork or Limerick supply of American Cow, Timothy, and Cocksfoot and Yorkshire Hayseed.

Is preparing many Thousands of Tobacco true sort for sale will be ready about the 17th Persons wishing to have a supply would do notice in time.

Strand Cottage to be Let from 1st M Limerick, Apr

Fashionable Summer

Just received direct from LON At the British and Foreign Silk Warehouse, 110, George's-S

MRS. CARROLL begs leave to inform and the Public that she has just LONDON, where she has personally selected the best supply of FASHIONABLE GOODS offered for sale, and having procured them favorable terms, at the first Houses in the Kin fairly promise to those who purchase from her Goods, at the lowest rates.

Amongst a variety, too numerous for insert consists of several thousand yards of rich black Gro's, in every shade, now worn, and from the upwords; rich figured Palmerins and Victor articles; superb French and English Rib Shawls of the last designs and beautiful Gauze Dresses, Scarfs, Veils and Handker printed Muslins and Long Cloths in endless v Laces, Edgings, and Completes; Gentlemen Handkerchiefs and Cravats; Linens, Lawns and Silk and Cotton Hosiery—with every other art

N. B.—Three Cases of Leghorn, Tuscan, BONNETS, FLOWERS, &c.—and she is supplied with the best FAMILY MORNING C

Limeric

The Old Establish Fashionable Woollen Drapery, Me and Hat Ware-Ho

134 (late 131), GEORGE'S-STREET,

DENIS E. HIGGINS respectfully an Friends and the Public, that he Business in the above Establishment, and b early inspection of his new arrival of Goods, confident will ensure him a share of Pub his Stock having been most carefully selecte best terms, from the most eminent Manufact

D. E. H. is fully aware that from the gre the times, and the scarcity of money, it is ne considerable reductions in the Profits ge Woollens,—pledges himself to seek for no u Commission on his Sales: and those Gentl him with their commands may rest assured strict and faithful attention shall at all ti their interest.