EDUCATION.

LIMERICK FEINAGLIAN INSTITUTION.

THE Rev. G. GREGG having removed his School to a more airy and commodious situation, No. 2, Richmond Place, Crescent, is now enabled to accommodate a few additional Boarders.

In addition to an excellent open ere, there is afforded the advantage of a Garden, and ground for exercise, in a most healthful adjoining enclosure, in a safe and desirable neighbourhood, thus affording all the advantages of a Town and Country residence.

Mr. G. in returning thanks for the encouragement given to the above system of Education which he has partially adopted, hopes to continue to merit public patronage, by affording additional and satisfactory proofs of the progress of his pupils. With the co-operation of Parents, corporal punishment will be especially avoided.

WILLIAM LEE, whose success at College entrance, &c. was alluded to in a former advertisement, also obtained at last June examination both the Science and Classical Premium.

For further proofs of Mr. G's success as a Teacher, reference may be had to his former advertisements.

N.B.—There are no extra charges, and the period is uniformly deducted in case of sickness, or other reasonable cause of absence.

Mr. G. has obtained excellent Teachers in the French and other departments.

Private Pupils prepared for entrance or the quarterly examinations.

Protestant Rent.

WANTED, Persons qualified and competent to receive and collect voluntary Contributions from the Protestants resident throughout Ireland.

It is proposed that there should be a Collector for every County in the Kingdom (exclusive of cities and large towns,) each of whom will have the power of appointing Sub-Collectors, and of dividing his County into Baronial or Parochial Districts—of making such other local arrangements as may be calculated to facilitate the collection, and of affording to every individual of the Protestant Community, no matter how circumscribed his means, or lowly his station, an opportunity of contributing, at the least possible inconvenience, to this great National Fund.

As a very liberal premium in the nature of a per centage will be allowed on the collection of the "RENT"—Security, the most ample and satisfactory, will be required, and references to, and testimonials of Gentlemen within the County of each applicant expected. The nominations will be made in favour of those persons most strongly recommended—loyalty to the King, obedience to the Laws, moral rectitude of character, and a competent knowledge of business being essential.

Persons desirous of undertaking the Collection will send their applications with the names of the Securities they propose to give, the recommendations of character, qualifications, &c. upon which they mean to rely, and the terms upon which they will undertake the collection in their respective Counties, addressed (post-paid) to the Secretaries of the Protestant Conservative Society, 85, Grafton-Street, Dublin.

TIPPERARY ENDOWED SCHOOL.

THE business of the School will be resumed on Monday the 23d Instant.

An early attendance of the Pupils is particularly requested, as Professor Spalding has been engaged to give lectures on Elocution, System of Attitude and Gesture, &c., early in August, the great advantages of which have been fully developed at the examinations in June, and highly appreciated by a crowded audience, composed of the rank and fashion of the surrounding neighbourhood.

The house is beautifully situated, and decidedly one of the finest establishments in Ireland, thirteen thousand pounds having been expended on it about twelve or thirteen years ago. It is quite detached from the town, and stands aloof from every species of nuisance, and the play-grounds are very extensive and dry.

No expence has been spared in procuring Assistants of the highest character in every department: there is little or no corporal punishment, except in cases of absolute necessity.
The Pupils are treated like gentlemen, and trained up with gentlemanly feelings, and nothing omitted that may tend to
