There was a meeting of the Hibernian Bible Society held at Castle Connell, yesterday, (the Rev. Mr. Crampton in the Chair,) which was numerously attended, when the Rev.
Messrs. Woodward, Hoare, Herbert, Cousins, and Molloy, severally addressed the meeting, and spoke in explanation of the objects of the Society.

The attention of the Christian Public is directed to the Annual Sermon and Collection on behalf of the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Home Missions on to-morrow evening in the Methodist Preaching House, Bedford-row. It appears from the Public Prints that the Secretary, Mr. Revington, who is to preach on the occasion, has been successfully engaged in promoting the object of Christian Missions during an extensive tour of nearly two thousand miles through Ireland. Public Meetings have been held during the last fortnight in Cork, Bandon, Kinsale, Skibberreen, Mallow, and Clonmel, under the patronage and support of the Clergy of the Established Church and other friends to Home Missions.

DEATHS

On Thursday morning, in Henry-street, of a rapid decline, brought on by close attention to his Medical studies, Joseph William, eldest son of William Evans, Esq. His afflicted parents have the consolation to believe he died trusting in humble confidence of a glorious resurrection, through the all sufficient sacrifice of a crucified Redeemer.

On the Grand Parade, Cork, Lieut. Richard Kennedy, Royal Navy.

In Gloucester-street, Dublin, Miss Poniere, aged 71.
The Hon. Mrs. Brookes, wife of Major Brookes, Everton, Liverpool, and sister to Viscount Lake.
