William Eagar, of Molesworth-street, Dublin, Esq.

In the North Main-street, Cork, Mrs. Sharp, relict of the late William Sharp, Esq. of Glenmount, co. Cork.

At Marlfield Distillery, of a decline, Mr. J. Stephenson, Officer of Excise.

In Sligo, of cholera, Mr. Thomas Gillon.

Of cholera, in Sligo, between Friday and Sunday last—Mary, daughter of Francis M'Cann, Esq.—Eliza, daughter of W. Middleton, Esq.—Wm. Middleton, Esq.—Mr. John Vincent, Organist—The wife of Mr. Wm. Supple.—Doctor Coyne.

At Finnisklin, county Sligo, Eleanor, wife of Mr. George Knipe.

At Phipsboro' Avenue, Anne, wife of Willam Smith, Esq. of the Bank of Ireland.

At Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, Denis M'Carthy, Esq. Mrs. Blake, wife of Robert J. Blake, Esq. of Carrokkellen, county Galway.

In Grafton-street, Dublin, in the 24th year of his age, the Rev. John Locke, Roman Catholic Clergyman.

At Roebuck House, near Dublin, Mary, eldest daughter of John Power, Esq.

At Paris, R. French, Esq. of French-Park, Roscommon, uncle of the Member for that county.

Suddenly, at Bognor, of a paralytic stroke, the Countess of Arran.

At Lorn, Isle of Man, Christian, widow of the late Lieut.-Colonel Cunningham, 68th regiment.

Harriet Sophia, the lamented wife of Fort-Major Watson, of Plymouth.

Saturday, in his seventieth year, Sir Simon Newport, Alderman, Charter Justice, and one of the Water-Bailiffs of the City of Waterford. He served the office of Sheriff in 1785, upon which occasion he received the honor of Knighthood; he was Mayor in 1792, 1796, and in 1824.

At Penny come-quick, near Portsmouth, Miss C. C. J. Hely, daughter of the late Lieut. Col. Hely, 11th regiment of foot.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,—The sentiments expressed towards me in your kind and aff call forth feelings of gratitude and humi course has ceased; but it will always be me at the Throne of Grace with thankful says "I was with you in weakness, in fe trembling;" yet you received from me th with attention, and forgot the infirmities o the importance of the Cause. If I have be of conveying Spiritual Blessings to your so be ascribed the praise! If I have planted faithfulness, may He give the increase!

In relieving the temporal wants of the bled, by the peculiar circumstances of
