Six-The apparent schism which now agitates the religious community in this City, has been viewed with concern by some, and with feelings of no ordinary satisfaction by others. That the Rev. Mr. House has attracted very crowded congregations is evident to all; but that this fact is proof of the necessity of a Parish Church in St. Michael's, or argues a neglect of pastoral daties in the other houses of worship in . our city, is an inference which I must deny at the outset, - The churches of St. George, St. John, St. Munchin, and the Cathedral, are uniformly attended by most respectable congregations, and will any of the frequenters of those temples of the Lord allege, that pure Scriptural doctrine and sound morality are not here inculeated, with that zeal and decorum becoming the Minister of the Gospel ?-Have not Dissenting Chapels in St. Michael's parish like-
