

of £200 a year, in the County. Deputy Lieutenants, as appointed to appoint Lord Lieutenants and Lieutenant of Ireland only have Deputy Lieutenants. Deputy Lieutenants to the Clerk of Presentation to Parliament— and sign declaration at £200 against them for not accepting the Deputy Lieutenants of Militia to appoint to the County Lord Lieutenant may appoint a or sickness. Fitzgerald, M. P. who is County Clare, has given at Moyriska, in that residence. The intention has diffused very general ends and connexions. Deputy Lieutenant of Lieutenant of the County English Peer, with the title of nephew of Sir J. Newport, County Wexford, is to be adford, Meath, and Clonow. How are candidates for the is appointed a Captain in having absconded, has been inted Curate of St. Peter's is, has addressed a long Ennis and its Vicinity, on ration, and recommending order to decide if the Pion is the one taught by seen the Wellesley Bridge his City, and Mr. Clements, eged injury to the Nav- ones into the passage be- and the Contractor convenience before sail of boats in turf, potatoes, corn, for market, none of them goes, if the navigation was he larger vessels frequent- the very limited range of citizens are particularly of Dr. Spaight, for bring- public notice. and Docks have yet gone, amounts to £44,000. The £1000. The Parliamen- et was passed early in 1823, g has been in progress expediting the conveyance ecks the Ennis Mail Coach ed letters and return same the Dublin Coach in the d an important improve- the inhabitants generally

Committed to the City Gaol, by the Mayor, Wm. Corn- wall, robbing the Rev. T. Westropp—Laurence M'Inerney and Anne M'Inerney, for larceny—Thomas Keily, assault, one week's imprisonment or pay 2s. 6d. fine—Denis M'Donnell for ditto, two months or pay £1 fine—Mathew Magrath, ditto, three weeks or pay 9s. 7d. fine and costs—Myles Cassidy for being drunk, ten days at hard labour, or pay 4s. fine—Thomas Kelly for same, ten days imprisonment, or pay 2s. 6d. fine.

MARRIAGES.

On Tuesday last, at St David's Church, by the Rev. R. Davies, M.A. and afterwards at St. Mary's Chapel, Edmund- street, Liverpool, by the Rev. J. Fisher, William John Geary, Esq. M.D. of this City, to Margaret Jane, eldest daughter of the late James O'Neill, Esq. of that town. Thomas Mangau, Esq. of this City, to the Widow O'Brien. At St. Mary's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. George Kelly, Robert Banks Hudson, of Huddersfield, in Yorkshire, Esq. to Henrietta, second daughter of William Helse, Esq. M.D. of Mountjoy-street, in that city. At Milltown, County Kerry, Edward Gaffney, Esq. of Loughlin, County Roscommon, to Mary, eldest daughter of Arthur Spring, Esq. of Halifax, Nova Scotia. At Cleenor, Mr. W. Bingham, of Rostellan, to Penelope, second daughter of the late Thos. Chickley, of Mallow, Esq. In Belfast, W. J. Eames, Esq. of Londonderry, to Eliza Anne, daughter of J. Comyns, Esq. Captain Smart, late 76th Regt. to Anne, daughter of the late Sir Henry Hawley, Bart. In Bath, W. Ross, Esq. of Stranraer, Scotland, Major in the 23d Fusileers, to Mary, only daughter of J. Parks, Esq. In Edinburgh, Hugh Dunlop, Esq. second son of General Dunlop, to Ellen Clementina, only daughter of Robert Cockburn, Esq. [The marriage of Lieutenant Eaton, of the 60th Rifles, and Miss FitzGerald, has not taken place.]

DEATHS.

