

left their several bar-
 rise a short distance
 ing in this City, last on were confined to
 to assemble at Edin-
 onel Elrington, 47th place in Plymouth
 h and 73d Regiments
 rucks; the Reserve
 om Barracks to the el to Devonport
 t, Assistant Quarter-vans, C B. 70th Regt.
 , to enquire into the
 b the 70th and Police ult to be submitted to n, and O'Brien, of Attorneys, they having lication was made by e Law Society.
 gerald, Lieutenant of nd spirits. He visited
 th the utmost respect.
 Esq. will receive the Clare.
 as offered a reward of the murder of Roger cribed in this Paper a rates of the Queen's r the seizure and pro-
 nd wounded Chaworth
 anty.
 k, powder, ball, and a schoolmaster, named
 , by the Police.
 tion and prayer at the
 to avert the impending loyd discharged fifty-
 one were rewarded.
 eing flagged for the mmittee of Health on ive fact, that he has t town from absolute e of transportation arnder an escort of the d next morning to the Trinity Parish, Cork, a young gentleman, to Church," the last Sub-Magistrates at Por-months, for assaulting 77th Reserve Compa-
 the gaol of that City
 ce-Chancellor's Prizes, nement of 1832 in latin or English Prose.
 in Greek, Latin, or e Compositions, with the 30th of January.
 Hospital thankfully Charity, from Mrs. D.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, most deservedly regretted, the Lady of Thomas Arthur, Esq. of Stephen's Green, and Glanmora, Co. Clare, and sister to Lady O'Brien, of Drumoland.

At her brother-in-law's house, Merchant's-quay, Dublin, Miss Ellen Mahon, second daughter of the late Nicholas Mahon, of this City, Esq. This excellent Lady ended her spotless life with that calm resigned piety and devotion that belongs to the true Christian.

At Rockfall, in this County, on Monday last, of a decline brought on by obstructed measles, aged 23 years, Margaret, eldest daughter of Laurence Cussen, Esq. The sad gloom which the premature decease of this truly amiable young Lady has thrown over her bereaved and afflicted parents and friends admits of no other lightening, than that which arises from the well assured, because Scriptural, conviction that the dear object of their tenderest affection has passed into a purer and happier state, where she now enjoys in the presence of that adorable Redeemer, whom she loved and followed and confided in, that blessedness which is peculiar to those who die in him. It is the earnest desire and prayer of the writer of these lines, who attended her during a long and trying illness, and in whose presence she expired, that his "latter end" may be as hers.

On Sunday last, in this City, on his way to Dublin, sincerely regretted, John O'Callaghan, Esq. of Still-loige, county Kerry, whose death was caused by apoplexy.

In Sexton-street, on Friday morning, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Mrs. Thomas Monsell, daughter of the late Vincent Lamb, Esq. She had a son and daughter to lament her loss.

Yesterday, in Thomas-street, the infant daughter of Edw. Parker, Esq.

In Mungret-street, much regretted, Mrs. Ward.

Mrs. Foley, relict of the late Rev. Mr. Foley, of Stradbally, county Waterford.

At Toulouse, aged 23 years, Robert Barrowes, Esq. son of the Dean of Cork.

In Patrick-street, Cork, Mr. George Carr.

In London, Robert Courtenaye Roche, of Killultin, in the County Cork, Esq.

In Waterford, Mr. Daniel Carigan, formerly of Kilkenny. Col. A. French, of Prospect-Hill, Galway.

In Ennis, Mr. William Talbot, Coach Agent.

At Monkstown Lodge, Dublin, Frederick, youngest son of Frederick Moore, Esq. L.L.D. Barrister at Law.

In Waterford, William, eldest son of Mr. Denis Harrington, of Backstrand-street.

In Kilkenny, John, son of the late Denis Brenan, Esq.

At his residence, Abingdon-street Westminster, Joseph Terry Houe, Esq. a Benchet of the Middle Temple, and one of the Magistrates of Union Hall, Borough.

At Brighton, Eliza, daughter of Colonel Bull, R. A.

At the Mauritius, Dr. Lyall.

At Turnham-Green, aged 89 years, Sir John Pinhorn, of the Isle of Wight.

In Paris, James Conway, Esq. many years connected with the London Times newspaper, and a native of Cork.

In London, John Henderson, the Comedian.

At Liverpool, Captain C. F. Barton, 24th Regiment.

At Hare Hatch, in Berkshire, Sir George S. Holroyd, Kut late one of the Judges of the English Court of King's Bench.

SUGARS, TEAS, &c.

ROBERT CHAPPLE

IS NOW LANDING

ONE HUNDRED HOGSHEADS JAMAICA SUGAR,

AND

A few lots of BLACK TEAS, from last sales.

This week expects to arrive to him, per the Genii, from London,

FOUR HUNDRED BAGS EAST INDIA SUGAR;

And per the Union, from Glasgow,

REFINED SUGAR

THE GREAT WINTER IMPORT

IS EXPECTED IN A FEW DAYS AT

THE CLOTH HALL

19, GEORGE'S STREET,

CORNER OF THOMAS-STREET

THE Proprietor of the CLOTH HALL begs to inform the Public that he will be landing in a great Winter Stock, (bring his third supply) of Woollen Drapery, Manchester and Foreign Goods on inspection will be found to furnish advantageable extent to Cash Purchasers.

The entire Stock will be open to view on or before the 1st of December, when he trusts that Persons who supply themselves in fashionable Winter Cloth will find themselves of the advantage of getting

PRIME GOODS AT LOW PRICES

This supply will afford a vast variety of the newest shade worn in London, Black and Blue of superior quality and manufacture, Double and Cassimeres in every shade suited to the season, Devonshire and Stanhope Cloths for Top Coats, water proof, Petershams and Harrington Cloths and plain.

Ladies' Habit Pelisse and Cloak Cloths in every variety.

London and Spanish Toilets, Cassinets, and for Waistcoating on the newest style of pattern.

French Silks and Velvets plain and embossed.

A great variety of Fancy Cloths, &c. &c. for Hunting Frocks.

Several Thousand Yards of Cords, Barragons, Fustians and Velveteens.

Gentlemen will find it greatly to their advantage to purchase at the CLOTH HALL, when purchasing their supplies.

A constant supply of Lace and Chest Buttons.

W. R. MACMAHON,

Limerick, November 30.

GOVERNESS.

A LADY of the Established Church is desirous of obtaining a Situation as Governess in a family in the country, where she can instruct a number of Pupils (not exceeding two or three) in French, History Ancient and Modern, Geography, Piano Forte. The most respectable and satisfactory references and testimonials, can be given.

Communications (post-paid) addressed to the Office, Killaloe shall be punctually attended to.

Timber, Deals, Pot-Ashes.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER

OFFERS for sale, on moderate terms, several thousand Deals, Oak and Deal Yards, Upper Mallow-Street, the following, lately landed ex the Portia, and the Union, from Quebec, and from St. John's, N. B.

Red and Yellow Pine Timber,

Oak, Ash, and Birch ditto,

Several Thousand Deals and Planed

dimensions,

Pipe, Hogshead and Barrel Staves

Ash Oars and Spars—and 10 Barrels Montreal Pot-Ashes.

Also on sale, Sheet Lead, Roman Cement, Fire Brick, Blocks and Tile; and most Building line.

Limerick, 11th Mont

KING'S COUNTY.

SALE OF ELEGANT FASHION

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

Turkey, Brussels, Venetian and Br