

the peasantry, the example having been set by whom better conduct, and more respect for the usually expected.

past the Queen's County Magistrates applied section Act to be put in force in the part of the County Kilkenny: the Irish expressed unwillingness to resort to such extreme meeting of the Magistrates took place at Ballinacorney, at which Major-General Sir Edward Bouverie, on the part of government, when it was proposed to increase the military posts in that district.

presence of itinerant and unqualified field surveyors was exposed before the Barrister at Tralee Sessions and the injury done by such persons to landed has been made in the Consistorial Court of Tralee cannot be recovered from the tillers of the ground, usually called "score potatoe ground," but that the ground who let out the land for that purpose is liable to the payment thereof. This decision should be made known.

commencement of the Quarter Sessions at Tralee, the Barrister has been almost exclusively engaged in the business. The number of processes entered are 1711, and 100 Bill Ejectments. Three Freeholders only have been returned.

to Tralee gaol, by William Collis, Esq. of Tralee, John Leahy and William Griffin, for having stolen a watch, value £7 and upwards, which was lost three and a half years ago, by Serjeant MacDonnell, 98th regiment, and has been recovered by the Constable Samuel Huggard, of the Police at Martelli, Esq. of Spring Lodge, while hunting at Knockanish, near Tralee, met with a most alarming accident, his horse having fallen over his head, and he returned his right arm quite close to the socket. The Reform Meeting is adjourned by the High Sheriff on Monday next.

Robertson, Esq. Mayor of Kilkenny, in reply to an invitation of the citizens to hold a Reform Meeting, has written a letter, in which he declines to do so, saying, "The office I fill as a solemn trust confided to me by the people I represent, whose rights and immunities I am sworn to maintain, I am of opinion that, without the sanction of my oath and of my duty, I could not be accessory to the efforts of its avowed enemies, to strip its revenues, and to obliterate its existence."

annual catechetical examinations in Saint Peter's Church, just terminated, 1,053 children of both sexes were present, most gratifying ordeal, having answered in the satisfactory manner to the several questions. Mr. Keane presided at the County Waterford Reform Meeting on Thursday, at Dungarvan. Resolutions and addresses to the King were carried unanimously, with thanks to the County Members.

of Donoughmore quite unexpectedly appeared at the Sessions of Chancery on Thursday last, and was sworn in by the Assistant Barrister as Lord Lieutenant of the County.

Samuel Tutill, son of the Rev. C. Tutill, obtained a distinguished place at Entrance, out of 153 who were admitted students of Trinity College.

assurer of the Lying-in Hospital thankfully received a donation of £2 10s. from F. G. Esq. per the County of Limerick, in aid of the depressed funds of the Hospital.

AGE—New, November 4th; First Quarter, 12th; Last Quarter, 26th.

John was burnt to death in a cabin, at New-Inn on Monday night, a farmer of the name of Fitzgerald, was ordered at New-Inn, County Tipperary.

John Terry Alt banditti surrounded the dwelling of John Evans, at Pass, County Clare, within two miles of the town, and demanded fire arms. After searching the place, the fellows departed, without accomplishing their object.

MARRIAGES.

In Kilkeedy Church, by the Venerable Archdeacon of Derry, Thomas Wilson, Esq. of Caherconlish House, to ~~Thomas~~ second daughter of William Thomas Monell, Esq. of Tervoe, in the County of Limerick.

At Ardinan Church, co. Tipperary, by the Rev. Wheeler Cooke, and afterwards at Marlhill, by the Very Rev. Dr. Flannery, Edmund, eldest son of Robert Prendergast, Esq. of Marlhill, to Eliza, relict of the late Vere Dawson Hunt, Esq. of Cappa, County Tipperary.

On Thursday, at Tullinacorney Church, Pierce Crosbie, Esq. of Ballyhige Castle, to Elizabeth, second daughter of Thomas Wm. Scales, Esq. of Sallowglin, Kerry.

In St. Mary's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Mr. Purdon, Arthur Williamson, Esq. of Mountjoy-street, to Emily, daughter of the late Rev. Mark Wainright, of Trim, county Meath.

Robert M'Adam, Esq. of Markstown, to Jane, daughter of the late Mathew Kyle, of Kinnerstown, near Ballymena, Esq.

Miss Ellen Farmer, of Lower Glanmire, Cork, to Mr. William Federston, of the same place.

Edward H. Mortimer, Esq. of Bath, to Jane, youngest daughter of the late Colonel Williams, and niece of the late General Sir Thomas Picton.

At Denston, Suffolk, Captain Pigott, of the Royal Horse Guards, eldest son of Sir George Pigott, Bart., to Georgina Anne, youngest daughter of W. Brummell, Esq. of Wyvanhoe, near Colchester.

