

the Report observes) the various casualties its diffusion in such a multitude of small loans necessarily exposes it to.— We also beg attention to the interesting extracts from the Connacht and Limerick Reports, which accompany the Tabular view.

The Resolutions of the Parish of Donoughmore in the South Liberties, on the subject of Tithes, shall appear in our next.

Monday morning the body of Michael Smyth, a hatter, was found near the Pool—he fell into the river on the 29th December, when returning from drinking at a public house.

That admirable Artist, Signor BLITZ, will exhibit his unrivalled performances this evening, when a fashionable and crowded audience is expected.—See Advertisement.

BIRTHS.

At Palmerston, Dublin, the Lady of John Hely Hutchinson, Esq. M.P. of a daughter.

At Kinnaird House, Perthshire, the Lady of Colonel Sir Neil Douglas, of the 79th Highlanders, of a daughter.

At Devonport, the Lady of Major Leslie, of a son and heir.

At Spike-Island, on Friday, the Lady of Lieutenant-Colonel Pritchard, 56th Regiment, of a son.

On Sunday, at Belmont, Cork, the Lady of Robert King Cummins, Esq. of a daughter.

At Hyde Park, Cork, the Lady of J. Stack Murphy, Esq. of a son and heir.

In Harcourt-street, Dublin, the Lady of the Rev. George Peacocke, of a son.

In Waterford, the Lady of Simon Newport, of John's Hill Esq. of a daughter.

In Baker-street, London, the Lady of Major H. D. Campbell, of a daughter.

At Hampton Court, London, the Lady of J. C. Baird, Esq. 15th, or King's Hussars, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

This morning, by the Rev. John Aldworth, at Ballyorgan Church, Cathbert Chambers, Esq. of this City, to Maria, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Redgate Maunsell, of Mount-Sion, in this county, Esq.

In Back-street, Galway, Abraham Royse, Esq. to Jennette, third daughter of the late Marcus Lynch, Esq. of Duras Park, county Galway.

At St. Luke's Church, Chelsea, Avary Jordan, Esq. of Race-course Lodge, Cashel, county Tipperary, to Eliza, youngest daughter of J. Kelsall, of Colleshill-street, Pimlico, London.

In Swords Church, by the Rev. Mr. Thomas, Thomas Gilbert, to Henrietta, the second, and in the same place, same day, William Gilbert, late of Barberstown, Esq., to Hannah, the eldest daughter of Dr. Jackson, of Swords.

Thomas Francis Gale, of Bellbrook, Queen's County, Esq. to Emily, only daughter of the late Captain M'Kay, of the 3d Buffs.

In Dublin, Thomas Townsend, Esq. Adjutant of his Majesty's 60th Rifles, to Jane, Maria, third daughter of Captain John Mahony, of Killarney.

At Halton Chapel, in Cheshire, the Hon. Richard Bootle Wilbraham, eldest son of Lord Skelmersdale, to Jessy, third daughter of Sir Richard Brooke, Bart. of Norton Priory, in that county.

Joseph Black, Esq. of Londonderry, Comptroller of Customs, to Hannah, eldest daughter of William Bond, of Bond's hill, Esq.

In Waterford, Mr. George Percival, of Wexford, to Miss Bowen, of Cork.

DEATHS.

At Castle-Connell yesterday, Mrs. Butterfield, relict of Captain Butterfield, and sister of Rev. Thomas Westropp, of Doonass.

In Patrick street, this morning, John Fogarty, Esq. an eminent Woollen Draper, and a gentleman very generally esteemed by his fellow-citizens. His remains were interred this day.

On Monday morning, at Rathkeale, in this County, Mrs. Emilia Leake, relict of the late Samuel Leake, Esq. a lady whose amiable and endearing qualities render her death a source of deep affliction to a numerous circle of friends and relatives.

At Ballinacloe, of cholera, Joseph Molloy, of Killina, King's County.

Sunday last, in Mary-street, of apoplexy, to the deep regret of his family and friends, Mr. William Landers, a very respectable, industrious tradesman.

At his residence, Reen Lodge, Berehaven, of Apoplexy, in the 74th year of his age, the Rev. William Hodnett, Vicar of Kiloashin.

In Cork, Captain Alexander Paterson, for many years a most respectable Ship Master on the American-trade.

In Eyre-street, Galway, on Monday, after an illness of only a few hours' duration, James Hanly, Esq.

Mr. Mathew Shee, an old and respectable citizen of Waterford.

