TO THE

Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders
County of Kerry.

GENTLEMEN,

HAVING been induced, contrary to my inclinations, and on public ground, to relinquish my intention of retiring from the Representation of the County, I had myself that every true friend of that Reformation, which I had upheld by my votes, would have offered a prompt and willing support. The result of my canvass has proved, how greatly I was mistaken in myself, in resting my pretensions to such a foundation. I have found that the public service, and independent principles, yield to a weight of influence and example, which I do not feel disposed to bend. Under these circumstances, I have resolved to resume my original intention, and I now take my leave finally, and for ever.

To those Independent Freeholders who promised me their support, I offer my grateful acknowledgments. Their kind assurance of their approval of my conduct, during the period of my short military career, have left an impression in my heart which no lapse of time can efface.

I have the honor to remain,

Gentlemen,

Your most Obedient and Humble Servt.

21st Inst. WILLIAM BLAINE.
