COMPANION TO THE WAVERLEY NOVELS.

IN Monthly Volumes, beautifully illustrated with Engravings, price 6s. bound, STANDARD NOVELS and ROMANCES.

The monthly publication of Popular Fictions, under the above general title, has now proceeded to its fourth number, and has met with greater success than could have been anticipated by the most sanguine expectation of the proprietors. The public at large has seized with alacrity on the opportunity thus presented of procuring editions of favourite Novels and Romances by living writers at a fifth of the cost originally charged for each work, with the additional and important advantage of the Authors' own revision, illustrative Notes, and new Introductory Matter, obtained by the Proprietors at considerable cost, and giving a unique character to the present impression of celebrated works, which is therefore not only the cheapest, but indisputably the best extant.

But as many of the Subscribers to the STANDARD NOVELS have expressed a wish that the undertaking should not be restricted to the publication of Fictions written in any one