At Cheltenham, Thomas Coote, Esq. many years Chief Magistrate of Newfoundland.

At Brighton, Captain G. Burdett, R.N. of Longtown House, county Kildare, and Glennagarry, county Dublin.

In Merrion-avenue, Dublin, Robert Fletcher, Esq.

Mark Toomey, late of Eagle Hill, county Kildare, Esq.

John Mandeville, Esq. of Bonmahon, county Waterford, formerly of the East India Company's Service.

At Derry, Mrs. Heath, relict of the late Admiral Heath.

William Holmes, Esq. of Strabane, in his 63d year.

First Day—Monday, 16th July.

1. FIFTEEN POUNDS for Turf Boats of 20 Tons and upwards.—First Boat to receive £8—Second Boat £4—Third Boat £2—Fourth Boat £1. No race unless Seven start.

2. A Silver Cup value £40 for all Yachts not exceeding 25 Tons. No race unless Three start.

3. Five Pounds for Canoes. First Canoe to receive £3—Second Canoe £1 10s.—Third Canoe 10s. No race unless Seven start.

Second Day—Tuesday, 17th July.

1. Fifteen Pounds for all Fishing Boats not exceeding 20 Tons. First Boat to receive £8—Second Boat £4—Third Boat £2—Fourth Boat £1. No race unless Seven start.

2. A Silver Cup value £20 for Yachts belonging to the Club, not exceeding 15 Tons. No race unless Three start.

3. Ten Pounds for all Rigs not exceeding 10 Tons, not the property of Gentlemen. First Boat to receive £7—Second Boat £2—Third Boat £1. No race unless Seven start.

Third Day—Wednesday, 18th July.

1. A Silver Cup value £50 for all Yachts of 25 Tons and upwards. No race unless Three start.

2. Ten Pounds for all Pilot Boats.

3. A Silver Salver value £20 presented to the Club by the Commodore and vice Commodore to which the Committee for this year will add Ten Pounds for all Yachts belonging to the Club. To become the property of the Member who wins it three years in succession. No race unless Three start.

4. Sweepstakes of £2 each, to which the Club will add £5 for all Rigs under 10 Tons, the property of Gentlemen. No race unless Three start.

Fourth Day—Thursday, 19th July.

The Yachts will sail to the Pool of Limerick.

Fifth Day—Friday, 20th July.

1. Ten Pounds for all Boats pulling not more than Six Oars. First Boat to receive £8—Second Boat £2. No race unless Three start.

2. Five Pounds given by Samuel Dickson, Esq. to which the Club will add £2 for all Gondolas pulling not more than Four Oars. First Boat to receive £5—Second £2. No race unless Five start.

3. A Silver Challenge Cup value £10 presented to the Club by Messrs. Smith and Wallace for Boats pulling not more than Six Oars, to be pulled and steered by Gentlemen. To become the property of the person winning it, two years in succession.

4. Five Pounds given by Samuel Dickson, Esq. to which the Club will add £2 for all Briccaunes using not more than Four Paddles. The first to receive £3—Second £2—Third £1 10s.—Fourth 10s. No race unless Seven start.

No entrance required for Canoes, Gondolas, or Briccaunes, All Yachts and Boats to pay One Shilling in the Pound on the amount of the prize.

All Yachts, &c. must be entered with the Secretary before Six o'Clock, P.M. previous to the day of racing.

The Club will rendezvous for the first three days of the Regatta at Kilrush where the Sailing Matches are to take place. The Rowing Matches will be held in the Pool of Limerick.

The Committee reserve to themselves the power of altering any of the above articles, and of postponing the Regatta in the event of extreme bad or calm weather, of which due notice shall be given.

Subscriptions in aid of the Regatta will be received by the Stewards, Secretary, and by Messrs. Smith and Wallace, Patrick-street, Limerick.

THOMAS O'CONNELL, Secretary and Treasurer.

May 20. 2/3

CHANCERY.

Standish Peppard, Administrator of Elizabeth Locke } Pursuant to an Order made in a Cause wherein Elizabeth Locke was Plaintiff, and Sir Nathaniel Lavitte Peacocke, Bart. and others, } the said Sir Nathaniel Lavitte Peacocke, Bart. and the other defendants.

in this Cause were Defendants, bearing date the 27th day of October, 1831, I will, on Monday the 4th day of June next, at the hour of One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at my Chambers on the Inns-quay, Dublin, Set Up and Let to the highest and fairest Bidder, for a Term of Seven Years pending this Cause, from the 1st day of May instant, All That and Those that part of the Lands of BARNTICKE, called the ORCHARD, containing Eight Acres, late in the possession of John O'Brien,—And also, That Part of the Lands of CORKREA, containing 23a and 2roods, late in the possession of Thomas O'Brien,—both situate in the County of Clare, being part of the Lands and Premises in the pleadings mentioned.—Dated this 17th day of May 1832.

