The undersigned Magistrates, hereby certify, that on the 10th of June, instant, at Newcastle Petty Sessions, a complaint was made against Mr. James Copley, the son of Mr. Robert G. Copley, for an offence which we felt it our duty to impose a fine on Mr. Copley. It appeared to us in evidence that Mr. Copley himself on the occasion in a gentlemanlike and reasonable manner, and that the violence offered to him was unjustifiable. We give this certificate to Mr. Copley to protect his character from any imputation, and feel pleasure in adding that we know him to be a well-respectable young man.
