DEATHS.

This day at his residence in William-street, sincerely and deservedly lamented, Richard Franklin, Esq. Surgeon.—Seldom has it fallen to our lot to record the death of a more respected citizen. Mr. Franklin commenced his professional career in the Naval Service of his Country—having served as an Assistant-Surgeon on board the Valiant, 74, on the 12th of April 1782, which Ship bore so distinguished and gallant a part in the celebrated Naval action and victory gained by our fleet (under the command of Admiral Lord Rodney,) over the enemies of Britain. After having served Ten Years in the Royal Navy, Mr. F. returned to his native land, but being of an active and enterprising disposition, he shortly re-entered the service of his King and Country, and on the formation of the 2d Fencible Light Dragoons, was appointed Surgeon thereto, and continued so until the reduction of the Regiment in 1799. He then returned to his native City and has since practised extensively as an eminent Surgeon, and attended on most of our public charities. By his death, society has lost a kind hearted, honorable, and useful member, and the Medical Profession will long regret the loss of one of its oldest and most esteemed practitioners.

At Castle-Connell, universally lamented by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, Joseph Kilkelly, Esq. of Nenagh, half-pay of the 98th regiment. He was an affectionate husband, a fond father, and a sincere friend.

This morning, of violent spasmodic cholera, the Rev. Edmond Fitzgibbon, Roman Catholic Curate of St. John's Parish—a most active and humane Clergyman, whose unexampled labours during the prevalence of this destructive malady, while ministering to the relief of the poor and the sick, hurried him to a premature grave. The remains of this lamented gentleman were interred this day, in John's Chapel, the funeral being attended by immense crowds from every parish in Limerick.

This morning, of cholera, Mr. Robert Ring, builder, leaving a wife and nine children.

In Thomas-street, of cholera, Mrs. M'Carthy, wife of Mr. M'Carthy, cork manufacturer.

On Friday, the 8th Inst. at Cove, in the prime of life, after a lingering and painful illness, Henrietta Emilia, the beloved wife of Rowan P. Cashel, of Lissen Hall, in the County of Tipperary, Esq. She was an affectionate wife, a fond and attentive mother, a kind friend to the poor and distressed, and a true and sincere Christian. She lived esteemed by all who knew her, and died regretted by the poor and humble of Heart.

In Waterford, after a short illness, Jacob Scroder, Esq. Merchant of that City.

At Youghal, of cholera, Doctor Dartnell, a zealous and skilful physician, whose death has spread a great gloom over the town.

At his residence, Tinnykilly Lodge, county Wicklow, the Hon. Francis Charles Annesley, youngest son of the late, and brother to the present Right Hon. Earl Annesley.

At Quebec, Mr. T. Goodchild, formerly of Waterford.

In Bagwell-street, Clonmel, Mr. James Smith, Glover.

On Thursday, at Tralee, after retiring from the Sessions, Mr. William Hamilton, of Ballinclare.

On Monday, of cholera, at the house of her sister, Mrs. Jeffers, Castle-street, Tralee, Miss Ellen Neligan.

In Tralee, of Cholera, on Wednesday last, Mr. Francis Poyntz—Miss Dillon, niece of Jeremiah Lawler, Esq. whose death appeared in our last—Mrs. Sealy, relict of Samuel Sealy, and sister of Mrs. Lawler, whose death also appeared in our last—Miss Greany, niece of Dr. Mawe—Mr. James Raymond—all died after an illness of a few hours.

In Tralee, of cholera, Amelia, sister of Thomas Mawe, Esq. M. D.

In Middle-street, Galway, after a short illness, Miss Daly.