At Torquay, Devon, the Hon. Charles Rodolph Trefusis, brother of Lord Clinton, to the Lady Elizabeth Georgiana Kerr, daughter of the late Marquis and present Dowager Marchioness of Lothian.

DEATHS.

At Brighton, on the 20th ult. after a short but severe illness, Mrs. Bouchier, relict of the late Major General Bouchier, of the Royal Artillery,—a Lady greatly beloved and respected by her family and numerous friends.

Suddenly, yesterday morning, at the Parsonage, Ballinacorney, in this County, sincerely regretted by her highly respectable relatives and friends, Annah, the beloved wife of Surgeon R. FitzGerald, to whom she was married but nine months. She was kind, mild and affectionate, and possessed all those virtues that arise from a love and fear of God on Christian principles.

On Sunday, in William-street, Mrs. Culmore, late of Waterford—a member of the Society of Friends.

On Saturday last, in Henry-street, greatly lamented by her afflicted family, in the 16th year of her age, Lucy, second daughter of Robert Martin, Esq.

At Ballyneety, in this County, the Rev. Michael Barry, R. C. C.

At her house in Galway, Mrs. Puxley, daughter of the late Ottiwell Puxley, Esq. and aunt to Lord Chammorris.

In Dame-street, Dublin, Thomas Fry, Esq.

Aged 17, Jacob, third son of William Sherrard, Esq. of Marlay, county Louth.

In Dublin Maria Roselina, third daughter of the late Thomas Hely, Esq. of the 9th Lancers.

John, second son of the late John Donohoe, Esq. of South Earl-street, Dublin.

At Carne, County Wexford, Abraham Howlin, Esq.

Mr. James Shannon, of Abbey-Mills, County Tipperary.

Suddenly, of apoplexy, Colonel O'Ferrall, of Ballyane-House, County Wexford.

In London, Ambrose Bowden, Esq. of the Navy Office.

At Newtown-Stewart, Mary Anne, wife of Thos. Miller, Esq. Surgeon Royal Navy.

At Jamaica, Captain Ingilby, 84th Regiment.

At Hyde Park Barracks, London, Captain E. T. Drake, of the Royal Horse Guards.

In Mabledon-place, London, Mrs. Church, relict of the late J. Church, Esq. of Bedford-place.

Sunday evening, at Warren's-Place, Cork, after a few days' illness, John Newman, Esq.

At Cove, in the prime of life, Mr. John O'Brien.

At Carriek-on-sure, Mr. Martin O'Donnell.

At Killarney, on Sunday, James Francis Bland, Esq. late Lieut.-Colonel in the Army.

of the most interesting and newest works in German, Italian and Spanish, to which every new work of merit and general interest is added. Circulating Libraries are an acknowledged resource. No amusement is more attended with more solid satisfaction and efficiency than the literary: there is not a single excitement of human curiosity on which satisfaction may not be acquired at this Library. A multitude of Books in all branches of knowledge to gratify the mental appetite with ever increasing intellectual sustenance, a sumptuous and varied library, compared, nor will the guest find fault with laid before him with the design to give every one easy access to that capable of affording

The assortment of summer and winter variety.

The lounge, man of fashion, statesman, the divine, the artist, the professional man, well as the general amateur, will find a curious view of all that is desirable for the not elsewhere attainable, keeping progress of intellect and enriching the mind with resources: in fact every literary propensity is

Nor are the interests of the Ladies Library possesses the hitherto unattempted gratifying all that is interesting to them in a pursuit, and forms a complete accompaniment which grace the sex a perfection of the female character: in which has been had to the most distinguished taste, calculated both to entertain and in

This Library and News Room, possess the important influence which literature remarkable for its great and evident utility. The best constructed rail-road for the facilitation of extensive and accurate knowledge, improved age of mental as well as material, admirably qualified to prosecute with a having claims on our attention. The constantly kept up in harmony with the and science in this and all other countries, the unique and paramount advantages are not half the London prices.

LIBRARY—An extensive assortment of languages and in every department of literature, publishers, we are enabled to offer works on the most advantageous terms presented in our Catalogues is not inferior such as we may not hold at the moment execute through the medium of our principal cities of Europe and America. Travelling Guides, Itineraries, Maps, and other essentials for the tourist.

Subscriptions and advertisements receive publications of England, France and a French works delivered in London at a price demanded there.

The Book of Addresses is open to those desirous of making known their arrival in Paris, and departure. Strangers are invited to names.

The General Information Book, detailing information usually sought by Families, Visitors, and is freely consulted.

Establishment, the most complete and the most advantageous to the traveller, during his stay in the capital, and is a factory channel of access to the various connections of modern literature, and general reference.

Steam boat, Sailing packet, and to Subscribers may have their Letters addressed to the General and Commission Agency for Great Britain and Ireland.

English and Foreign directories are consulted and every information afforded to strangers.