DEATHS.

This day, at Newmarket, in-Fergus, of cholera, the Rev. Mr. McCulloch, Rector of Kilmacoola, a most worthy and pious Clergyman.

In London, on Thursday last, Wyndham Magrath Fitz-Gerald, Esq. only surviving son of the late John Magrath Fitz-gerald, of Redmonstown, county Tipperary, Esq. whose death is a source of affliction to his family and friends.

Yesterday of Cholera, Mr. Thomas M'Mahon, some years an eminent grocer and wine merchant of this City.

In Catherine-Street, Jane, sister of the late Thomas Seymour, Esq. of this City.

In Boherbuoy, Mr. Michael Dunne, late farrier-major in the 4th Dragoon Guards.

Yesterday, of Cholera, in Mary-street, Mr. M'Donnell, shoemaker.

At Castle-Connell, of consumption, Mary Goodwin, aged 42, leaving a large family to deplore her loss.

In Russell-street, Tralee, of cholera, Mr. Stephen Rice At Denham, Barbara, wife of John Drummond, Esq. of Charing-cross.

Robert Randal, youngest son of James Foot, Esq. aged 18 months.

In Mill-street, Ennis, on Saturday evening last, suddenly, of a fit of apoplexy, Mrs. Ryan, wife of Mr. Richard Ryan.

Of Cholera, at Ennis, after a few hours illness, Patrick Power, Esq. late of this City, leaving a young family to deplore his unexpected death.—Same day, of cholera, Mr. Pat. Molony, hardware-merchant.

In Tralee, of Cholera, Mary, relict of the late Mr. Charles Tuite, of Cork, butter-merchant.

In Tralee, of cholera, Thomas Mawe, Esq. M.D. The inhabitants of Tralee and the public at large, will long regret the unexpected death of this Medical gentleman. His incessant attendance at the Hospitals—from the commencement, and during the period of the epidemic—together with his very successful practice on many private cases, caused a state of debility, predisposing him for a death so sudden and so melancholy. Dr Mawe, his sister, and his niece, died of the cholera in one week.

Of cholera, in Russell-street, Tralee, in the prime of life, Lucy, youngest daughter of Mr. Maurice Gloster, Painter and Glazier.

Of Typhus Fever, at his brother's house, Grattan-street, Cork, Mr. William Crosbie, Cabinet-maker.

At Dunmore Harbour, William Lecky Jacob, of Waterford, Esq. aged 21 years.

At Wexford, Captain Mortimer O'Leary, formerly of Waterford.

At Lucan, after a lingering and painful illness, John Grogan, of Harcourt-street, Esq. deservedly regretted.

Of cholera, Miss Vance, daughter of Andrew Vance, Esq. Dublin.

Of consumption, at Exeter, Mary Anne, second daughter of the late Joseph James, Esq. of Ashley House, Devonshire.

In London Mrs. Walker late Proprietress of a distinguished Seminary in Dublin, and wife of J. Walker, Esq. formerly Fellow Trinity College.

Morgan Bullock, Esq. formerly Surgeon in the 11th Light Dragoons.

At Corkbegg, Clotilda Elizabeth, wife of Savage French, Esq. of Cuskinny, in the 43d year of her age.

George Hugh, second son of Arthur Webb, Esq. Surveyor-General of the Post-office.

At the Island of Grenada, Mr. Wm. Pollock Crowcher, of his Majesty's Customs.

Aged 38, Sarah, wife of Daniel M'Swiny, Esq. of Kempstown, and second daughter of the late Edw. Allfree, Esq. of Hurstmonceaux.

Mary, daughter of Thomas Wyly, Esq. of Glassen, county Westmeath.

In Dublin, aged thirty years, John Hughes, Esq. who had served about twenty years in the stationary stores of his Majesty's Custom-house with the greatest integrity till the office was abolished.

IRISH REFORM ACT.