WILLIAM HENNE

N.B. Biddings by Persons properly authorized to make same, pursuant to the General Order bearing date the 15th July, 1828, will be received by the Master at the time of Letting, on behalf of any Person or Persons wishing to become Tenants.

The Tenant must take out Leases and give security by recognizance for payment of the rent and the punctual performance of the covenants, as is usual.

For particulars apply to WALKER JACKSON MASON, Esq. the Receiver in this Cause, 83, George's-street, Limerick, and during Term at his Office, 19, South Frederick-street, Dublin.

of industry, and the alleviation of distress, in 1831. It is with the utmost satisfaction that the Directors enabled to perform their duty, by communicating original Subscribers, by whose benevolence these contributions were raised; the following Statem Account, in proof of the great benefits that have from this appropriation.

Extract from the Report of a Local Board in Conn. Dated March 1th, 1832.

"We feel much pleasure in assuring you that the conditions of our loan-fund are now very perceptible, a prove more and more beneficial to the industrious pe —"The Boon is received with grateful acknowle and the instalments are paid up with great punctua

"Many of the persons relieved by these Loans previously paying from 12 to 20 per cent. above t money price for the different articles to carry on th pations, and many, though well disposed to exert altogether disabled from the pursuits of honest in the want of temporary assistance; and here the good character was manifest, for such as possessed solvent persons ready to become their societies fo payment of the loan."—"The good that has bee our neighbour's good, by this Institution, is almost ble; not only individuals, but whole districts h benefited, and a spirit of industry and exertion created by it."

Extract from Ditto in Limerick, dated March 17. "It is with more than ordinary satisfaction we to you, in accordance with the prescribed regu statement of our proceedings of the past year, fo they have been more than co-extensive with the tr of former years, we feel a confident hope that thos ings are fraught with the most important benefi this prospect arise solely from the improvements w may naturally be expected to produce in regard to ment, but from a cause still more gratifying, n amended habits of industry and punctuality a borrowers, emanating from an experience of the and advantages to be derived from, these loans."

"We are also happy to perceive an increasin gratitude among the Peasantry; for the interes taken to relieve their wants and promote their we for the seasonable aid afforded by our advances; Farmer and Cottier being thereby enabled to manure to fertilize, and seed to cultivate his fe land; the Artizan being furnished with the undertaking and perfecting some profitable bran which, without such assistance, he must have abandoned; while almost every member of the family, has an opportunity of converting our s wool into articles of clothing, bedding, &c. &c. indeed to be mentioned, that, wherever an intere taken in these loans, and the operations of the sy regulated and zealously administered, a manifes tion of the circumstances and appearance of a happily observable."

"On a general retrospect of our administration luable resource, we cannot refrain from calling; tion to the fact, that notwithstanding the casualties upon the first establishment of a fund of this natu cumulation upon the small capital of £6,300. £1,100, and we venture to give utterance to o that were similar loans diffused throughout Irela judicious and conservative system of managemen jects would be found more effectually to promote and good order of the country."

A Tabular view of the amount, appropriation, a state of the Irish Charitable Loan Fun

County.	Original Fund.	Increase (by the Interest Paid.)	Decrease
Clare,.....	6,000	£	£ 11
Cork.....	8,028	887
Galway....	7,065	434
Kerry.....	5,777	298
Leitrim....	2,000		867
Limerick..	6,370	1,151
Mayo.....	9,300	1,403
Roscommon	4,500	539
Sligo.....	3,870		39
Tipperary..	2,500
	55,410	4,712	917

W. H. HYETT, S

Made up to 31st December, 1831.

This statement shews, that after the deduction not only has the original sum been preserved, by now exists, clear of every charge and expence; cable to the purposes of these charitable loans still in active operation, no less a sum than £1 exceeding by £3795 the amount of the original Directors deem it an act of justice to express th their cordial acknowledgment of the valuable ass have received from their friends in Ireland, w kindly co-operated with them, and by whose fo zeal, and circumspection, the success of this in dertaking has been effectually promoted.

JOHN SMITH, C

Dated London, 1st May, 1832.