

SIGNOR PAGANINI.

debut to a Limerick audience at Swinon Monday night, when a most crowd-able assemblage collected to greet this Families had been arriving every a circuit of twenty miles to attend the ni's entree was marked by a burst of pearance is singularly striking, a tall delicate and care-worn features, a pro-und most expressive black eyes, with ch fall in careless ringlets on his neck general cast of his features is that of but when he caught the violin, and ow, he looked a new being—there was change in his manner, and the countened a glow of energy and animation, general appearance. He seemed wholly sly of his instrument, whose witching ear and heart like music from celestial charm in every tone, a thrilling note of uch which defies the most brilliant and Description never will convey a just erits as a violinist, in which character nced him to be without a rival. He is f the passions, at one moment raising the rapturous sensations, in the next exertfluence to produce feelings directly op-bringing tears into the eyes of his audihe spirit of mirth and laughter, and the fects this, can also summon those gloomy which cast the shadow of grief and death e performs once more this evening.
of the performance the small railed gal-ance of the Ball-room, which answers for o crowded that the front gave way under F those bearing on it, and several persons to the great terror and confusion of all he accident was not followed by any as the fall was for most part broken, by ignor Paganini was himself more alarmed room, but the accident did not long in-ance, which was resumed in a few minutes native of Genoa, and was born in Fee violin was placed in his hands when he his fifth year.
e of the scavans of Paris, has lately deli-ore the Royal Academy of Science on the nderful performer, whose extraordinary s the Doctor attributes to the peculiar n enables him to bring his elbows close ace them one over the other—to the cir-ft shoulder being higher than the right—ng of the ligaments of the wrists, and the s of his fingers, which he can move in asure. Besides which the craniologists ction of his skull, peculiar aptitude in the ive his farewell concert on Friday morning Dublin.

ael O'Gorman of Ennis, is appointed Parish n place of the late Rev. Mr. Murphy.
a pious clergyman, and of unobtrusive hire Militia have received an intimation will be extended to Ireland. The regi-tra supply of winter clothing. tzgibbon, M.P. Lieutenant of this County, untshannon next week from London. hlunkard Bridge were set up for public ercial Buildings on Saturday; but, as no reeably to the terms prescribed by the ey resolved to keep the tolls for some time sent £700 to the Secretary of War—a sum open improperly received.
Military Promotions in the London Gazette of our paper will be found a list of nomi-H. Military Order of the Bath

DEATHS.

This day, at St. John's-square Barracks, sincerely regretted, Mrs. Yates, wife of Lieut. Yates, 74th Regiment.
At Ballycat, on the 27th ult. the Lady of John Colpoys, Esq. greatly regretted by her friends and all who knew her inestimable worth, she possessed superior mental endowments, with high literary attainments, connected with unbounded benevolence of disposition—the poor will long lament her, she will live in their memory; with all she manifested the deepest humility, and the most exalted piety; the atoning BLOOD and perfect RIGHTEOUSNESS of the Lord Jesus was her only hope, she fought the good fight, she kept the faith, she finished her course, and now enjoys a Crown of Glory that shall never fade away.
At Turbarry Hall, Mrs. Kirby.
At Boherbee, Tralee, Pierce Chute, Esq.
At Londonderry, Emily Summerfield, daughter of Captain Ward, Royal Engineers, aged 6 months.
In Galway, aged 18 years, Eliza, only daughter of Lieut.
Hunter, Coast Guard service.
Lieutenant-General Malcolm Grant of the East India Company's service.
Mary, relict of the late Abraham Cross, of Shandy-Hall, Esq. county Cork.
On Friday, in London, after five day's illness, John Henry North, Esq. M.P. for Drogheda, and Judge of the High Court of Admiralty in Ireland. He died of inflammation of the lungs, caught, it is supposed, in the House of Commons.
At Brighton, after a long and severe illness, in the 14th year of his age, the Hon. Charles William Lambton, eldest son of Lord Durham.
On Monday, at Prospect Buildings, near Dublin, aged 17, Sophia Magee, youngest daughter of the late Archbishop of Dublin. She bore her severe sufferings with the patience of a meek Christian, and departed rejoicing in the love of her Redeemer, and filled with the sure expectation of an inheritance eternal in her Father's kingdom.
In Dublin, Margaret, daughter of the late Valentine O'Connor, Esq.
In Cuffe-street, Dublin, Mr. Michael Heade.
In St. George's-street, North, Thomas Knox Mugee, Esq.
aged 71, late a Surveyor-General of his Majesty's Revenue.
At Swan River, William Stirling, Esq.
On Sunday last, at Montpelier-parade, Black Rock, aged 48 years, Margaret, wife of Thomas Clarke, late of Temple-street, Dublin.
At Blackhead, Derry, in his 67th year, the Rev. John Paul, Rector of the parish of Aughadooy.
At Woodford, Essex, Sophia, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Thornton, Grenadier Guards.
At Bury St. Edmunds, C. Blomfield, Esq. father of the Bishop of London.
At Malton, Yorkshire, T. Preston, Esq. of Aldermanbury.
At Boulogne-sur-Mer, B. D. Hooke, Esq. late Royal Art.
At Kentishtown, the daughter of Sir James Williams.
The Cardinal Prince Primate of Hungary, Alexander Von Rudnay, died at Gran, of the cholera.

