TO GEORGE GARVEY
THORN VALE.
Oakhampton

DEAR SIR,
WE, the Tenantry of the Right Hon. Lord Bloomfield, in the County of Tipperary, have heard with horror and surprise, the unfeigned lives of you and Mrs. GARVEY. We are also on the miraculous escape from assassination also to hear of a report being in circulation dispossessed forty-five families on his Lordship's Estate. This is unworthy of notice, as it is a notorious fact that the publisher of such report knows it to be false, and that he has done so for the purpose of defence of such malice and slander; we are as we feel quite confident of his Lordship's landlord, and your honesty and fair dealing. We remain, dear Sir,

- Thorn-

MY DEAR SIR,
Pray be assured, and do me the favor to Lord Bloomfield's Tenantry, how gratefully we express our indignation at the late loss of my life, and for their kind congratulation and my providential escape, conveyed to me on the 15th ult.

The malicious and idle rumours circulated of late, persons, are, as you justly observe, totally unfounded.

Whilst we mutually persevere in the maintenance of the excellent system, directed by the Noble Duke of Devonshire, mate as to be connected with, we may see the efforts made to disturb the peace and prosperity of the estates which have been maintained with difficulty and danger.

That my humble efforts to carry that system into effect, have been attended with success, is, I am confident, evident from his Lordship's and his Majesty's approbation and confidence.

Believe me, my dear Sir,
Very truly yours,
GEORGE GARVEY
