

...the latter a youth of 10 years, ... had expressly sent for to Clonmel, to enjoy of sea-bathing. The families of both are excess of grief, and the sad intelligence has not unaffected concern among their numerous City. Their remains arrived in town

...murder was committed a few days since in the boro', County of Galway. The eyes of the victim were taken out. He was suspected to be

...an armed party of the Terry Alts attacked of Lord Riverston, on the lands of Pallas, and compelled them to promise a surrender of arms, which those unfortunate people gave up in consequence of the tenantry were cruelly ill-treated by

...taken a few weeks since from the house of Foyue's, whose person and property were recently abused, have been delivered up to the custody of Labusheeda.

...secondary notice signed "Lady Clare" was sent during the night from the door of Colonel O'Donnell's residence at Truagh, county Clare, by the police of the town when on patrol. This Rock manifesto or-dered Colonel O'Donnell's steward, to give up his keys to provide his coffin and prepare for death. A man, named King, of Colonel O'Donnell's was seen one night in that neighbourhood by the Terry Alts, who wished him dreadfully, and inflicted three dangerous wounds in his head.

...Quilivan, of Mary-street, was committed to the gaol on Monday. Saturday night several persons were taken from the house of Michael Mulqueen, in the North Liberties, and laid him on his knees, and ordered him to swear to give money to pay the Counsel for defending Terry Alts at the Ennis Commission. Mulqueen having refused, they commenced breaking his windows, and in the interim escaped by the rere to alarm his neighbours. A writ of Habeas Corpus was set up, and Quilivan, supposed to be the perpetrator, after a brisk chase, was secured. He was brought before the Petty Sessions, and discharged on bail, no proof being adduced against him.

...Neil, of Shaugarry, county Galway, was waylaid by a party of ruffians near Killeemor, on Sunday, while going to the fair. He was struck, knocked down, and beaten with stones; they left their victim apparently dead, with a fractured skull. His servant man was waylaid at the same time, and desperately beaten. Those outlaws were committed within a few perches of a military

...of the King's Dragoon Guards, who behaved bravely in saving a comrade from drowning, near Kilkenny, and promoted to a Serjeantry.

...and blunderbuss, taken from the residence of Mr. Burke, at Marble-hill, have been restored. The jury returned only 15 for trial at Tralee at the ensuing Assizes. The conduct of the witnesses is creditable to the peace of that extensive and fertile county.

...of Ardferd will be held on the 15th July, and on the 11th, as stated in part of Saturday's paper.

...of Roxboro', Esq. county Galway, is appointed to be Captain of a Yeomanry corps which he has raised in that county.

...has received a communication from Government for a list of houses valued at £10 annual rent in the county of Wick.

...were committed to gaol, on Monday, by the Sheriff of Ennis on the Sabbath.

...of Ennis will commence on the 11th July. The Assizes commence on the 30th July.

...Captain Warren, Lieutenant Jenner, and Esquire Smith, with 118 privates from the depot of the 66th Regt., are to be sent from Clare Castle to embark at Cork to join the 1st Battalion in Canada.

...of Keonmare has liberally subscribed to the relief of the poor, about to be given by his late constituents, in the County of Kerry.

...Richard Dickson has received a letter from the Committee, Dublin, acknowledging the receipt of the amount of a collection made in his parish for the starving peasantry in the West of Ire-

...has left at this Office five shillings for the relief of the poor.

...the Rev. Mr. Enright sent to Mr. Porter, on Sunday, 10 13s. collected at St. Mary's Chapel, on Sunday

...of Ennis—"a Looker out, Chatham"—"a Looker out, Booter" shall appear in our next

At Leghorn, in the British Chapel, A. Homfray, M.D. son of Sir J. Homfray, to Eustacia, daughter of Vice-Admiral Donnelly.

DEATHS.