On Thursday, at his lodgings in George's-street, John Reeves, Esq. deeply lamented by his family and friends. His remains were interred this day in the family vault at Charleville. In Mallow-street, the infant son of James Baanatyne, Esq. In Newry, John Kenny, Esq. of the Freeman's Journal office. On George's-quay, Cork, Mrs. Catherine O'Brien. In Monk-street, Wexford, Poole Morphy, Esq. thirty-two years a Captain in the Kilkenny Militia. At Lisdoonvarna, County Clare, the Rev. John Murphy, Parish Priest of Corofin. Eliza, wife of Mr. Samuel Parker, of Charlemont-mall. In Clonmel, Edward, infant son of Moore Labarte, Esq. Mrs. Gilmore, wife of E. Gilmore, of Sligo, Esq. In Main-street, Clonmel, Henry, the eldest son of Mr J. Hackett, aged five years. Richard Dempsey, of Longford, Esq. Mr. George Osborne, of Belfast, watch-maker. Thomas, eldest son of Doctor M'Keever, of Marlborough-street, Dublin. In London, the Right Hon. Mathew, Lord Rokeby. At Brighton, Mrs. Page, relict of C. Page, of Oporto, Esq. In London, the daughter of Sir P. Sydney. At Edinburgh, Mr. Thomas Wilson, printer. At Reading, Maria Anne, wife of Major Cameron, late of the 87th Regiment, and daughter of the late Major C. Benezet of the Horse Grenadier Guards. In Liverpool, Eliza, wife of John Hoare, Esq. Lieut.-Col. Heathcote, of the Bengal military establish- ment, aged 45 years. At Ryde, John Lynd, Esq. M. D. many years senior Phy- sician at Haslar Hospital. At Strasburgh, Mr. John Romaine Addison, the last rela- tive of the celebrated Joseph Addison.

PIANO FORTI GUITAR AND SINGING
 MR. G. T. MAY has the honor of in- Nobility and Gentry of Limerick and he has commenced giving instructions on the Guitars and in Singing. Terms may be known on application at Patrick-Street Limerick, S.

NOTICE.

THE Landholders in the Liberties of Limerick are hereby required to take the persons appointed to collect the Asses- Damages sustained by the Plunder of Prop- in this City, in the month of June, 1830, ac- ing with their Assistants, to collect, and the authorised to levy the same by immediate sa- cause of default of payment. Such persons as wish to pay their proportio- ment, without the necessity of the Collectors lands, may do so by sending the amount Office, Bridge-street, during the next week. 2/4 Sheriff's Office, Limerick. Se

TO BE SOLD,
 A elegant London-built GIG, with Ha in good order. The Gig has been ver- furnished with Lamps and Swivel Umbrel- construction. Also, a handsome Chess, M- old, warranted sound and free from vice, and quiet in harness. Apply to Mr. RYAN, Coach Builder, F- Se

ROYAL HOTEL, ABBEYFEA
THOMAS JOSEPH M
 LATE OF THE ROYAL HOTEL, KING HAS the honor to announce to the Nobil- that the above HOTEL was opened for on this day. T. J. M.—Pledges himself that every- afforded in the best possible style.—No exp- spared in fitting up the House on such a scal- general satisfaction. He therefore hopes from a close and undev- to the comfort and accommodation of those Establishment, to obtain a fair proportion Abbeyfea

TO BE LET,
FOR such term as may be agreed upon Possession given, the BOLTING MIL Of BALLYCLOUGH, on the River Mulcair from Limerick.) All the Works and Machine- new, and on the most modern and improved requiring a shilling expenditure. The site- water is not equalled in the country, having in the driest season. Apply to CHARLES CHARA, a Coal Yard, Upper William-street, where he per the Mary, from Glasgow, a well chosen Metal Pots, Ovens, Pump Cart Boxes and Pl- which will be sold reasonable together with Bar and Rod Iron, Blistered and Spring Chains, Hoops, Scythes, Reaping Hooks, C- BRUSHES of every description and supe- thine to be manufactured in this Concern. A quantity of HARDWARE, IRONM- SADDLERY remain on hands, and will first cost. 1/2