FRANCIS C. SIKES & COMPANY,
 38, PATRICK-STREET, IMPORTERS,
THE QUARTERLY TEA SALES of the East India Company concluded last month, and as usual we purchased a considerable supply which we expect will be landed on the 9th instant.

It is now almost needless to call Public attention to this Establishment, as our having received in the short space of Sixteen Months very near Three Hundred Chests of Tea (a quantity which usually lasted the most extensive Grocers in this City 3 years), is a fact that speaks more than a volume of Advertisements.

The great increase in the consumption of our Five Shilling and Five and Fourpenny Tea (which we particularly recommend) is a proof, if any were wanting, of its Superior Quality, and we engage it equal to that usually sold at Seven Shillings per lb.

Boxes of TEA from 5lb to 15lb weight, of various qualities. TERMS, CASH ONLY.

Our present prices are as follows.

do. finest imported,		10 6
Imperial Gunpowder,		12 6

ROASTED COFFEES.
 Since our last advertisement Coffees have been gradually on the advance, their present very high price has induced many retailers to adulterate it with an article called "CHICORRE," which having much the appearance of ground Coffee, can be easily done and not discovered, till its injurious effects on the constitution are apparent, to avoid even the suspicion of this, we will grind any quantity in the presence of such individuals as may require it.

OUR PRICES ARE
 Good Jamaica Coffee, 1s. 10d. to 2s. 0d. per lb.
 East India & Mocha, 2s. 4d. to 2s. 6d. ditto.

GEORGE PARRIS,
 Veterinary Surgeon, late of London, Proprietor.

GEORGE PARRIS, grateful for the large portion of public favour which he has experienced in his Profession for the last two years, begs leave now to announce his having taken the above extensive Establishment, which is being fitted up in the most commodious manner, and will afford Travellers and Lodgers the advantages of convenient Sitting Rooms, good Bed Rooms, well-aired Beds, comfortable Fare, &c. &c.

The attention of Mrs. PARRIS and Family will be unremittingly, and it is confidently expected successfully, directed to the Hotel department, while G. P. now able to accommodate over Thirty Horses at Livery, will devote his entire time to the care of such Horses as shall be committed to him, and to the management of a large Veterinary and Shoeing Forge, which he has opened in the Concern.

Great comfort and satisfaction in every respect, with most moderate Charges, are the advantages this Establishment holds out to the public.

N. B.—A respectable young man would be taken as Apprentice.
 April 7.

ARTS AND SCIENCES.
 A YOUNG MAN would accept a situation in a Family as Tutor; he is highly qualified to teach the following Arts and Sciences, viz.: Writing, Short-hand, Arithmetic and Book-keeping; English Grammar, Geography, Music and Drawing; and if required, Geometry, (Measurement,) Perspective, &c.—The advertiser is well experienced in the way of Tuition, and he ranked in the van of his profession. He will give every satisfaction as to character and capability. The salary will not be regarded, a friendly home being the principal object.
 Any Commands left at the Office of this Paper, addressed M. C. D. will meet immediate attention: if by letter post-paid.