In Cork, on Friday last, at the house of his uncle, of consumption, caused by the bursting of a blood-vessel, and in the bloom of years, Henry, son of Mr. J. Bowles, Patrick-street—he possessed many qualities to make his death the more felt by his relatives and acquaintance.

At Mecklenburgh-street, Dublin, in the 89th year of her age, Mrs. Leigh, relict of the late Major Leigh, of Clare Castle, County Armagh.

In Carlow, Jane, wife of Francis Montgomery, Esq.

At Summerhill, Dublin, Moore Smyth, Esq.

At his residence, Kyrl's Quay, Cork, in his 52d year, Mr. Hugh Thompson, leaving a large family to lament his loss.

Dr. Meiklejohn, Professor of Church History in the University of Edinburgh, and Pastor of Abercorn.

At Clifton, P. Elliott, Esq.

At Waterford, the wife of Lieut. Alexander Alcock, Royal Artillery.

Suddenly, of apoplexy, on board the Sprightley, revenue cutter, lying at Exmouth, Lieut. Minkey, R.N.

At Tralee, Mrs. Collis, wife of Lieut. Collis, R.N.

In Cork, William Davies, Esq.

At Rathleague, in the Queen's County, Robert Turpin, Esq. Sub-Sheriff of the same County.

At Woodfort, County Tipperary, Mrs. Murphy, wife of John Murphy, Esq.

In Dublin, aged 79 years, the Rev. Peter Moran, O.S.F. of Adam and Eve Chapel.

At his house, Mountjoy-square, Dublin, the Rev. Joseph Pratt, of Cabra Castle, county Cavan. He is succeeded in his estates by his eldest son, Colonel Pratt.

At the Crescent, Marino, John Talbot, Esq.

At Bushfield, near Dublin, the Rev. Joseph Faviere.

At Woodlands, county Meath, Matthew Maruion, Esq.

Mrs. Gregory, relict of Surgeon Gregory, formerly of Kilkenny.

Mrs. Winter, wife of Matthew Winter, Esq. of Great Ship-street, Dublin.

William K... of Londonderry.

At Carker, county Meath, Martha, fourth daughter of Nicholas Greene Evans, Esq.

At St. Finn Barr's, the Lady of Samuel Abbott, Esq. of a daughter.

On Wednesday, at his house, Frankfort-street, Portsmouth, Thomas Innes, Esq. aged 61, a Post-Captain in the Royal Navy, and grandson of the late Admiral Innes, formerly of Plymouth.

At Paris, aged 71, Elizabeth, relict of the late Admiral Sir George Collier, and daughter of W. Fryer, Esq. formerly merchant of Exeter.

Of a fever, incidental to the climate, at the military station of Keitah, East Indies, Cornet Hugh Christian, aged 20, of the 7th Regiment of Native Cavalry, eldest son of Captain Christian, R.N. and grandson of the late Rear-Admiral Sir H. Christian, K.B.

At Exeter, aged 65, Major-General John Hilley Symons, of Stanborough House.

At Marlton, aged 46, Thomas Bartlett, Esq. solicitor, of Teignmouth.

At his seat, Yates-court, Kent, George, sixth Viscount Torrington, Vice-Admiral of the White, in his 64th year.

At Allahabad, India, the 20th. of January last, Captain John James Hamilton, Assistant Adjutant General of the Army, and attached to the head-quarters of the Commander in-Chief, leaving a widow and seven children.

In London, after a short illness, Sir Murry Maxwell, the recently appointed Governor of New Brunswick.

At Grove House, Cheltenham, John William Paxton, Esq. of the Hon. East India Company's Civil Service on the Bengal Establishment, aged 51 years.

On the 19th of April, in his 48th year, in St. Andrew, Jamaica, Alexander Aikman, jun. Esq. Editor and Proprietor of The Royal Gazette, and King's Printer. This Gentleman was brother-in-law to John Enright, Esq. Surgeon R.N. son of Denis Enright, Esq. of Chappell Russell, near Pallas Kenry, county Limerick.

