DEATHS.

On Monday last, after an illness of four days (the consequence of excess of fatigue and over heating himself on a shooting party), Samuel Bindon Alton, Esq. aged 22 years. He was gifted with a high order of cultivated intellect, known to his select friends, who can speak his worth;—he mixed little with the world, and in no single instance partook of its vices. Great indeed is the affliction of his family for their separation from him for the present; but their sorrow is not without hope, for during the progress of the dreadful malady which brought down in so short a time an able young man to the grave, his lucid intervals were employed in fervent prayer to the Almighty Disposer of events, and it was fully impressed on his mind that he should wake up a child of God. His remains were deposited this morning in his mother's family vault at Mungret, amid the tears of the surrounding countrypeople by whom he was beloved.
At Mallow, on Saturday last, in the 28th year of her age, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with the greatest fortitude, Marianne Margaret, wife of Miles Monckton, Esq. and only daughter of the Rev. Dr. Mauser, formerly of Liverpool. She breathed her last in the arms of her afflicted husband. This melancholy event will be long and deeply deplored—husband, children, relations, and friends, will long mourn the loss of a truly sincere and a most affectionate wife, daughter, and mother.
In Bedford-row, Mrs. Coeratta, wife of Mr. Antonio Coeratta, much regretted by her family and friends.
In North Great George's-street, Dublin, aged 89 years, Amelia, Dowager Viscountess Powerscourt.
In Mountjoy-square, Sir Robert A. Hodson, Bart. of Hollybrook, County Wicklow.
At Cullinstown, Anna Maria, daughter of Dr. Brady, of Dominick-street, Dublin.
At Boyne-Hall, in the county of Meath, the Rev. Philip Barry, Rector of Navan, in said county, aged 62.
In Lower Baggot street, Dublin, John Donville, Esq. formerly an eminent Solicitor and Register to Lord Chief Justice Bashi.
Hannah, sister of the late Gilbert Plumer, Esq. of Forest, near Swords, County Dublin.
At Sunday's-well, Cork, Dorah, daughter of the late Jasper Farmer, of Rockhill, in that County, Esq.
Mary, third daughter of the late Mr. Jeremiah Mahony, of Great Britain-street, Cork.
Mr. Peter Geale, of Church-lane, Waterford.
At Ballinamore, John Maguire, Esq. Solicitor.
At Cheltenham, Thomas Newenham, Esq.
Mary, daughter of Joseph Griffith, of Cootehill, County Cavan, Esq.
At Downpatrick, Mary, third daughter of Sidney Hamilton Rowan, Esq.
At the Grange, near Elmsmere, Lady Tara, second daughter of the late T. J. Powys, of Berwick-House, Salop, Esq.
In Harley-street, London, General the Hon. Chas. Fitzroy. John Tempest, Esq. of Lincoln's-inn, Barrister at Law.
In London, George Roots, Esq. of the Chancery Bar, Recorder of Kingston-Thames, and more than thirty years a Commissioner of Bankrupts.
William Henry, youngest son of Thomas Farrell, Esq. of Merrion square, Dublin.
At Rathbeg, near Birr, King's County, the seat of his brother-in-law, Hugh Boyd Wray, Esq. Paymaster of the 29th Regt.