Kensington Candles.

ROBERT CHAPPLE

THIS week landed, ex Emancipation, from London, TWO HUNDRED BOXES of Genuine Kensington Candles, direct from the original Manufacturer.

These are the only Candles, which, for beauty of appearance and durability of burning, resemble wax.

ALSO,

A few Cases of English WAX-CANDLES, CARRIAGE LIGHTS, TAPERS, and SPERMACETI CANDLES.

George's-street, Limerick, Oct. 5, 1831.

PORTRAITS.

MR. MERCIER, PORTRAIT PAINTER, of Dublin, takes leave respectfully to inform the Nobility and Gentry of Limerick and its vicinity, that his numerous engagements still detain him in this City, and for the accommodation of several whose absence from Limerick has

SUN-FIRE OFFICE

ESTABLISHED 1710;

AND SUN LIFE OFFICE

Cornhill and Craig's Court, Char-LONDON.

THE promptitude and liberality with which OFFICE has discharged all the Claims a period of One Hundred and Twenty Years, presumption of all its future transactions being similar honor and credit.

The total Duty paid by the Forty-Two other principal Fire Offices in England, for the year 1830, was.....

The Duty paid by the Sun Fire Office alone for the same year (1830) amounted to.....

The public may therefore form some idea of the magnitude of its transactions.

MANAGERS.

CHARLES POLE, Esq. Chairman
Frederick Booth, Esq. Henry Ladbroke
Charles Boulton, Esq. Chas. Shaw Lefevre
Hon. P. Pleydell Bouverie, MP. Hon. Hugh Ligonier
William Burnie, Esq. Charles Littleton
John Cockerell, Esq. Henry Littleton
Thomas Dorrien, Esq. George Wardlaw
Thomas Dorrien, jun. Esq. John Pearse
Charles Bell Ford, Esq. Brice Pearse
William Hamilton, Esq. Charles Richardson
Edward Harman, Esq. George Smith
Felix Calvert Ladbroke, Esq. James Trotter

JOSHUA MILNE, Actuary

The Managers having had Premiums calculated to the values of the risks at the different Life; which, under forty-five years of age was rance is for the Whole of Life, and under shorter periods, are considerably lower than required; Tables of the New Rates, with the Assurance, may be had at the SUN LIFE Cornhill, and at the SUN FIRE OFFICE Court, London; also, of any of the Agents FIRE OFFICE.

The Agents in Ireland are—

Belfast .....	Mr. Richard Bax
Clonmel .....	Mr. John Luther.
Cork .....	Mr. George Atkin
Drogheda .....	Mr. Henry Smith
Dublin .....	Mr. George Simp
Limerick .....	Messrs. P. and E.
Londonderry .....	Mr. James Glenn
Mallow .....	Mr. John Gardin
Newry .....	Mr. James T. Ha
Tralee .....	Mr. Jeffery Eag
Waterford .....	Mr. Stephen Ph
Galway .....	Mr. John Blaker

The strictest attention paid to all orders for Life and Fire Insurances AT THE REDUCED every facility and information given at the

OFFICE, BRUNSWICK-STREET,

P. & E. MURPHY

Those Insured in the Michaelmas quarter protected during any time that the Premiums after the 12th instant.

A Fire-Engine and attendants always

SIGNOR PAGANINI

PROGRAMME

OF SIGNOR PAGANINI'S SECOND
CONCERT