On Monday, at Rookfield, near Rathkeale, Catherine, wife of P. Casey, Esq. She presided at breakfast, at nine o'clock, in health and spirits, an hour subsequently to which she felt herself unwell; and, after being safely delivered of a still-born child, suddenly got a change for the worse, when, before many minutes had elapsed, it pleased the Almighty disposer of human events to deprive our young children of a fondly attached mother, and a disconsolate husband of an affectionate wife.

"In the midst of life we are in death."

...Commander...
...Persons desirous of taking a passage in this superior will please make early application, as the number of berths will be limited to half the usual complement.
For further particulars apply to Captain MITCHELL, on board; or to WILLIAM RANDALL, Ship Agent, A. Quay, Limerick.
N. B.—Captain Mitchell has been trading to Quebec and the other ports in North America, for fourteen years, and is well acquainted with every particular respecting the same, and can give much valuable information to Emigrants.

CLARE CANAL.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the present Session of Parliament, for bringing in a Bill to amend the several Acts of Parliament in force for improving the Navigation of the River Shannon by the formation of Canals into the same; and for the purpose of making the River Shannon navigable for large boats from the River Shannon to the Town of Ennis; and for the purpose of making a Canal through such parts of the County of Clare; and of the lands between the same and the Town of Ennis, in the Parish of St. John's, in the Abbey Templemaley and Drumcliffe, in the Barony of Inchiquin, in the County of Clare, with one or more bridges therein—and to charge Tolls, Rates, and Duties thereon, and on Goods, Wares and Merchandises, imported and Exported.

Dated this 22d day of June, 1831.
MATHEW BARRING

Equity---Exchequer.

Harding, } PURSUANT to an Order made in the Harding, } bearing date the 21st day of June
I will, on SATURDAY, the 9th day of July at the Hour of One o'Clock in the Afternoon my Chambers on the Inns-Quay, Dublin. Set up a the highest and fairest Bidder for Three Years pe-Cause, from the 1st day of May last, ALL THE
THOSE that part of the LANDS of HARDING in the County of Limerick, as lately tenanted by COSTELLO, in said Order named.—Dated this 2d 1831.

A. R. BLAKE

CHANCERY.

In the matter of } PURSUANT to an Order made in the Thomas Stoney, James Butler Stoney, } two
Henry Butler Stoney, and George } orders made Stoney, } in the MINORS. } matter, be-} respective } day of
and 13th day of June instant, I will, on Monday of July next, at the hour of One o'clock in the
at my Chambers, on the Inns-Quay, Dublin, set up
Seven Years pending the Minority of said Minor
First day of July next, All That and Those that Lands of Portland, the property of the Minor, Th which a Store is built, and which was lately occu-Inland Navigation Company; also, All That and part of the said Lands of Portland (part of said M perty) called Warburton's Division, containing abo teen Acres, and Cusher's containing about Th all which said premises are situate, lying and be-Barony of Lower Ormond and County of Tipper
Dated this 20th day of June, 1831.
THOMAS

JOHN GABBETT, Solicitor for the Minors, 45
Street, Limerick, or 11, Upper Pembroke-Street

Cambie } THE Sale of the Lands of Ballyr
a. } derry, and part of Graigue, a Ledger. } Lands of Dromineer, situate between Borrane, in the Barony of Lower and County of Tipperary, in the pleadings an this cause mentioned, has been Adjourned to Fri day of July, 1831, at the hour of two o'clock noon, when the said several Lands, or a con thereof, will be peremptorily set up to be sold poses in said Decree mentioned.
Dated 13th June, 1831.

WILLIAM

For Rental and particulars of title apply to son, plaintiff's solicitor, 10, Castle-street, D Rhody White, solicitor for defendant Ledger, lege-Green; Mr. Herriek, solicitor for defende 12, Denzill-street; and Mr. Hickman, soli fendant, Short, 17, Gardiner-street.