MR. WORRALL, Solicitor, begs to inform, not only all Persons now possessing the Elective Franchise, but all who are Enfranchised by this Act, that having closely attended to the progress of it he has acquired very accurate knowledge of its details. He, therefore, offers his assistance in perfecting the necessary Notices, Affidavits, &c. and in giving full Instructions to Claimants.

He has prepared the several Forms to be used with the utmost care, and the Public may rely on obtaining them correctly printed at R. P. CANTER'S, Francis-street, Limerick.

Mr. W. may be consulted in his OFFICE, FRANCIS-STREET, LIMERICK, on and from Wednesday, the 22d August, between the Hours of Eleven and Four o'Clock. August 15.

FORMS

UNDER THE REFORM ACT.

RICHARD P. CANTER begs leave to apprise the legal Profession and all persons possessed of, as well as all those entitled to claim the Elective Franchise under this act, that he has in the press, under the direction of a professional Gentleman of great experience, and will be ready for sale on Friday next, all Notices, Affidavits, and other Forms

Provision Stores.

TO BE LET,

FROM THE 29TH SEPTEMBER NEXT,

The Corn Store in Upper William-Street,

OPENING TO CORNWALLIS-STREET, AND NOW IN THE POSSESSION OF MESSRS. JOHN & PAT. M'DONNELL.

THE situation is one of the best in Limerick, being at the junction of the great thoroughfares from the Cork and Tipperary roads and Boherbuoy, and most central and advantageous for all purposes of business.

It would be let either with or without a Yard and Office adjoining, and a lease for any term can be given.

The Office with Storage underneath, and a good loft overhead, would be let separately.

Application to J. J. FISHER, North Strand, or in his absence to Mr. L. QUINLIVAN, 126, George's-street. August 15.

COUNTY OF LIMERICK,

BARONY OF LOWER ORMOND,

TO BE LET, for three lives, for any other term that may be agreed upon, the CORN STORE of CAMERON, with a small Dwelling House, annexed and with or without Fifty Acres of Tillage and Pasture Land.

Cameron Store is situated on a bay of the Shannon of the same name, and in the centre of a most extensive wheat district. Its convenience to Droghda, the harbour for the Steamer, renders it well adapted for a trading station.

Apply to JOHN MINCHIN, Esq. Aunah, Nenagh, if by letter postage to be paid. August 15.

TO BE LET,

IN one Lot for such term as may be agreed on, from the 29th September next, immediate possession given, about 100 ACRES of the Lands of M'DREENY, near CLOUGH-JORDAN, in the County Tipperary.

The Lands are in excellent heart, particularly well adapted for the rearing of Sheep, well Fenced, Sheltered and Watered and produce excellent Crops—those now on the Land may be had at a Valuation, including some Prime HAY.

Proposals (post-paid) will be received by GEORGE GARVEY, Esq. Thornvale, Moneygall, who will immediately close with a solvent Tenant, none other need apply.

The Lands will be shewn by the Steward at M'Dreeny House. August 15.

EQUITY—EXCHEQUER.

John Unthank, and Joseph Massy Harvey, PLAINTIFFS.

Tyrrell George Evans, John Tyrrell Evans, Wm. Wilson, and Charles Mayne, DEFENDANTS.

PURSUANT to the Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland made in this cause, bearing date the 26th day of April 1832—I hereby require all persons having charges or incumbrances affecting the mortgaged Lands and premises in the pleadings in this Cause mentioned, prior to the mortgage of the 2nd day of October 1832, in the pleadings mentioned, and all Creditors and Legatees of George Evans, deceased in the said Decree named to come in before me at my Chambers on the Inn's Quay, Dublin, on or before the first day of October next, and prove their demands otherwise they will be precluded from all benefit arising from said Decree.

Dated this 11th day of August 1832. A. R. BLAKE, C.R.

RICHARD SCOTT, Attorney, for the Plaintiffs, No. 19, North Earl-Street, Dublin. August 15.
