The Lord Bishop of Killaloe is expected at Clarisford House, on Wednesday next.

A strong party of the Kilkenny Constabulary which had been drawn into Clare for the purpose of assisting in the suppression of outrage, left Killaloe on Saturday and Thursday, for their own district.

That deserving officer, Major Browne, lately held the situation of Inspector of Police in the County of Kilkenny, from whence he was removed on his appointment to the office of Chief Magistrate in the County Clare. A congratulatory Address has been presented to this gentleman on his promotion, from the Chief Magistrate, Joseph Greene, Esq. and the Officers and men of the Constabulary of the county of Kilkenny, expressive of their high opinion of the zealous and efficient manner in which he discharged the various duties of his office while at the head of that body. They have also presented him with two large and beautiful salvers, as a token of the high estimation in which he had been held by them. The Address and Reply appear in our columns.

On Thursday last Thomas W. Monnell, Esq. of this City, was sworn in an Attorney of the Court of King's Bench, and admitted a member of the Hon. Society of King's Inns.

The Mayor of Cork presided at a meeting of the Temperance Society on Monday in that City.

At a meeting of the Governors of the Cork House of Industry on Wednesday, the Mayor in the Chair, Captain Robinson, a Magistrate, and Governor of the Institution, was requested to withdraw from the Board in consequence of using grossly indelicate words to the female inmates—The charge was brought forward by Mr. Cummins, one of the Governors. It was intimated that Captain Robinson's resignation would be sent in by next Board day.

The President and Assistants of the House of Industry, Cork, have recommended the removal of Mr. Patrick J.
O'Brien from the Finance Committee of that Institution.

The next January or Hilary General Sessions of the Peace will be held at Ennis, on Monday, January 2, and at Ennistimon on Saturday the 7th.

Charles M'Donald, of Ennis, and John Ford, of Parteen, have been appointed Process-servers in the division of Ennis, in the room of Charles Fitzgerald, dismissed, and of Michael O'Connor, deceased; George Brew of Kilrush, has been appointed a Process-server, in the division of Kilrush, in the place of Michael O'Brien, dismissed.

The High Sheriff, the Hon. Cornelius O'Callaghan, son of Lord Lismore, will preside at the approaching meeting of the County Tipperary, to be held at Cashel, for the purpose of petitioning the House of Lords in favour of Parliamentary Reform.

James Bennett, Esq. Coroner, held an inquest on the body of John Fitzgerald, a labouring man, in Bruff, who fell from the roof of a house in that town last Wednesday, while attending a slater, and died immediately after of the injury. It is most creditable to the humane feelings of the detachment of the 27th Regiment at Bruff, to say, that on hearing of the fatality they instantly contributed 30s. for the poor widow and three children, of the deceased labourer.

On Monday next, Ellen M'Mahon, Anne Jeanings, Mary Connors, Mary Barry, Ellen M'Carthy, and Mary M'Na-mara, sentenced to seven years transportation, will be sent from the County Gaol to the Penitentiary House at Cork, there to be embarked for Botany Bay.

From a Correspondent at Parsonstown:—On the night of the 1st instant, an armed party attacked and entered the dwelling-house of a farmer named Guinan, resident of Forelock, adjacent to the town of Kinetty, in the King's County, and ordered him, on pain of death, to quit his residence. It appears that Guinan had got possession of land, out of which the late occupants were dispossessed, which is the cause of this outrage. One of the principals of said party has been since apprehended by Arthur George Judge, Esq. Chief Constable, and committed for trial.
