Deaths Communicated to the Times & Chronicle

On Wednesday evening, a party of seven or eight men, attacked the house of Patrick Keeffe, at Killeen, in the barony of Clanwilliam, with stones, on which Keeffe followed them out, and received a blow of a stone in the stomach, from the effects of which he died the night following.

A woman, named Margaret Dowdle, of the town of Tipperary, died on Friday night, from a wound she received on the head, inflicted by the blow of a stone given her on the evening of the fair day of that town.

A man named Thomas Ryan, of Sheenhill, also died some night from the effects of a beating he received the fair day.

On Saturday night, an armed party attacked the house of John Dwyer, of Tenone, in the barony of Middlethird, and fired several shots; Dwyer returned the fire, on which the party made off.

Same night, Chief Constable Kelly, and party of Police, went to the lands of Luke, in the district of Elogarty, to execute a warrant against some persons charged on oath with having assaulted the Police in the execution of their duty, on the 5th instant, and succeeded in arresting eleven persons, three of whom are fully identified, and committed for trial.

On Monday the Mayor held an inquest at Ballyclogh, on the body of Thomas Shine, who was choked the previous night at supper in attempting to swallow a bit of meat which stopt in the passage. Verdict accordingly. The marriage of this unfortunate man was fixed for next Sunday.

Sunday last, Mr. Cox, Coroner, held an inquest at Ballyphilip, near Croom, upon the body of Bridget Leo, who died of fractured skull, two men having assaulted her the previous Sunday, and struck her several blows on the head with stones, of which wounds she lingered until Saturday night last. The Coroner has issued his warrant against the murderers, whom she named in her dying declaration.

On the night of the 11th instant, a party of ruffians attempted to murder a Gentleman of the name of Wixted, near Bilboa. It was fortunate, however, the mistake was discovered in time, as their intention was to assassinate a gentleman, one of whose family not long since fell a victim to their snares.

The inhabitants of Beenhaven have presented an address, with a piece of plate, to Henry Baldwin, Esq. Chief Officer of the Coast Guard, on his removal to Skull district.

The situation of Clerk of the Crown for the Counties of Cavan, Donegal, Fermanagh, Londonderry, and Tyrone, is vacant by the death of John Johnston, Esq.

Mr. Killally has finished his survey of the proposed navigable ship canal from Clare to Ennis, and estimates the expense at £28,500.

Major Warburton, Inspector-General of the Police, has fixed his head-quarters at Wicklow.

Chief Constable Duncan has been removed from Killaloe to Arduacrusha, near this City.

There was a public meeting at Portumna to address Chief Constable Lynch, on his removal to another district.

The Lord Chancellor has been pleased to appoint William Villiers Stuart, Esq. brother to Henry Villiers Stuart, Esq. to be one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County Waterford.

W. Villiers Stuart, Esq. is to be Deputy Lord Lieutenant of the County Waterford.

Mr. H. V. Stuart has written to the Clerk of the Peace for a list of the present Magistrates of the County Waterford, which is preliminary to the re-appointments.

Mr. Henry Villiers Stuart will be immediately raised to the peerage.

Several witnesses left this County for the trial in the Court of Exchequer, expected to take place this day, in which a Clogymon of the diocese has preferred an action for defamation against one of his Parishioners.

The Archbishop of Dublin was consecrated at St. Patrick's Cathedral yesterday. The ceremony was performed by his Grace the Archbishop of Cashel.

The Rev. George Smithwick, of the Cathedral of Killaloe, is appointed to the living of Birr, in room of the Rev.
